Mr. Stewart took us there in imagination and showed us through beautiful castles in Edinburgh, to tombs of famous men, to hills and valleys, and then to the beautiful lakes we so often sing about. Mr. Stewart's knowledge of Scotland is some what superior to many, it being the home of his ancestors. The entertainment was under the auspices of Fairplay Division S. O. T. FINDS HIS WATCH IN STOLEN GOODS.—LONDON, Nov. 27.—(C.P.)—There was a dramatic ending to a case at London Sessions recently when a juror inspecting some exhibits in a case of alleged receiving, recognised a watch which, he said, had been stolen from him.

The chairman, Sir Percival Clarke, discharged the jury and said the case would have to be tried by another jury at the next sessions. The case was one in which four men were charged with receiving jewelry, silverware and other valuables.

Canadian Construction Work Advancing

(Canadian Press) TORONTO, Nov. 30.—For the second month in succession contracts awarded throughout Canada are in excess of the corresponding month of 1932. The total volume of construction for November as compiled by MacLean Building Reports Ltd., amounted to $10,170,400 for November of last year.

Only twice in the last year has last month's figure been exceeded—June and September—and the increase at present when a seasonal let-down is usually expected, is regarded in the industry as an encouraging development.

Ontario heads the list with $5,639,500, or more than half the total for Canada, and a 100 per cent increase over November of last year. Quebec follows with $2,300,400, up 25 per cent. All the other provinces with exception of British Columbia and Alberta, show increases over the corresponding month of 1932.

Some of the large works for which contracts were awarded in November were: Saint John, N.B., completion of transit sheds, $750,000; Ottawa, sewer, $540,000; Halifax, rebuilding shed, $360,000; Vancouver, sewer, $300,000; Noranda, Que., transmission line, $200,000; Calgary, apartment block, $175,000; Toronto, addition to plant, $100,000.

The child was christened George. Brigadier General George Paynter, who distinguished himself in the South African War and the Great War, was appointed a Groom-in-Waiting to the King last May. During the Great War Mrs. Paynter died three times. Her daughter is a daughter of Sir Philip Hunklo.

HANGED BOY PUZZLE

LONDON, Nov. 29.—An open verdict was returned at the inquest recently at Portsmouth on Douglas Saunders, aged 16 who was found hanging from a banister at his parents' home in Compton road, north end, Portsmouth, with a dressing gown cord around his neck.

His father, who described the boy as strong, healthy, and bright, expressed the belief that his son was staging some "scene" in order to frighten a boy friend, who was to call for him.

SCOTTISH GREETINGS

Far and Near

At the St. Andrew dinner of the Caledonian Club in the Canadian National Hotel last evening the following exchange of greetings was read:

MESSAGE SENT BY CLUB

Dear Brethren Scots, As you are doubtless aware "St. Andrew's Fair" has lived on as a festival of legend and tradition ever since the year 380 A.D. and is still going strong.

In earlier times the snow and frost of this season were called "St. Andrew's Blast". But long ago the period was a recognized time for merrymaking and frolic, much of which is now forgotten. In fact, "To go St. Andraing" was a well-known and a regular custom for centuries in Auld Scotia. Labourers and farm workers would set off into the woods to poach for rabbits and squirrels, afterwards ending up a convivial day with feasting and drinking at the local tavern. Throughout the chequered but glorious history of the Border country St. Andrew's memory has been cherished in the hearts of the dour clansmen, and of those who followed after them.

It is a touching and praiseworthy commentary on the fidelity of Caledonia's sons that, no matter in what out-of-the-way corner of the world we find ourselves on St. Andrew's night, we foregather to do honour to that dim figure of tradition and toast the glorious land of which he is Patron Saint. May you have a glorious time together. Though there's pures be mare fat Why should we pine or grieve at that? Hang sorrow! care will kill a cat, And therefore let's be merry.

D.A.R. Train Has Narrow Escape

(Canadian Press) TRURO, N. S., Nov. 29.—An attempt to wreck the Dominion Atlantic Railway Saturday night train was being probed by Royal Canadian Mounted Police tonight. Intensive search was underway in Colchester and Hants Counties for a man said to have placed an iron rail across the tracks where they curve sharply around a steep embankment. The train, passenger and freight cars, was jolted by the impact but the engineer was able to bring the engine to a quick stop after it had tossed the rail 50 feet away. Officers declined to identify the object of their search but apparently were seeking a man reported loafing in the neighborhood prior to the passing of the train. An attempt to fire a station further down the line, also was revealed by police who said possibly the same person was guilty of both efforts as well as breaking into another railway building.

Annual Meeting Long Creek W.I.

The annual meeting of Long Creek Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Deaich, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st, with an attendance of fourteen members and three visitors. It was with pleasure we welcomed one new member. The meeting opened by singing the Ode, followed by repeating the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by paying membership fees. The minutes of last annual and previous regular meetings were read, approved, and signed by the President. A financial statement of the year's work was read by the Secretary-Treasurer, which reflected great credit on the work done by the Institute during the past year. A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring President, Mrs. Fred Stretch for the untiring efforts she put forth in making the meetings so interesting and beneficial to which she replied thanking the members for their kind words and co-operation. The school committee reported having the school nicely cleaned during the fall holidays. The election of officers for the ensuing year then took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Albert MacDonald; Vice President, Mrs. Annie Stretch; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Mildred Auld; Directors, Miss Margaret MacArthur, Miss Myrtle MacLeod, Mrs. Norman MacLean, Miss Myrtle MacLeod, Sick Committee, Mrs. D. MacEwen, Mrs. D. MacEwen.

A very humorous reading entitled "House-Hunting" was read by Mrs. Alex MacKenzie. Gramophone selections enlivened the remainder of the evening, during which a delectable lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Annie Stretch kindly invited the members to meet at her home for the next meeting, roll call to be answered with "Christmas Poems". The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Doctors Prefer Women Patients

TORONTO, Nov. 30.—(C.P.)—"Women and girls have more vitality than men and boys. Every medical man will tell you that he prefers to doctor a woman to a man," said Hon. Dr. Robb, Ontario Minister of Health, speaking at the Women's Institute's annual meeting in this city. He noted that of every 100 children who died before they reached the age of one year, 57 were boys and 43 girls. That Women's Institutes use their efforts to lower the infant mortality in this province, was urged. He said that 5,000 children died last year, and there was very little said about it. In fact, more children died last year who had not reached the age of five than all individuals from tuberculosis and cancer together, he said. Since Confederation 350,000 children had died. And taking into consideration the number of deaths of people 35 years and under, the mortality during the first year of life was equal to that between one year and 35, he added. He paid high tribute to the work of the women of the Institutes in regard to public health, and spoke of places in the north where a war was being waged against such things as malnutrition, cancer and goitre. Manitoulin Island had established a dental clinic. He suggested the women might interest themselves in the study of tuberculosis, cancer, the cause of dentistry, but of all the public health problems the greatest was infant mortality and the kindred problems, maternal mortality. "There is a great work yet to be done in this field. It is very necessary that pre-natal knowledge be brought to our women," he continued.

BOY'S FINGERS ARE WORTHY

LONDON, Nov. 29.—William A. Gardner, aged 17, of Guinness buildings, Lever street, St. Luke's east, was awarded £700 damages in the King's Bench division recently for the loss of two fingers. The defendants were F. S. Williams, Ltd., papermakers, of Dingley Place, City road, east. The accident occurred when Gardner, who was working at an embossing machine, caught his left hand in the cogs.

A man strolled into the passport division of the Department of State "I want to get my passport renewed," he said. "Right," said the busy clerk without looking up. Running through the visa for the names of the countries, he asked, "Been travelling?" "Yes," replied the man. "Where?" "Round the world." "How long were you gone?" "Seven days." The clerk looked up and grinned as though he might as well be kind to him. Then he saw the name on the visa. It was that of Wiley Post—Minneapolis Tribune.

GROWTH OF CANCER IN MICE CHECKED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 29.—A complicated new chemical which may offer relief to high blood pressure and another chemical which has stopped the growth of natural cancers in mice were reported to the National Academy of Sciences today. A vitamin which retards the onset of senility also was described. The blood pressure chemical is adenosine triphosphate, obtained directly from blood of animals. It integrates so rapidly that thus far it has been extracted only by drawing it from the blood directly into an ice-cold solution. Dr. Cyrus H. Fiske of Harvard Medical School, who reported it, said it might be possible that lack of this chemical caused high blood pressure, but that it has not been tested on humans. In animals it appears to be a depressor of pressure.

Alcoholic Poisoning Death List Heavy

TORONTO, Nov. 30.—(C.P.)—Prof. Joslyn Rogers, assistant professor of chemistry at the University of Toronto, addressing the Women's Canadian Club stated that more people died of alcoholic poisoning than all other causes added together. Ten percent of these died from drinking good alcoholic beverage; 75 percent died from bootleg or bathtub gin. He pointed to the potency of home made alcohol and its ability to knock a man out—something which was a fact but which was not yet understood by chemists. The danger in drinking one's own wine or alcoholic beverage was obvious, he said. In committing suicide, men and women acted quite differently, according to Professor Rogers. Men acted hastily, preferring a gun, while women never made a messy job; they would take something like carbon monoxide or strychnine. Men were brutal, sudden, desperate, while women thought out their actions carefully.

Hoop skirts, ruffles, loops and other odd creations have been turned in galore but try as they will, chairmen have been unable to find one of those distinctive appendages—a bustle.
