Nothing can be more demoralizing to the little one and it is a serious tax upon the mother's strength and nerves. A recent issue of the Sydney Post contains a poem taken from The Guardian which was contributed by a citizen of 'The King at the Opera House.' The Post in its appreciation of the poem says the moral contained in the verses can be applied to more places than Charlottetown.

Word reached the city yesterday that on Wednesday night three men belonging to Priest Pond, Larkus Campbell, aged 30, Peter Stragan, aged 21 and Ephraim Holland, aged 18, left in a gasoline dory to overhaul their fishing nets about half a mile from the shore. Strachan and Holland were employed as lobster fishermen at McAdams' factory. Campbell was a friend who accompanied them on the trip. They had two pairs of oars, but were only lightly clad, and had no provisions nor water, expecting to return in about half an hour. The wind was blowing very strongly from the south-south-west, and there was a heavy sea. When they started to return, people on shore noticed one man working at the engine, which had evidently given out, and the other two straining hard at the oars. They were unable to make headway against the wind and sea and as darkness fell were being carried out into the Gulf. John Ryan left in a gasoline dory to the rescue but the engine also broke down, and he and his men did not return till three Thursday morning. They were unable to locate the missing men. Yesterday morning Capt. Taylor, Agent of Marine on being informed of the occurrence, once dispatched the Brant to the rescue. She left at ten o'clock. She arrived in Souris at five o'clock and immediately departed in the search for the missing men. Much anxiety is felt for the safety of the three whose boat it is believed could not safely ride in the gale blowing. Up to a late hour last night the search was continued without success. They left the shore opposite McAdams' factory at Campbell's Cove about 1 1/2 miles from where the Souris wreck occurred in 1906. All three men were unmarried.

News has been received in Summerside of the arrival on April 19th of a young son at the home of E. Scott and Mrs. Eaton, Edmonton. Mrs. Eaton was formerly Miss Hazel Andrews, St. Eleanor.

Rev. L. J. Donaldson, rector of Trinity Church Tuesday evening, officiated at the wedding of James Ryan of Halifax, and Miss Annie L. O'Brien, of Prince Edward Island, at Halifax Chronicle.

No further particulars were received yesterday, or up to a late hour last night, of the search for the three men who were taken away in a gasoline dory on Tuesday evening from Campbell's Cove. The Brant continued the search all day and is supposed to be working up near the Magdalen Islands.

Therefore resolved that we the members of Excelsior Institute would assist the Department of Agriculture to prevent the holding of the Exhibition for five days as it is too long considering exhibitors too much in time and money as well as being against the success of the Exhibition financially and further resolved that the two first days be given up wholly to the exhibition. The Secretary was instructed to write the Department of Agriculture in the matter of fees for the Holstein Bull now under its control.

A case is reported in the Halifax press of a narrow escape from death by two men in the forecabin of a schooner which was heated by a stove. A change in the wind prevented the stove from drawing properly and the escaping coal gas rendered the men insensible, one of them being in a dangerous condition. A case exactly similar to this occurred in Alberton recently.

All that was mortal of a young woman who in life was universally respected, and in death deeply lamented, was consigned to mother earth when the body of the late Mrs. John McDonald, of Glouce, P. E. I., was committed to the grave in the cemetery of St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, on the 20th inst. Notwithstanding the early hour of burial, and despite the unfavorable condition of the roads and weather, the funeral cortege was one of the largest of the many large processions of the kind which wended its way to the parish church for some years. Solemn High Mass was sung by the Rev. Pius McDonald, of the Cathedral staff assisted by Rev. Dr. Morrison and Rev. Kenneth McPherson of St. Margaret's. At the conclusion of the mass a touching sermon, suitable to the solemn and sad occasion, was delivered by Dr. Morrison. After a very brief period of happy married life, the sudden death of Mrs. McDonald has cast a gloom over the community in which she lived and in which she was a great favorite with young and old. Her charitable and loving disposition endeared her to all. Besides a sorrow bereaved husband and infant daughter, she leaves to mourn a sorrowing father and mother, John R. and Mrs. McDonald of Vernon River, together with two brothers, Andrew at home and Leo in Moosemin, Sask., and three sisters, Mary, Catherine and Madeline, Celia of Stanley Bros, and Madeline at home.

Using Purgatives Injures Health. What You Need in Spring is a Good Building Tonic. A spring medicine is an actual necessity to most people. Nature demands it as an aid in carrying off the impurities that have accumulated in the blood during the indoor life of winter. But unfortunately thousands of people who do recognize the necessity of a spring medicine do not know what is best to take and dose themselves with harsh, irritating purgatives. This is a serious mistake. Ask your doctor and he will tell you that the use of purgative medicine weakens the system, does not cure disease, and in the spring the system needs building up—purgatives cannot do this—they weaken you still more. The blood should be made rich, red and pure, and only a tonic medicine can do this. The best blood building, nerve restoring tonic medicine has yet discovered is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine actually makes new, rich blood. This new blood strengthens every organ, every nerve and every part of the body. This is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure headaches and backaches, rheumatism and neuralgia, banish pimples and eruptions, and give a glow of health to the most sallow skin. Men, women and growing boys and girls who take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills eat well, sleep well, and feel bright, active and strong. If you need a medicine this spring—and most likely you do—try this great reviving tonic, and see the difference it makes in your health. It will put in you new strength. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
