Promise Survey Of Bridge Site At Campbellton

CAMPBELLTON, Sept. 11—In a letter received here, officials of the Federal Government promised that in the not too distant future, it may be possible to undertake a survey of the Restigouche River waterway at building time...

The Joint Campbellton-Cross Point committee by Benoit Michael, Point P. Letters had been received from Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction and supply, and Hon. Alphonse Fournier, minister of public works...

In a letter to Mr. Michael, Mr. Fournier stated: "This construction is what we term a post-war project and an endeavour will be made to make the original survey in the near future in order that considerable may be given to the project as soon as the time when it is proposed to deal with the work."

However, he added, it is impossible to say whether such projects will, although it is felt that in the not too distant future, circumstances will converge themselves to a point that men can be obtained and at that time construction will be given to this particular matter."

Mr. Howe's letter said in part: "I understand that a survey of the site of the proposed crossing will be undertaken by the department of public works but this cannot be put in hand until a survey party can be made available."

Several distinguished visitors outside of the Synod will be present, including the Moderator of the General Assembly, the chairman of the Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and the editor of the Presbyterian Record, the official organ of the Church.

Because of the Geddie celebration the meeting will likely run one day longer than usual, closing on Saturday, October 5. It is expected that this will be a record Synod, and a great inspirational meeting. The Synod will give an appreciation and interpretation of Dr. Geddie's place in the Canadian Church.

Maritime Synod To Commemorate Geddie Centennial

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces which opens in Pictou on the first Tuesday of October, will be of more than usual interest this year inasmuch as in addition to the ordinary business of the Synod it will commemorate the one hundred anniversary of the departure of its first missionary to the foreign field. This was the beginning of the Foreign Mission movement of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and John Geddie was its first missionary.

The Synod will give an appreciation and interpretation of Dr. Geddie's place in the Canadian Church. Because of the Geddie celebration the meeting will likely run one day longer than usual, closing on Saturday, October 5.
