

WOMAN'S RECOVERY

Shows Remarkable Restorative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chealey, Ont.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up the steps. I tried two doctors but they did me no good. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and thought I would give it a trial. I took four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am married, am the mother of two children, and do all my housework, milk eight cows, and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends who are in need of medicine, and you may print this letter if you wish."

Mrs. HENRY JANKE, R. R. No. 4, Chesley, Ontario.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

SORRY, MUTT, BUT I'M BUSY READING THIS NOVEL BY JOE SPIVIS!

I DIDN'T THINK SPIVIS HAD BRAINS ENOUGH TO WRITE A NOVEL!

THAT'S WHAT I THOUGHT, TOO, BUT HERE'S ONE JUST OFF THE PRESS!

DOES HE AIM AT REALISM IN THE STORIES HE WRITES?

HE MAY AIM AT IT, BUT HE DOESN'T HIT WITHIN A MILLION MILES OF IT!

HOW'S THAT?

BECAUSE—

HE'S MADE THE HERO OF THIS STORY A SPENDTHRIFT SCOTCHMAN!

The groom's present to the bride was a cheque for Five Hundred Dollars and to the bridesmaid and groomsmen, a gold pendant and gold cufflinks. To the organist was presented a cut glass bon-bon dish and to the ushers gold pins with pearls. The occasion was emphatically accentuated by some thoughtfully appropriate selections by Mr. Sander McGregor, whose presence happily coincided with the occasion. After a honeymoon trip through the Provinces, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Charlottetown. Long and happy be the life so auspiciously begun.

SCHOONER ARRIVAL. — The schooner, J. H. Ernest owned by Mr. Sam Grady and commanded by Capt. David Grady, entered port on Friday from Picton with a cargo of coal consigned to Messrs Joseph Read & Co. Ltd.

POLICE COURT. — The police doctor and many Summerside citizens were entertained to a lively scrap, between husband and wife at the west end of the town on Thursday afternoon. The trouble seems to have started at lunch when only three eggs were in order for two people and who was to have the larger number. The husband had up in a throwing of some at the lunch table ending up with the call for the police and the doctor Nobody was seriously hurt.

PASTOR FAREWELLS. — Rev. H. C. Rice for the past four years pastor of the Summerside Methodist Church preached his farewell sermon yesterday (Sunday) He gives for his new pastorate at Ladhurst, N. B., this week. Rev. Mr. Rice, Mrs. Rice and family, have made hundreds of warm friends in Summerside and the very best wishes of all will follow them to their new home. Rev. Mr. Morris will become pastor of the Methodist Church in August in the meantime, after July 10th the usual two months' union of the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches will take place.

WEDDING BELLS. — The marriage of Norman A. McAuley of Enfield, New Hampshire and Miss M. Maude Goodwin of Worcester, Mass. took place June 29th in Enfield, ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Pendergast. The auspicious ceremony was performed in St. Mark's church by Rev. C. W. Niske, the bridesmaid being Miss Lillian Campbell, sister of the groom and the groomsmen, Mr. Edwin Linds, brother of the bride. The church was daintily decorated for the occasion and was crowded to the last inch of standing room, many interested well-wishers surrounding the church, and the street in front was lined with autos reaching almost half a mile in length. The bride entered the church attended by her father, the wedding march amplifying the occasion, beautifully rendered by Miss Addie Howard. The ushers were Miss Helen Cook, Kensington and Miss Jean Campbell, sister of the groom. After the ceremony the party were escorted to the home of the bride, the streets en route being densely lined with interested and eager well-wishers. The wedding feast was acutely enjoyed, and what followed, since the bride is a consummate mistress in cranial preparations. The presents were numerous and costly and included substantial ones from parents of both bride and groom.

WINNIPEG FUR SALE

More than 200 buyers from various parts of the United States and Canada were seen bidders at fur action sales Winnipeg when approximately 20,000 pelts were sold.

Mr. Frederick Kerr of Montreal arrived in Summerside Thursday evening and will be for a time organist and choir leader in the Presbyterian Church, Summerside.

A Scotch farmer was selling wool one day. After weighing it he went into the house to make out an invoice. When he came back he missed a cheese that had been standing on a shelf behind the outer door, and glancing at the bag of wool, he observed that it had suddenly increased in size.

"Man," said he to the wool buyer, "I have clean forgot the weight of that bag. Let's put it on the scales once more."

The other could not well refuse. The bag was, of course, found to be heavier by the weight of the cheese inside. A new invoice was made out and the crestfallen buyer went his way.

At once the farmer's wife missed the cheese, and, rushing to the yard, told her husband that some thief had taken it.

"Na, na, Sarah," replied the farmer quietly. "I have just sold the cheese for 2 shillings the pound."
