Fanning, widow of the late Capt. John Fanning at the advanced age of eighty four. Deceased was a native of Newfoundland, and came to this city from Montreal some twenty years ago. She was a very charitable woman and was possessed of many other fine qualities. All through her life had she been preparing to meet her Creator and when the final call came she answered it with a willingness not perceived in many.

During her illness she was attended by her pastor, Rev. William V. McDonald and received the last rites of the Catholic Church at his hands. Her funeral took place on Christmas Day from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, the services being conducted by Rev. Francis McQuaid who also officiated at the grave. The pall bearers were: Bernard Corrigan, Thomas L. Smith, James McMurrer, and Patrick Sinnott. (Patriot and Examiner please copy.)

IN MEMORIAM

VINCENT EARL TRAINOR

While on his busy journey around Kinkora, "The Angel of Death" hovered for an instant, on Monday morning Dec. 30th, 1918, over the home of Mr. John Trainor and claimed as its victim his fourth son Vincent Earl at the early age of twenty-three.

The deceased had been enjoying excellent health until about eight days previous to his death, which resulted from the dreaded disease influenza followed by pneumonia.

Earl, as he was familiarly known was a young man of exemplary character. Charity, honesty and morality were indelibly written on every page of his history. He was never known to speak a word of ill-will to any one; and it is truly said that he departed from this world without an enemy.

He was a faithful and consistent member of the Catholic Church, and from the hands of its minister Rev. J. J. McDonald he received his last rights, and was prepared for his sojourn through the shades of death.

Earl will be sadly missed by all who knew him; but especially in his home, where his cheerful voice and jovial manner were a source of infinite happiness. There are left to mourn their irreparable loss, a sorrowing mother and father; one sister, Mrs. P. A. McKenna, Newton; and also four brothers, namely: George P. in Halifax, Emmet, Cecil J. and John at home, all of whom have a consolation in knowing that it was the Will of God that Earl should be called from this life into the mansions of bliss, where he shall intercede for those whom he has left so suddenly; and where, no fear shall trouble him nor pain afflict him; but pure delight and unspeakable joy shall be his for eternity.

His funeral took place on Monday evening to St. Malachi's Cemetery, Kinkora. Rev. J. J. McDonald officiated at the grave, and all that was mortal of Earl was laid in its resting place.
