CEYLON FOR BOER PRISONERS.

Accommodation for Three Thousand of Them in the Centre of the Island Now Being Prepared.
Ceylon, as well as St. Helena, is to be used as a place of exile for the Boer prisoners of war, whom the British expect to take, or have taken. Out at Diyatalawa, in the Province of Uva, the British now are building big barracks, and sheds for the prisoners and for the soldiers who are to guard them. Diyatalawa is a station on the railway, about 150 miles from Colombo, and is very nearly in the centre of the island. Here the Colombo Commercial Company is building 23 sheds, 120 by 40 feet, the Government factory is building 18 sheds, and Messrs. Walker, Sons & Co. are building seven sheds, all of which are to be of the same size. These 48 sheds will be occupied by the Boers, who will number according to present calculation, between 2000 and 3000.
In addition to these sheds, the authorities are putting up a number of barrack buildings, sufficient to accommodate half a battalion of soldiers. There will be 10 of these structures, 100 feet long by 21 feet wide, suited to shelter 50 men each. They will be made of iron and corrugated zinc, with walls lined with light woods, and floor boarders. In addition to these 10 buildings there will be others put up for the use of the officers, hospitals and cooking outfits etc.

If prisoners are to be congratulated, the Boers certainly are, if only for the natural beauty of the country in which they are to pass the days of their captivity. There is hardly another country in the world as beautiful as Ceylon—certainly not another tropical country. At the altitude of Diyatalawa the climate will be pleasant and healthful, and the prisoners ought to make their imprisonment as pleasant as enforced detention anywhere could possibly be.
This is not the first time that Ceylon has been used to harbor exiles or prisoners of war. It was to this island that Arabi Pacha, who for a time was practically ruler of Egypt, in 1882, and some important followers of his were sent nearly 18 years ago. They were stationed in Kandy, in the interior, and spent most of their exile in that most beautiful of all tropical mountain cities. During the later years of their exile they were free to travel anywhere on the island, without restraint or surveillance, the only restriction being that they must not leave Ceylon. It was largely a matter of honor.

Poor Quality of Blood

A Frequent Cause of Consumption, Heart Failure and Other Constitutional Diseases—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a Blood Builder.
The heart, the lungs, the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, and bowels cannot perform their functions and repair wasted tissue when supplied with blood that is deficient in nutritive qualities, and sooner or later the weakest organ succumbs to the attacks of disease.
The indications of thin, watery blood are paleness of the lips, gums, and eyelids, shortness of breath, weakness of heart action, and languid, despondent feelings. These symptoms are usually accompanied by nervousness, sleeplessness, and general weakness of the body. It is positively useless to doctor the symptoms, and injurious to use opiates or stimulants. Cure can be brought about gradually and certainly by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which contains in condensed pill form all the elements required for strengthening and revitalizing the blood. As a blood builder and nerve restorative, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of inestimable value. In pill form, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
