First Showing of Correct Suits for Spring

READY FOR YOU this morning with a splendid range of authentic styles in suits for spring. We have waited until fashion set her seal of approval on the models that well dressed women would want for this season---when the matter was settled--as settled it is—we saw to it that out range would be a representative one of the finally correct ideas.

Coats Are Shorter

One of the first things you will notice is the fact that all coats are shorter than in past seasons, 28 to 32 inches seem to be the popular lengths.

Skirts Are Pleated

You will notice that all the skirts show pleating of one sort or another.

Some are pleated from knee down, others full length of skirt. The plain skirt is practically "out of it."

These are designed for the little lady about five feet two—who finds it hard to get a ready-to wear suit.
