SUFFRAGETTES AT NEWCASTLE

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, Oct 10.—Tonight found this city, where David Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, will deliver two important budget speeches tomorrow, invaded by the Suffragettes. The chancellor was escorted from the station by a strong force of police. The Suffragettes attempted in the evening to hold a meeting in Drill Hall, but students and the noisy element of the city, armed with bells, whistles, whistles and other noise-making instruments raised such a din that the speakers could not be heard and finally broke up the meeting by throwing fireworks on the stage. The Suffragettes then proceeded to the Liberal Club, through the windows of which they threw stones. Four of them were arrested.
