IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES MCKENNA
The many friends of Mr. James McKenna in city and country were painfully shocked on hearing the sad news of his sudden passing away on Sunday the 23rd September, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. The deceased had been in the enjoyment of his usual good health to within a quarter of an hour of his unexpected demise. He had devotedly attended the services of the Mission in St. Dunstan's Cathedral during the previous two weeks and was early in his place for the closing services on Sunday evening. Shortly after entering the Cathedral and kneeling in prayer he was noticed to grow faint and was at once carried to the vestibule. Rev. Maurice McDonald was immediately sent for and, on arriving the Sacrament of Extreme Unction was administered. Dr. McGuigan was hastily summoned, but although on his arrival Mr. McKenna was still breathing, medical aid was unavailing and while the prayers for the dying were being read by Father McDonald and responded to by the assembled congregation, the soul of a just man peacefully went forth to its eternal reward. Truly such a death was a happy one and another proof that as a man lives so shall he die. Deceased was a man of quiet, unassuming disposition, upright and honest in all his dealings, a worthy citizen, kind, obliging neighbor and a true friend. Apart from these and his many good qualities he was noted for his rare gift of wit and humor, which he could so well use to point a moral or adorn a tale and which never pained but always delighted his pleased listeners and no doubt his amusing anecdotes and ready repartee tended much to make him the general favorite that he was with young and old who knew him.
The funeral took place on Tuesday the 25th ult. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and was largely attended by all classes of citizens including many friends and acquaintances from the country thus evidencing the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Maurice McDonald and the services at the grave were conducted by Rev. William Monaghan, Pastor of Seven Mile Bay.
Deceased leaves to mourn his wife and brother John, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.
The pall bearers were: J. J. Johnston, S. P. Paoli, K. C. Holm, Jerome McGuigan, Clem Blanchard, Charles Cummings.
May his soul rest in peace.

Maritime Religious Educational Conference

Manitoba has been getting an example for the other provinces to follow in Boys Work and has accomplished this through publicity, energetic headquarters management and planning and hard work of the several Boards. Bulletins are issued every six weeks to every Registered Mentor the press is supplied with the interesting doings of the units and in November of 1922 the Boys' Free Press, a Boys' paper issued by the Manitoba Proe Press in cooperation with the Manitoba Boys' Work Board for the purpose of developing fourfold life through the Trail Ranger and Tuxis program came into being. This paper is issued weekly and has a circulation of nearly 70,000.
Training of the Mentors and assisting them in their work has helped in the adding of the 300 groups during the past year. The greatest training agency this year was the provincial leadership Training Camp held at Pelican Lake. There were 65 present from 35 different communities throughout the Provinces. These men represented many walks of life, the average age being 31. A very wide range of training in Boys Work was covered, giving those present a knowledge of developing boy life and an appreciation of the possibilities of the G. E. B. T. Program and a working knowledge of same.
Mr. Geo E. Stewart, President of the Boys' Work Board was Dean of Camp and the following were the subjects:—Bible Study, Psychology, Physical Education, Music and Songs; Oarscraft; C. Z. R. Y. Mechanics; Nature Study and Special Addresses. Another important agency was the 19 conferences held for the older boys were faced during these conferences with the most practical and vital life issues; and as a consequence many decisions were made by the boys along the following lines:
1. Christian life.
2. Church Membership.
3. Back to School.
4. Leadership for younger Boys in my own Community.
5. Pure and approved Health Hygiene.
6. A Real Fellow in my Home.
7. A Life of Service in Whatever vocation I choose.
The most of the leadership for these Conferences was provided by the Provincial Board, but the entire responsibility of promotion was announced by the District Boards.
Several Mentors training classes were held during last winter, three of these being in Wesley, Manitoba and Bradon Colleges, where special training in C. S. E. T. Work is being given to the theological students. The most outstanding piece of work along this line in an attempt to train college men for Boys' Work has been undertaken by Manitoba Agricultural College. This work has been largely inspired by Henry C. Grant, a fifth year student who attended our Provincial Leadership training Camp this year. Over 100 men are organized into Tuxis squads and they carry on each week according to the Tuxis Program. They are charting themselves or one another and every fellow is being chartered. They have all been initiated and many are winning badges. They are taking this training for the sake of the growing boy back in the rural community in which they live.
The provincial R. E. C. Secretary in commenting on the work of the season that is just commencing issues a call to the Boards to emphasize the following:
1. That Mentors appreciate more and more the necessity of intensive training.
2. That churches will realize that if they are to do this work intelligently and thoroughly they must organize Boys' Work Boards and Older Boys' Work Boards and supervise the work.
3. That Boys' Work Boards and Mentors give every opportunity to Older Tuxis boys to assume responsibility and find ample expression through self-government.
4. That with the rapid growth of our work there will be the kindest and most sympathetic attitudes on the part of all our leaders to all other boy organizations.
5. That the big thing to emphasize in connection with our work is the fourfold idea for growth.
6. That religion should permeate all life in the Spirit of Jesus Christ.
7. That there may be an ever increasing conviction on the part

Farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Duncan
A very pleasant evening was spent in the Ladies Parlor of Zion Church last Friday evening when the Session and Choir came together to bid goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Duncan on the eve of their departure for Ontario. After a solo by Miss Jean Allan, splendidly rendered and accorded, Mr. Duncan gave a few numbers on the piano which were of a very high order and showed him a master of the instrument.
The minister, the Rev. George C. Taylor, then called upon Mr. Duncan and read the following address:
Mr. William Duncan, A. Mus. T.C.L. Organist and Choir Instructor. Zion Church.
Dear Mr. Duncan:—On the eve of your departure from our congregation we, the Session and Choir of Zion Church desire to place on record our high appreciation of your faithful and efficient services during the time of your incumbency as Organist and Choir Instructor. We are glad that our relations have always been of the most cordial and happy nature and as you go from us to another sphere of service we trust that pleasant memories will be mutual between yourself and us. Looking over the work of the past year we remember not only the high quality of your work in the choir but also your warm interest in the missionary work of our church and your self-sacrificing efforts in that connection. Your endeavour to foster a love of music among the young people of our Church has also been very much appreciated and we are sure your work in this department will bear fruit in days to come.
Nor can we overlook the ready willingness of your worthy helpmate Mrs. Duncan, to assist the various organizations of our Church in every possible way. Her services in the Choir and Sabbath School have been very helpful indeed and will not soon be forgotten.
As you go from our midst, our prayer is that God may guide you and bless you and continue to use you in the services of His Church. As a slight remembrance and token of our esteem we ask you to accept this gift which carries with it our heartfelt wishes for your future success and prosperity wherever God in His good Providence may lead you.

Mrs. Duncan also spoke of their pleasant associations with Zion Church and thanked all for many kindnesses.
Refreshments were then served and a pleasant hour of song, followed, Miss Jean Fraser officiating at the piano.
Mr. and Mrs. Duncan leave for Upper Canada on Wednesday, carrying with them the best wishes of the congregation for their future happiness and prosperity.

To The Wife— See To The Husband
Are You Happy? "MID-CHANNEL" Are You Happy?

Did You—know that in spite of motor cars, servants, gorgeous gowns, palatial home, and all that, a woman can be extremely unhappy?
Do You—know that there is more genuine happiness in the homes of the middle classes and even those in comparatively mediocre circumstances than in the homes of most of the rich?
Would You prefer a beautiful home with servants to wait on you, wealth galore, gowns, motor cars and everything that wealth could provide, and an unhappy married life, or would you take "love in a cottage" with the man you love and who loves you?
Can You picture the misery and utter wretchedness of a beautiful high strung accomplished woman being married to a nasty tempered bulldozing type of a man who gives of his money, but not of his affection or love?

Clara Kimball YOUNG
In the wonderful Ethel Barrymore stage success "MID-CHANNEL" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, the play that started bliss New York. The play that is destined to become one of the most famous moving pictures ever screened. The play that presents Clara Kimball Young in the most wonderful characterization of her entire career.
