THE Rose Sydel London Bells played at the Opera House last night to an audience of men only, the cheaper seats being filled with a number in the 35 cents seats and very few in the dress circle. The performance was distinctly of a low grade, many of the jokes being coarse and the actions vulgar. The timely warning of THE GUARDIAN no doubt saved some lovers of reputable amusement from being present and saved them a disappoint. In the past it has sometimes happened that meritorious entertainments have been silently attended because of the fear of hearing or seeing something objectionable. It is therefore most desirable that all questionable and trashy entertainments should be shown up in their true light.

ANY person desiring to purchase a set of two volumes of the Standard Dictionary by Funk & Wagnalls, also a double revolving stand for same, should apply at this office at once. 30 tf

PHILHARMONIC concert to-night. See program.

A OTTAWA correspondent writes:—"Lady Davies and her daughters are still in town, though it is probable they will be leaving shortly for their home in Charlottetown, P. E. I., which all the glories of the Capital have never been able to make less loved by them. It certainly is a charming place wherein to spend the summer, for when the tide is in the sea comes up to the garden wall of Sir Louis' residence. If Sir Louis goes on the bench as rumor persists in saying he will. Lady Davies and her daughters will be pleased in the greater liberty the position will give to them—less time to be spent in Ottawa, and less obligation of entertaining, for there is no doubt at all that Lady Davies and her daughters do not care for society. Lady Davies is a sister of Rev. C. F. Wiggins of Sackville.

THE funeral of the late Nellie McGowan took place this morning from her parents home, on Bridge street, at 8 o'clock to St. Bernard's church, whence after service, the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery for interment. Between thirty and forty teams followed the remains to their last resting place and the pall bearers were Messrs Marcel Lavin, A. Driscoll, G. Bourque, W. McGinn, E. Coleman, Charles O'Neill. There were many floral tributes including a pillow from the staff of the Central Dry Goods Store, where deceased was employed, also floral designs from Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Flannigan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCoy, Miss Iva McAllister, Miss E. Lezer, Mrs. J. Fogarty, Mrs. Wm. Crowhurst. Deceased girl's brother attends St. Dunstan's College.—Moncton Transcript.

Great Victory.

BARNABY RIVER, N. B. Mar.—Few cases of illness and recovery have excited the interest in this community, as has the kidney trouble of Mr. Cornelius Crotte.

Mr. Crotte's treatment by the doctors at home and in the hospital, and the fact that they absolutely gave him up as a case beyond all hope, is well known. His subsequent restoration by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills reads like a miracle. "For five years I have suffered off and on with kidney trouble. Last fall I had an attack, for which the doctors had little hope of my recovery. I was obliged to go to the hospital for treatment, but it did me no good, so I came home given up by the doctors. A friend suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first box I improved. Now I am at my work every day."
