The blacksmith shop of Archibald McKenzie, Charlottetown, will be closed on Wednesday on account of his child's burial.

N. E. Campbell, barrister at law, Charlottetown, who has been indisposed recently, has gone to his home in Darlington for rest and recupera-tion. His friends here hope to see him restored to health shortly.

Miss Hattie McRae, Charlottetown, was passenger on the Murray Harbor train yesterday returning after a very pleasant visit to Bunbury, where she was the guest of Miss Ethel Hann.

Wm. E. and Mrs. Corless and young son Donald return to their home in Springfield, Mass., this morning after a visit to Mrs. Corless' parents in Charlottetown. They will be accompanied by Miss Irene Dougan who will be their guest.

There passed peacefully away at Sea View on Sept. 11th after a few hours illness, Isabella, beloved wife of William Duggan. Deceased leaves to mourn, besides her husband two sons William J. of Boston and Harry C., at home and two daughters, Mrs.
George Bernard, of Long River and Pensie at home. Deceased was 63 years of age and dearly beloved by all who knew her.

Captain and Mrs. Charles Brant of Norwich, Conn., have been visiting for some time in this province, of which Mrs. Brant is a native. They visited Mrs. Brant's mother and sister, Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Thomas McNeill at Tryon for two weeks and have for three weeks been the guest of Fred and Mrs. Worth, 72 Spring-Park Road, Charlottetown. This was Capt. Brant's first visit and he with his wife have enjoyed every minute of it. They leave today by the Boston boat en route home to resume their work in the Salvation Army.

The body of William Morrison of Lot Forty, who died in Ottawa on October 1st, was forwarded to his late home from Charlottetown yesterday. Deceased left for Western Canada in August last on the Harvest Excursion. He became ill and decided to try to get home. It turned out that his trouble was typhoid fever.
He had got as far as Ottawa and upon his arrival there he was carried out of the train into the railway station there to await the arrival of a physician, when his death occured. Deceased was a man about 45 years of age and leaves a widow and a large family to mourn their loss.

The authorities here have written to Dorchester, Mass., respecting the record of W. L. Phillips, who is now in Queen's County jail awaiting trial or burglary. It is understood the information they received shows that Phillips was sentenced to two years in the House of Correction, in 1905, and subsequently one year, that he escaped, was recaptured, and sentenced from 2 to 3 years in Connecticut State Prison. He returned to the House of Correction in 1911, and was pardoned by Governor Foss on June 19th, 1912. Photos of the prisoner were forwarded to Charlottetown, and his occupation was given as shoe cutter.—Exc.

The death occurred of Mrs. Elizabeth Hackett, widow of the late Isaac Hackett, occurred on September the 21st, at her daughter's residence, Mrs. Jas. H. Miller of East Wallace, Cumb. Co., N. S., where she had made her home for the last twenty-five years. Mrs. Hackett's maiden name was Weeks, the daughter of William and Sarah Weeks who came from Plymouth, England, to Charlottetown, P. E. I., in 1817, where Elizabeth was born in 1824 and seven years later came to Nova Scotia where she settled permanently. William Weeks had seven children, Elizabeth is the last for death to claim.
The deceased leaves four children to mourn their loss. Mrs. James Thompson of Athol, Mass., Mrs. Jacob Klebes of Attleboro, Mass., Mrs.
James H. Miller of East Wallace and Miss Valeria Hackett of Attleboro, Mass. Burial was at Wallace, N. S., on Monday, Sept. 23rd.—Amherst

Yesterday many friends assembled at the home of the late John Hunter Hillsboro St., Charlottetown, to pay the last tribute of respect to an esteemed citizen and as the funeral cortege left the residence at 2 o'clock only words of praise could be heard for a faithful workman passed away.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)
A very pretty wedding took place Monday morning at eight o'clock at Thomas Church, College Bridge, when Joseph O. LeBlanc, son of Oliver Le-Blanc of the I. C. R., College Bridge, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary LeBlanc, youngest daughter of Marc LeBlanc of Breaux's Creek. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. A. Roy, Superior of the parish. The bride looked charming in a suit of white serge trimmed with lace and a large white picture hat, surmounted by large white plumes. The bride was attended by Miss Lucy Dupuis, while Alphee LeBlanc, brother of the bride, supported the groom. After the nuptial mass and wedding ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous dinner was served, and the wedding couple left by the Ocean Limited on an extended honeymoon to different points in P. E. Island, followed by the good wishes of a large number of friend and acquaintances.—Amherst
