FITTED FOOTWEAR at the Montague Shoe Store.

ALL TYPES of Summer Sport Wear at Hooty's Men's Wear, Montague.

Workmen were engaged during the week in dismantling the flues of St. David's United Church, prior to the erection of new ones. It is also understood that in the near future considerable exterior repairs on the Church will be commenced.

Rev. and Mrs. E. R. MacVicar and two children of Pownal were recent guests of Mrs. MacVicar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart. Rev. and Mrs. MacVicar leave in a few weeks for Port Elgin, N.B., where Rev. Mr. MacVicar has accepted a call to the United Church.

Officer Cadet, Maurice DeLory of the Royal Canadian Navy, who is presently stationed at H. M. C. S. Stadacona in Halifax, spent the holiday week-end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeLory. Maurice was stationed on the H. M. C. S. Magnificent prior to his grounding off the Nova Scotia coast.

The 1948-49 school term for Georgetown High School came to a successful termination when the annual closing exercises were held in the Town Hall on the afternoon of Friday, June 24th, before a capacity attendance of parents and citizens. Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. A. H. Stewart, presided, and Dr. L. W. Shaw, Provincial Director of Education, was in attendance. The prizes and diplomas were presented by Mrs. Helen Condon, who was assisted by Miss Rita Wight, school principal. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of the season's flowers and the efficient and capable manner in which the afternoon's proceedings were handled showed that much time and work had been put forth by the Principal and her staff of teachers. The pupils presented a pleasing entertainment to those assembled and were assisted by Miss Genevieve Solomon as piano accompanist. Miss Jean MacConnell was the Vaudelectorian and the year's honor of winning the Governor General's proficiency prize for Grade X went to Miss Ann MacDonald. Before the proceedings were brought to a close with the singing of the National Anthem, Dr. Shaw spoke on matters of education and several citizens gave brief remarks. This column extends to an enjoyable vacation to teachers and pupils, following a successful scholastic year.

Georgetown Defeats St. Peters 15-3

One of the best played baseball games of the current season was played on Wednesday evening when the MacSwain-managed local nine clearly demonstrated their superiority in all departments of the game, to win over St. Peters by a 15-3 score, in a 7-inning fixture. Brilliant pitching by Johnny Dick, the locals' number one hurler, was a feature of an errorless contest. Picking up three runs in the first inning, they put the game on ice with a seven-run out-break in the third, and adding one in each of the fourth and sixth, with a three run rally in the fifth. The losers picked up their three runs in single run endeavours in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings.

The locals appear better each time they perform and no doubt have their eye on the 1949 intermediate "B" title, which they came within an ace of taking last season, when they lost a sudden-death game to Wellington at the Memorial Grounds in Charlottetown.

Umpire for the game was James MacCannell Sr., with the base-judges being C. MacSwain and Ivan Stewart.

THANKS

I wish to express my most sincere thanks to all those who worked for and supported me on June 27th; also, to Mr. MacDonald for his message of congratulations.

T. J. KICHAM.

McDonald - Murphy Wedding at Vernon

St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River June 15 at 7:30 was the scene of a pretty wedding when Joan Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Murphy, Vernon, and James Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo MacDonald, Orwell, were united in marriage. Gillie officiated at both marriage and nuptial Mass. The church organist, Mrs. Meyers, rendered the bridal chorus as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage.

The bride was charming in a gown of white slipper satin with seed pearl trim and finger tip veil, which fell from a tiara of seed pearl. She carried a nose ray of betwixt roses and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a cross and chain, a gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid, her sister Miss Jean Murphy, wore a floor length gown of Queen's blue taffeta, shoulder veil and head-dress of flowers in matching color. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and snapdragon. Bennett MacIsaac, cousin of the groom was best man. Joseph McInnis and Albert MacDonald acted as ushers. The nuptial music was by the church organist and girls' choir. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to intimate friends and relations.

Mr. W.W. Murphy proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom replied. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald motored through the provinces, returning in the evening to the home of the groom's parents where a reception was given to one hundred and fifty guests. Mrs. Murphy chose for her daughter's wedding a grey and black ensemble with corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. MacDonald, the groom's mother, chose navy with a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold compact, and the bridesmaid a half-point pen.

All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald much happiness in their new home in Orwell where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered miscellaneous showers by her school friends of Vernon.

STANHOPE W. L.

The June meeting of Stanhope W. L. met at the home of Mrs. Bruce Ellis. Meeting opened with "Collect". Roll call was answered by fourteen members. Committees gave their reports. New sick committee, Mrs. Reggie Ross and Mrs. Ray Carr.

Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved that ice-cream be purchased for school picnic.

Mrs. Reggie Ross and Mrs. Lewis Kiely were appointed delegates to annual convention.

Two interesting contests were put on by Mrs. Joseph Robison and Mrs. Harry Lawson.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Carr; roll call "What's Your Beef?"

Meeting closed with the National Anthem. Ice-cream and cake was served by the hostess.
