As a natural result of advertising the various trips of the City of London, during the past season later afternoon trips were well patronized up to the close of summer vacation, and even now many local families and some tourists are taking advantage of the fine weather and the seamer's ideal trips up East, West River and to Orwell Cove.

AN Ottawa despatch says: Mr. Hackett, Prince County asked why Collector of Customs Currie, of Charlottetown, had been superannuated. Mr. Paterson said it was for old age, to which Mr. Hackett replied that on the same day that Currie had been discharged the collector at St. John, who was older than Currie, received his appointment.

A SERIOUS accident was narrowly avoided on Lower Queen street yesterday afternoon above one o'clock. A team that was standing near Lyons coal depot took fright and ran up Queen Street. The timely and plucky appearance of George Carver, teamster, brought the animal to a sudden stop, otherwise severe damage would have resulted. The onlookers were loud in their praise of Mr. Carver and were somewhat indignant at the owner of the team who did not as much as thank him for his rescue.
