PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—With announcement to be used in the suppression of the Rube in Russia, the American steamer Westmount is loading a full cargo of rifles, shells and locomotives at Pledge's Point for the Wrangel government in South Russia. The Westmount is in command of Captain Smith and with two Russian army officers aboard, will sail direct from this port to the Black Sea, where she will receive orders as to her destination. The vessel was recently purchased by A. D. Cumins and Co., shipbrokers of this city, from the United States Shipping Board and is 409 feet long and 54 feet beam, and was built at Seattle, Wash., in 1918. It is understood that the freight paid the ship by the Russian government is in the neighborhood of $150,000.

War Veterans Column

ADDRESS CORRESPONDENCE TO WAR VETERANS COLUMN, P.O. BOX 585, CHARLOTTETOWN

MILITARY HISTORY.—(Continued from last issue.) A blue-book on the Militia-men of 1812-15, issued by the Militia Department from Ottawa in 1876, gives the following: No exact data have yet been found to establish correctly the number of militia-men under arms in Upper Canada in 1812-15, but it is stated in an address to the Prince Regent on the subject of services rendered by the militia of that Province that the population able to bear arms does not exceed 10,000 men; nearly one-half of these are embodied for the whole of the first, and a very considerable portion of the greatest part of the last campaign. The strength of the militia on actual service above referred to, appears to have been as follows: 550 cavalry, 350 artillery, 55 artificers, and 4,500 infantry, total, 5,850 officers, N. C. O.'s and men. The province seems to have had only one battalion, 500 strong, which was styled "the Incorporated Battalion." The whole of the militia was ordered out for some period, varying from a few days to two months, of 25,525 militia-men in all, of whom 13,000 (probably including local enlistments and drafts from the militia to fill up losses), as far as can be ascertained comprising the 1st Foot (1st battalion only), 8th King's Own, 10th Royal Veterans (1 battalion only), 33rd, 40th, 41st, 49th, 89th, 100th, 102th, 104th (New Brunswick) Regiments, besides the Royal Newfoundland, the Meurons, the Portables, the Light Dragoons, about 800 Royal Marines and Seamen, and 500 artillery and engineers. The numbers above give a grand total of 41,500 British troops including militia and Indians. The whole period of the War of 1812-15 embraced forty months, out of which twenty nine were occupied in actual military operations. A copy submitted to the United States Senate in 1899, which showed that the forces which served on their side throughout the War of 1812 to 1814 reached a grand total of 380,454, and their losses, as published by the Newburyport Herald, gives for regulars 18,016, with 6,284 desertions, and for the militia a loss of 370 with 1,368 desertions. Representative James MacLachlan in January, 1917, presented a criticism in Congress on the condition of the army of the United States compiled by Mr. F. L. Huldekooper, an international military expert, which upholds the splendid results obtained from the old universal military system in vogue in Canada in saying: "During the War of 1812 our legislators did a lot of boasting that Canada could easily be captured without soldiers and that a few volunteers and militia-men could do the business. What happened? In 1814 the United States called out no less than 235,899 troops, but, notwithstanding the size of these forces, Americans suffered the humiliation of seeing their much-vaunted plan of conquest vanish in the smoke of a burning capital on 24th August, 1814. In the War of 1812 we had 56,023 regulars and 471,622 militia

RENEW POLICIES OF BONAPARTE BY PLUNGING DEFIANCE TO WORLD.

PARIS, August 16.—A direct appeal by the Soviets to French labor not to permit France to make war on Russia was printed today in the Socialist press. It reads: "France declared war on Russia when she recognized General Wrangel. The war was declared without pretext and without an attempt at conciliation. At the very moment peace was about to be declared between Poland and Russia, but now negotiations are ruptured. The French declaration means not only civil war in Russia, but it provokes a new world war. We appeal to French labor not to permit it."

Louis, secretary-general of the French socialist party, said today that the French workers will fight side by side with English labor to render the decision of the French government futile.

"The recognition of Wrangel," said today that the French workers mark the telegram of 1870, for the ultimatum of the Austrian Emperor to Serbia in 1914. The French Government is renewing the policies of Napoleon Bonaparte by plunging defiance to the entire world.

against the English and Canadian forces of only about 55,000 men. The war cost us $2,627,009 and $45,898,676 in pensions. Such was the then preparations of Canada and its result was the saving of Canada. (To be continued in next issue.)

FALLEN ANGEL.—A private in a London regiment, was leaving a hospital somewhere in France to rejoin his unit. For months he had lain in a critical condition, but through the skill of the doctors, and the motherly kindness of the nurses, he entirely recovered. It occurred to him that he ought to thank the matron before leaving, and, trembling all over, he prepared for the ordeal. "I've just come to say good-bye," he commenced. The matron looked at him kindly. "I—er—, I just wanted to say 'ow much—' He coughed nervously and swallowed a lump in his throat. "Yes!—you don't know 'ow much—' Feeling his courage going, he braced himself for a great effort. "I wanted to tell yer—" then in desperation, "Billiey! If ever there was a fallen angel, you're one."

LEVEL CROSSINGS.—There are a number of very bad Railway Crossings near Charlottetown over which there is a lot of traffic. To get over several of these crossings one has to travel up a very short and steep incline, which makes a very likely place to stall a car on the other day on the Mainland resulting in the loss of life. A determined effort should be made to have the authorities take steps to put a coating under the crossings, which in many cases could be done with little expense, clear of the road. It is time the level crossings should cease to exist in this country, and we hope that a start will be made to this end in the very near future.

GERMAN WARSHIPS.—Five former German warships now flying the American flag are in New York Harbour. They are to visit several American and Canadian ports. We trust that an effort will be made to have these ships visit this Port, as we feel sure all will be delighted to see these dogs of war with their teeth drawn. Let us remember with thankfulness that it was the "preparedness" of the British Navy which prevented a visit of these ships, to this Port during 1914-18. Let us do our part to see that our Empire is ever prepared to cope with and overcome any forces which may be arrayed against it in the future.

CADETS.—The boys at the Naval Camp near York Point are having a good time notwithstanding the unfavourable weather which has been their lot. For many of them it is their first separation from "mother's apron strings." They are well satisfied with the arrangements which have been made for them, especially so with the rations. Report has it that last Saturday morning at 4 o'clock the sentry on guard noticed a disturbance in the camp, and on investigation found that the personnel of the camp had formed themselves into a ring, and in the center of it were two "Young Brighton Road Roosters" having a go with the boxing gloves. It is to be hoped that when these boys return to Town that they will show the same readiness to press the "it is nice" to get up in the morning. About fifty cadets from Queen Square school are leaving this morning to attend the Cadet Camp at Aldershot, N. S. We feel sure the boys will enjoy themselves and that they will learn much to attend to the wants of the boys which will be of use to them in case of illness.

UT TOMBSTONES NEXT DOCTOR'S DOOR.

TORONTO, AUG. 14.—Tombstones are all right in the right place, but next door to a doctor, they have their drawbacks. This was the substance of a judgement given this afternoon by Magistrate Ellis in refusing to fine Joseph Steiner, charged with offering tombstones for sale in a restricted area. The city solicitor's department produced a photograph showing at least six tombstones on the front step of Steiner's home, but so many people thought that some were buried there that he put stones removed.

LLOYD GEORGE AND NORTHCLIFFE HAVE EFFECTED RECONCILIATION

LONDON, August 15.—A reconciliation between Premier Lloyd George and Viscount Northcliffe, the mightiest newspaper publisher in Great Britain is under way.

During the past week Northcliffe has displayed stronger and stronger sympathies with the Premier's policies than he has shown since the armistice. The Times has just published an editorial advocating doubling the Premier's salary, now $25,000, and also granting a pension to retired Premiers. A tremendous interest is aroused in the two strongest men in England getting back to pulling as a team after their bitter estrangement. Instead of backing France in every difference of opinion that has developed between Lloyd George and Premier Millerand, the Northcliffe papers are now lining up their English contemporaries in support of the English Government head.

Wickham Steed, editor of the Times, and credited with lining up the Northcliffe press in support of France, is expected to be replaced soon as a result of the overthrowing of his policy.

DICKY DIPPY'S DIARY

WEDNESDAY. AT A LAWN PARTY I WAS INTRODUCED TO A YOUNG LADY AND SAT DOWN TO CHAT WITH HER.

I HAPPENED TO MENTION WHAT A NICE PLACE IT WAS, AND SHE BEGAN TELLING ME ABOUT THE PRETTY BIRDS AND FLOWERS AND TREES. I ENJOYED IT VERY MUCH.

WHEN SHE WAS ABOUT TO GO, I SAID: "MISS SMART, I'VE LEARNED A GREAT DEAL THIS LAST HALF HOUR. SOMEHOW YOUR INTELLECT APPEALS TO MINE! ARE YOU A WRITER?"

AND SHE REPLIED "NO, I TEACH AN INFANT SCHOOL."

Every one to his taste says Bobby—and when it comes to flavor in corn flakes I find most everybody wants
