

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

Office—Upstairs Royal Bank Block—G. M. Matthews, Mgr.

Rev. W. W. Lodge was a passenger by the Stanley yesterday.

Russel Oulton, Alberton, was a passenger west last evening.

The ladies of the Methodist Church have decided not to have any tea in Epworth Hall on New Year's Day.

Colvin McCallum who spent his Xmas holidays at his home in St. Eleanors returned to Charlottetown yesterday.

Rev. R. H. Staver, Presbyterian clergyman at Harcourt, N. B., and a native of Wilmot, P. E. I., was presented by his congregation with a fur coat for Xmas.

The Town Council has decided to give notice to P. T. Fanning that unless he remove the building on Summer street at once it would be sold by the town.

Remember the meeting of the Association for the Prevention and Cure of Tuberculosis in Market Hall this afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large attendance is requested.

Men's duck coats lined with sheepskin also duck coats Mackinaw lined, windproof and waterproof. A good assortment at close prices at Sinclair & Stewart's.

George A. Jeffrey, St. Eleanors, returned by the Stanley yesterday from Springhill, N. S. He left here the previous morning and made the round trip in less than 30 hours.

Rev. A. D. Sterling, Kensington, intimated on Sabbath Dec. 17th that as on the following Sabbath all minds would be turned to God's greatest gift to men, a gift of light and love and life to all, the congregation would show its gratitude by offering a Xmas gift to God. He asked for seventy dollars to wipe off the last of a debt that was $300 at the first of the year. When the offering was counted last Sabbath it amounted to $70.50. In Long River the sum asked for was $49 and $52.50 were placed on the plates. To give freely and cheerfully making the giving an act of worship is certainly the God honoring method, and always gives a blessing to those who give thus. Instead of making pie socials, ice cream parties, tea meetings, pray fervently for the liberal heart and the spiritual result will be infinitely better and the financial result more satisfactory.—Com.

At the instance of H. A. Leslie before Stipendiary Wright, Harry Murphy of Kensington, yesterday was convicted for violation of the Canada Temperance Act and fined $100 and costs, J. E. Wyatt defended. John P. Gallant and John Kent of Wallington were placed in Summerside jail last week for violation of the C. T. Act, also G. W. Murphy of Kensington, all for four months each.

The following are the officers of Maple Leaf Preceptory No. 642 Royal Black Knights of Ireland, Summerside, for 1906. W. E. A. S. McKay, D. P., J. J. Bethune, Chap.—W. B. Corney, Reg.—E. L. Gay, Treas.—Murdoch McLeod, Secs.—J. Y. Phillips and B. McArthur, Censors—A. A. McCaull and Wm. Farrar, Stand. Bearers—Geo. Walsh and W. A. Cunningham.

Put—John Mathieson, Com.—J. M. Clark (chairman) W. B. Hayes, Louis Spence, Edward Gardner, Wm. Miller, J. J. England and Colin Smith.

CLARK'S SMOKED BEEF is thinly sliced ready for immediate use. It has a beautifully rich flavor of fine sliced beef. Try it.

THE SOURIS GUARDIAN

Office—Main Street—Percy G. Seaman, Mgr.

C. C. Cox, clerk at the Queen, is here again.

Mrs. (Dr.) J. U. Houston, Crapaud, spent Xmas here.

S. S. Electra arrived last week with a general cargo.

Frank McDonald of the Mutual Life spent Xmas here.

The S. S. Stord is expected daily to receive a cargo of bagged oats.

Quite a number of the College students have arrived home to spend Xmas.

Many are pleased to see E. S. McDonald, V. S. out again after his severe illness.

Jas. A. McIsaac of the McCormack Manufacturing Company is spending Xmas at his home.

Owing to the mild weather the rink was not opened but if sufficient frost it will be opened for New Year's.

Harold G. Mathew of the Merchants Bank, Summerside spent Xmas at his home here. Harold is looking fine.

The last vessel for the season completed her cargo yesterday. She was loaded by Sterns Bros. and bound for Sydney.

An Xmas Tree was held at Mrs. Charles Knight's home for the children of the English School. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Xmas passed off quietly here. The roads being good the sports overtook their bloods and there was some fast going up and down Main Street.

Lots of smelts and eels are still being caught, the small boys reaping a harvest catching them by hook and line in the ice on the ponds and rivers.

It is understood a dancing school will be opened immediately under the skillful management of A. McDonald who recently arrived home from North Dakota.

The large number of Christmas presents arriving from United States etc., has made it necessary for the custom officials to engage sleighs to haul them to the Custom House from the P. O.

The Christmas Tree in connection with the Methodist church Sunday School took place on Wednesday night. The church was beautifully decorated and the large Christmas Tree was loaded with gifts for the children. These were distributed after an enjoyable program of recitations and singing.

THE MONTAGUE GUARDIAN

Office—Main Street—Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Mgr.

Alex. D. McLeod, Secretary of Orwel cheese factory, was in Montague yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, Montague, are visiting in Charlottetown this week the guests of Mr. Gillespie's mother.

John McRae of Pinette Mills, and F. B. McRae representing the Imperial Life Insurance Co., were in Montague yesterday.

The Railway men are busy this week finishing up the turntable and other requirements on the Montague Branch Railway.

Dr. H. P. Wright, a former dentist of Montague, has arrived from Calgary. He will be accompanied on his return by one of the fair maids of Montague.

The Masonic supper and entertainment Wednesday night was a grand success. While the Lodge was having refreshments a public installation was held, at which the ladies were present in large numbers, making St. Andrew's Lodge look ever so much brighter. After installation the brethren and ladies to the number of one hundred repaired to Montague Hall, where Dr. A. E. Smith, proprietor of the Royal had everything in readiness. A grand repast was then partaken of after which the following toast list was very satisfactorily and entertainingly carried out: Opening Speech.—Bro. G. A. Thompson. King.—God bless him. Our Country.—Senator Robertson. Song.—Bro. G. A. Poole. Our Fraternity.—Bro. Nathaniel McLaren. Song.—Mrs. Senator Robertson. Recitation.—Bro. De. G. B. Green. Song.—Miss Hewitt. Bench and Bar.—Bro. G. S. Inman. Song.—Bro. D. J. McLeod. Recitation.—Bro. William McDonald. Militia.—Bro. W. A. Johnstone. Song.—Mrs. Senator Robertson. The Ladies.—Bros. H. Nelson and H. H. Lowe. The affair was brought to a close by singing the Doxology.
