DISFIGUREMENT BY DECAYING TEETH

GOOD TEETH MEAN GOOD HEALTH

Perhaps nothing mars the appearance more than a number of decayed and blackened teeth and certainly nothing is more damaging to the health or more disgusting to others.

By the use of porcelain and other crowns, fillings and porcelain inlays the natural appearance can be restored and the mouth again put in a sanitary condition.

We are now administering Sonnoform (extensively used in England and the United States) the best of all anaesthetics for the extraction of teeth. No choking, no sickness, no bad after effects. All work guaranteed for 10 years in writing.
