DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION Vocational Courses

Under the provisions of FEDERAL-PROVINCIAL VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS ASSISTANCE AGREEMENT the Vocational School in Charlottetown is prepared to offer a number of courses to the young people of this Province.

The courses offered are as follows:

- Course 1 Carpentry
- Course 2 Practical Electricity
- Course 3 Plumbing and Pipe-fitting
- Course 4 Blacksmithing
- Course 5 Bricklaying and Plastering

Any of the above courses having a sufficient number of applicants will commence Tuesday, November 1st, excepting Bricklaying and Plastering which will commence at a time to be announced later. The courses will be of six months duration.

No tuition fees will be charged and all materials, tools and equipment required for instructional purposes will be supplied. Students taking these courses will provide their own living expenses.

Under the provisions of the YOUTH TRAINING SCHEDULE OF THE FEDERAL-PROVINCIAL VOCATIONAL TRAINING AGREEMENT the following short term courses for young men and young women will be offered beginning January 4th, 1950.

- Course 1. HOME MANAGEMENT—This course will include, Home Management, Cooking, Sewing, Home Nursing and Health. The course will last six weeks and a second course may be offered if there are sufficient applicants.
- Course 2. AGRICULTURE—A six week's course so arranged that in addition to the regular students, those interested in any particular division of the work may attend during the week it is being given. Further announcement will be made shortly as to the subdivisions of this course, the dates on which these will be given and the names of the instructors.

A course lasting approximately four weeks will be given in grading and packing of eggs and in poultry and poultry management.

Course 3. FARM MECHANICS—A four month course to include care and repair of farm machinery, tractors, cars and gas engines, harness repair, elementary electricity, pipe fitting, blacksmithing, wood working, and bricklaying.

Those who complete satisfactorily the full course under the youth training programme will receive an allowance of five dollars a week to assist in living expenses.

If sufficient applications are received, night courses, beginning Nov. 1st will be given in the following:

- 1. Electricity-motor wiring—two nights per week until course is completed.
- 2. Carpentry—two nights per week.
- 3. Plumbing—two nights per week.
- 4. Sheet Metal Work—two nights per week.
- 5. Home Management—two nights per week.
- 6. Sewing—two nights per week.
- 7. Advanced sewing course. This class is limited to those who successfully completed sewing course given last year. In case of Home Management and sewing, classes will be limited to 16 and 30 per course respectively. For this reason applicants will be chosen in the order in which they apply.

For information regarding courses, No. 5, 6, 7, and the tuition for each course apply in writing to Miss Doris Anderson, Vocational School.

All courses are of an intensely practical nature and they provide a favorable opportunity for young men and women to learn a trade, improve their knowledge and train themselves for wider and more effective service.

Application forms for enrolment in any of these courses may be secured from Ralph MacLean, Supervisor, Vocational School, Charlottetown. Please do not delay, apply at once.

F. A. LARGE, Minister of Education.
