FELT LIKE A TOTAL WRECK

Charlottetown Lady Finds Drecto a Wonderful Remedy for Stomach and Kidney Troubles

Mrs. D. McPherson, of 325 Dorchester Street, Charlottetown, gives Drecto all credit for her remarkable gain in health. Stomach and kidney trouble were making life a misery for her until the advent of this new herbal remedy. Here is Mrs. McPherson's own statement:

"I suffered agonies from stomach and kidney troubles until I started taking Drecto. Everything I ate would cause gas to form in my stomach which became so bad at times and made me so dizzy that I thought I would faint. The pains across my back often became so severe that I could hardly do my work. My liver was also very sluggish and I was troubled with a great deal with constipation. I was very nervous and in fact was feeling like a total wreck."

"Thanks to Drecto, however, all my stomach troubles are ended and the pains are leaving me. I am no longer constipated. I feel like a different person and Drecto gets all the praise I can give it, for the wonders it has done for me. I intend continuing the full treatment and strongly recommend Drecto to anyone who suffers as I did."

Drecto contains no mercury or habit forming drugs. It is prepared solely from nature's herbs, roots, bark and leaves and tones and regulates the vital organs. Drecto is the ideal tonic and will help you as it has helped thousands of others.

Drecto will make your system strong and healthy by first thoroughly cleansing it of all impurities and then toning and strengthening the various organs till you, too, know the happiness of a sound, pain-free body that does its work as Nature intended.

Now is the time to act. Place your reliance in Drecto. It is made entirely from the pure extracts of medicinal herbs, roots, barks and leaves and contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.

Drecto is being specially introduced in Charlottetown by E. A. Foster. It is also sold in Montague by H. J. Mabon, in Souris by Souris Drug Co., in Summerside by Gallant Drug Co., Limited, and by a good druggist everywhere.

CORNS - stop their pain in one minute!

Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads protect while they heal—wholly new method. Absolutely safe!

Corns are due to only one cause—friction and pressure from shoes. Heretofore sufferers have ignored this.

They have resorted to paring—a frequent source of infection—or they have used corrosive acids frequently with damaging results to the surrounding live tissue.

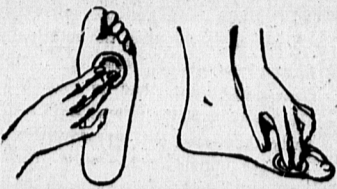

A famous foot specialist's new discovery

Now Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the eminent foot specialist, has found in Zino-pads a vastly better way, a scientific way, to end corn troubles—by removing the cause.

Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads not only stop the pain the minute applied but they protect the corn from pressure and friction while they heal! They are easy to apply, are thin, antiseptic, waterproof. Absolutely safe; will not injure the tenderest toe.

Special sizes for callouses and bunions, too. Try Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads. Nothing like them. At your druggist's or shoe dealer's. Costs but a trifle.

This is the size and shape for corns, or tender spots caused by shoe pressure and friction.

St. James W. M. S. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of St. James Women's Missionary Society, was held last night in St. James' Hall, presided over by the minister, Rev. W. O. Mulligan. An interesting address, illustrated by lantern views, on Korea, was given by Mr. Mulligan, who declared it to be the brightest gem in the missionary diadem, as it was only 21 years since the first missionary from the Maritime Provinces set foot in the country which had a population of seventeen million in an area no larger than Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and already the Christian Church of Korea is fit for self-government. Mr. Mulligan gave some interesting particulars regarding the progress of the people and the effect of Japanese administration in opening up the country by improving the means of transport. He referred to the aspirations of the Koreans towards self-determination and explained why it was the Japanese police had embroiled the Korean Christians in the series of prosecutions which had resulted from the endeavors of the people to displace Japanese rule. During the evening two quartets were given, one by young ladies and the other a mixed quartet under the direction of Miss Tait who capably presided at the piano. The lantern was successfully operated by Mr. Barry Tait.

Mr. A. W. W. Robb, formerly secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and who has a brother and a sister missionaries in Korea, made a few remarks supplementing Mr. Mulligan's address.

P. W. C. 12, S'ide Nil

On Saturday last the Prince of Wales, football team, Intermediate, and Interscholar, Intercollegiate champions of P. E. I. journeyed to Summerside, met the sturdy western ball team, and finished the season in a blaze of glory by defeating the S'ide boys 12 to nil.

The game was fast throughout and was featured by good punting and excellent tackling. The husky westerners, improved considerably since their last meeting with P. W. C. 12, on a 9-0 decision, put up a hard game especially in the last 10 minutes when they forced the play to P.W.C. territory. But repeated attempts to buck the college line, were to no avail, because of the strong defence put up by the Princes. The scoring was done by Wedlock, who was responsible for two tries and Tanton and Drake, one each. Attempts to convert the above failed.

The game was refereed by Rev. Father A. Smith who handled it in his usual impartial manner. The college has developed this year, a team with very few weak spots. They are fast and know the game well. Their win over the University squad this year, was the first for several years.

The S'ide team, composed as it is of excellent material with good coaching and hard practice would jump quickly from junior to senior ranks.

Mitchell Inquiry

he arranged with a Captain Dudley an ex-India Officer, then located in Vancouver, to come to Montreal to meet him. As a result of this meeting, Captain Dudley came down to look over Mitchell's proposition. He was much taken with this part of the country and considered it would be suitable for the settlement of the ex-India Officers. He was also of the opinion that the colony scheme, as Mitchell outlined it, would be feasible. He therefore, agreed to reside in this vicinity for a while at least and assist Mitchell in locating the settlers. Mitchell gave him a Power-of-Attorney to act on his behalf and it was with this authority that the first bungalow was ordered.

Captain Dudley met the first two officers, namely Captain Butler and Dudgeon at Halifax and accompanied them to the Island. After looking over the situation and discussing matters with Captain Dudley, these two settlers came to the conclusion that conditions had been misrepresented to them by Mitchell. Dudley was undecided as to just what should be done, so he wired asking if I would meet the three of them in Amherst for a conference. This I did and, as a result of the conference, I agreed to take the matter up with Mitchell in an endeavor to have a satisfactory adjustment made. The offer Mitchell made as a result of my cable was not satisfactory to the settlers and, on my advice, they wired him asking for the fulfillment of a guarantee which they claim was made to them.

Captain Dudley who was to meet Captain Turner at Halifax, was unexpectedly called back to Vancouver and he cabled Mitchell accordingly. Mitchell in turn sent a telegram to Captain Turner asking him to stop off in Amherst, thinking I presume, that I might be able to accompany him to the Island. As it happened, I was in Charlottetown at that time attending the Exhibition. My office telephoned that Captain Turner was in Amherst so I met him the following day and would be pleased to meet him there. I met him in Summerside and as he wished to go to Charlottetown on private business, I motored him there, stopping at Emerald to look over the Colony area and the bungalow which was then being built for Captains Butler and Dudgeon.

While talking with Captain Turner on the trip to Charlottetown and later in the hotel there, I decided that he also came out under some misrepresentations and I immediately cabled Mitchell accordingly. After arriving home I continued my cable by a rather lengthy letter to Mitchell outlining the whole situation as I saw it and urging an immediate adjustment. So far I have not received a satisfactory reply. Mitchell has, however, recently cabled asking me to arrange with the M. F. Schurman Company, Summerside for the build-any alterations in the relations of the Rhineland to the Reich is the constitution of the Reich."

Since the foundering of the negotiations between the French authorities and the industrialists the Berlin officials have realized the hopelessness of liquidating the situation in the occupied zones out of Germany's own resources, and today's action which in its final analysis is considered as amounting to relinquishment of German administrative jurisdiction and the withdrawal of financial and other support from the Rhineland and the Ruhr areas, is declined in official quarters tonight as the only remedy at Germany's disposal, unless she courts disaster for the rest of the country by attempting to salvage the Rhineland and the Ruhr in the face of Franco-Belgian economic opposition and political resistance.

Any attempt to stabilize the currency which is to be put in circulation this week, is considered as doomed to defeat if the Government is called upon for further subsidies or unemployment doles in the occupied areas, and its position as reflected by today's momentous meeting is that it has resolved upon a determination to hold France and Belgium morally and financially responsible for the welfare of the German people in the zones occupied by them.

the cooperation of all the allies, under the leadership of the two solvent powers—the United States and Great Britain. This eventually must be accepted by the Europeans as their only possible way out. France has been fighting desperately, ever since the ending of the war to prevent just such a conclusion.

France has been trying to save Europe herself; but her plans have gone awry, until it has now become the policy of Paris to save France and let the rest of Europe sink, if necessary, for France's own security.

The Poincare campaign had a chance of success at the start. Success depended on his frightening the Germans as to cause them to deliver themselves into France's hands and become the permanent vassals of the French people. Poincare believed he might bring about such a condition.

A thousand years ago, the plan would have worked—by the aid of large part of the German people. But it has failed today, and France has had her coming. From now onward, the French people will have to realize how hazardous is the situation into which the Poincare policy has placed them.

ding of two other bungalows. I replied telling him to do his business direct as I could not assist him further until he made satisfactory adjustments with the settlers who had already arrived.

As regards my connection with the payments made to the M. F. Schurman Co., I may say that Mitchell requested me to keep him advised when these payments were due. This I did and he transferred the necessary money through the Royal Bank to me at Amherst. I in turn, issued certified cheques made payable to the Schurman Company.

In all my dealings in connection with the scheme I have never even had a Power-of-Attorney from Mitchell, so therefore was not in a position to do business for him in any official capacity.

H. R. THOMPSON Amherst, N. S. November 1st, 1923.

The Attorney General, who had received by Hon. P. C. Larkin the sitting of the Government Commission to investigate into his acts against Mitchell as the best way of stopping his activities were read by the Attorney General along with other correspondence, including message from Hon. Mr. Larkin that in accordance with the Attorney General's request he had arranged for a notice to appear in all the daily and weekly papers likely to reach the people in the Old Country with whom Mitchell had been dealing, advising them that he was no longer connected with the Government of Prince Edward Island in any way.
