REV. WILLIAM DOBSON, the well known Methodist clergyman, now of Windsor, N. S., in a recent sermon on temperance observed: "Napoleon is reported to have said on the morning after his celebrated conference with Alexander on the raft at Tilist, "If you scratch a Russian deep enough you are sure to find a Tartar," so there are many professed temperance men, whom if you scratch them deep enough you are sure to find a politician or some other creature wholly conditioned by expediency. Such, however, is humanity; we must make the best of it and pass on."

Six Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills do a Great Work for G. C. Chalke.

HORNEY'S RAPIDS, Gat. July 22.—(Special).—The following letter is from G. C. Chalke of this place:

"I want to say right here on the start of this letter, I am cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills of my kidney complaint. I have no doubt about it, none in the least. I weigh ten pounds more than I did fourteen months ago and can do a fair day's work any day.

"I can say I am completely cured of my old enemy Lame Back and am no longer troubled with heavy aching arms and dull bloated eyes. Yes, it is all gone, purged out by Dodd's Kidney Pills. The work was done by taking six boxes of that life saving medicine.

"I often wonder what powerful virtue Dodd's Kidney Pills contain. I don't entertain a doubt in the least, particular that where Dodd's Kidney Pills are said to cure they will cure every time.

"This is strong talk but I can prove it by my own case anywhere. If anyone is in doubt he can write to me."
