Jeweler,

Aggravating Assaults.
New Zealand is bothered by the later hat question. Miss McDermott tried to settle it recently in a practical manner. She was seated in a theater of the town of Oamaru, and in front of her was Mrs. Brady, wearing voluminous headgear. As Mrs. Brady refused to remove the obstructive hat, Miss McDermott borrowed a gentleman's walking stick and tilted it out of her line of vision. But Mrs. Brady was not prepared to wear her hat at a rakish angle all the evening, and so she put it straight again. Every time she did so Miss McDermott repeated the performance with the walking stick. The magistrate decided that Miss McDermott had committed "a series of minor but aggravating assaults" and fined her $2.50, plus $14 costs. The money was promptly subscribed by the citizens as a protest against large hats in theaters.

German and Books.
A Berlin paper has been asking its readers, "Why don't the Germans buy books?" Among the answers were these: "Because half the Germans write books themselves and have no time or inclination for reading those of others," and "Because beer brings more satisfaction than books do." As a matter of fact, in 1901, the latest year for which statistics are available, 25,331 books were published in Germany against 8,141 in the United States, 6,044 in Great Britain and 13,053 in France.

Two Valuations.
"Somebody asked D'Auber to name a figure for that painting of his. He placed it pretty high, I believe."
"Yes, and so did the art committee."
"What had they to do with the price?"
"Not the price, but the painting itself. They skied it."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Judging by His Remarks.
Bobbs—Newlywed's wife is a cooking school girl, and she has been feeding him on angel food.
Slobbs—What effect has it had on him?
Bobbs—Well, I think he has rather given up the idea of ever becoming an angel.

A Wonderful Performance.
"Fred made a remarkable record with his automobile last Sunday."
"How many miles did he go?"
"I don't know anything about the distance, but he ran the thing nearly all day without hurting anybody or breaking down once."—Chicago Record-Herald.

EARLY UTTERANCE OF A WELSH PROPHET.

Liverpool Post.
An extraordinary incident, alleged to have occurred on Friday last, has caused an immense sensation in Bethesda. On that day while a woman was washing her three-month-old child, so the story goes, she was thunder-struck to hear the baby say, "Blwyddyn of nadwy fydd y flwyddyn nesaf mam," which roughly translated means, "Next year will be a terrible year, mother!" In her astonishment and terror, the mother laid the child down and ran to a neighbor's house, and told a woman there of the occurrence. The woman ran at once into the house, and picking the child up, soothed and cared for it awhile, and then half playfully, half in earnest, she said to the child, "Did you tell your mother that next year will be a terrible year?" To her unbounded astonishment the child replied "Yes," and fell back dead. The child was buried on Saturday afternoon, in the presence of large crowds, who discussed the story and are spreading it far and wide.

MADE HIM SIT UP.
Wm. Doeg's Rheumatism Wouldn't let him lie down to Rest—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured him.

SUNDRIDGE, Ont., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—After four years' torture from Rheumatism Mr. Doeg, a farmer living on Con. 3, Strong Township, is entirely free from his old enemy, Dodd's Kidney Pills did it.

Mr. Doeg makes the following statement regarding his cure: "The trouble started in my back and spread to other parts of my body. The pain got so bad I could not lie down, to take rest and had to sit night and day in a chair. "I was treated for Rheumatism by several doctors and tried different medicines without getting relief. I thought I would never again be free from pain. "Then I started using Dodd's Kidney Pills and before I had finished the second box all my pains had gone. They have never come back, I am a new man."

LAST BUT NOT LEAST THE BIG STORE COMES IN

There's always a rattling of dry bones among our competitors when WE go into a discount sale—Why?—Well when we go in, we do so with our whole stock—we don't advertise big discounts on a little fancy goods and stuff the people don't want—we simply say our whole stock is yours, not a cent's worth reserved here except cotton warp and spools—and we'd discount them too, but if we did the trusts of this country would not sell to us again, 25 per cent is the smallest discount here and 50 per cent is the highest. Here's a few and what you don't see here is being sold at the same discounts.
