WOULD it not be a good move for the city schools to close to-day at 12 o'clock in order to give teachers an opportunity of attending the races. THE Canadian Magazine for September is a highly interesting number of this creditable Canadian serial which makes steady advancement in excellence as it grows in popular favor. Messrs. Mackenzie, Abbott, Bowell, Mills, Cartwright, McGee and others. VISITORS to Charlottetown frequently remark on the advertising tact of our business men, as evidenced in the public press. A few weeks ago Mr. Ernest Rice entered the advertising arena and inserted an ad., "Bicycle Doctor," in the GUARDIAN. He has now received from Fall River, Mass, a copy of a paper in which his ad. appears over the signature of another bicycle repairer, who has written Mr. Rice, complimenting him on the originality and attractiveness of his advertisement, and has sent him another spiky ad. in return. Good for the bicycle doctor.

The first intimation he had of the sad occurrences was from Mr. Bolger, of the Rankin House, upon his arrival there last night.—Ex.
