JOHN BECK, the well known Dartmouth horse buyer leaves this morning by the Prince's with ten horses which are pronounced the best lot that he has ever taken from the Province. Five of the number are Crown Rights and two which he purchased from D. C. McKinley, North River are undoubtedly the finest of their age ever raised by one breeder in the Province. One of the horses is coming three years old and the other two years and nine months. They both weigh 2400 lbs and are magnificent specimens of horse flesh. The price paid for them is in the neighborhood of $400. This whole lot is highly creditable to the Island and especially to that well known stallion, Crown Rights.

THE FISKE STOCK COMPANY.

A good audience greeted the Fiske Stock Company at the opening of their season in the Opera House last evening. The drama presented was A Soldier of the Empire and is located at La Ferre, France, during the famous Hundred Days between Napoleon's escape from Elba and his abdication. It is a bright play and was admirably presented by this strong and capable company. Special scenery, a fine array of splendid costumes, and the spirited movement from beginning to end of the performance won at the start and held the audience to the close of the performance, who testified their appreciation by hearty applause. There was not a dull moment during the evening. Clever specialties, songs, dances, admirable moving pictures and illustrated songs cover the time between acts. Tonight Hearts and Arms, a sparkling military drama will be put on and at Saturday's matinee Cinderella. The success of last evening guarantees full houses during the season.
