LAST year certain teachers in West Prince organized themselves into the "West Prince Literary and Athletic Club" for the purpose of stimulating their pupils to greater efforts in physical exercise and school work. Into this club entered the schools at O'Leary, Fortune Cove, Dock, Unionvale, Greenhill and Woodstock. Inter school games of baseball were held at divers places throughout the district and keen competition maintained in the daily classwork of the schoolroom. Prizes were offered to be allotted to the pupils who stood highest in the different subjects in the lists of the entrance exams to Prince of Wales College. A silver medal kindly presented by Hon. James Richards for Botany and Science was included in the prize list of the club. The prizes have been awarded as follows, only one prize being allowed to any student. Clara Lockyer, Fortune Cove, Hon. Mr. Richards' Silver Medal for Botany and Science; Alvin Webb, Woodstock $5 prize for highest aggregate; Clinton Dennis, O'Leary, $2 prize for Mathematics; John McDonald, Unionvale, $2 prize for French; Lorne Metherall, Fortune Cove, prize seven books for English; Dora Dignon, Woodstock, $2 prize for Geography.

GAVE HIM UP.

That's What Doctors Did for J. J. Perkins—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

TYNDALL, Man., Aug. 22nd—(Special)—Mr. J. J. Perkins, of this place, who was so bad with Kidney Disease that the doctors gave him up, is again strong and hearty. He credits his cure entirely to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Perkins says:—

"I had Kidney Disease for two years and got so bad that the doctors gave me up and said I could not be cured.

"I continued to grow worse and as I was unable to work was becoming destitute when on a friend's advice I began to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box made me feel like a new man, and five boxes cured me completely.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Kidney Disease of every stage and kind.

MAXIM'S AIRSHIP ON VIEW.

LONDON, August 20.—The Evening News reports a first view of Sir Hiram Maxim's new flying machine, which it says, has probably solved the problem of aerial flight. The machine resembles a gigantic swallow. It is twenty feet long and is painted a vivid scarlet. It is described as a masterpiece of mechanical ingenuity. It flies on the principle of a kite.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

This has been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil as directed with each bottle and a cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS WORTH of Summer goods have changed hands since the opening of our big Midsummer Sale, with equal satisfaction to buyer and seller, and hundreds still remain to be sold during the present week. To the woman who finds it necessary to make her dollars go as far as possible, this Sale offers golden opportunities. Now, she can pick up for a fraction of their value many really beautiful articles of clothing for herself and family, for which she would later have to pay full price. Many realizing this have secured their share of the bargains and to those who have not yet been in, we say come, as

"Bargains bright abound on every hand, Brighter bargains do not exist in all the land."

There still remains a few of those Ladies' Costumes, which we are anxious to clear out—the materials are of the best—the styles while not the very latest, are by no means out of date, and the prices about a third of their former values—a decided snap. Ask us of them.

Ladies' wrappers at 67 cents on the dollar.

Ladies' and Misses' shirt waists at 67 cents on the dollar.

Ladies' and Children's hats away below cost.

Men's hats in both felt and straw for half price.
