A CORRESPONDENT from Canoe Cove writes—MacPadyon Bros. are engaged in constructing a yacht for private service.—On the 15th ult. the wedding of Peter MacPadyon to Miss Emeline Darroch was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents John and Mrs. Darroch. Needless to say the invited guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly, and took leave of the happy couple with a long and hearty wish for their future happiness.—Miss Louisa MacKinnon has returned from Charlottetown where she has spent the present winter.

A QUIET and pretty military wedding took place at St. Mark's Church of England at Halifax, on Wed. 13 March when Pte. Albert Clarke of the Royal Canadian Reg. was united to Miss Maud Snow of St. John's Nfld. The bride wore a suit of cream white lustrous with a long veil, and wreath of lilacs of the valley, and also carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Maud Vantassell, of Spry Bay, Halifax Co. The groom was attended by his brother Ernest. The groom and his brother are both of West River, P. E. I. The Rev. Archdeacon Lamoine officiated. The presents were numerous and valuable. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their home where they received their guests and had a quiet entertainment and tea.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. Artemus Wadman took place on Sunday March 17th, from her late residence at Crapaud, to the Baptist Cemetery at Westmoreland. The services at the house and Church were conducted by Rev. J. E. Tiner. The deceased who was in the 60th year of her age was the widow of the late Artemus Wadman, who predeceased her three years ago. The funeral was a very large one. The beautiful black broadcloth casket with honey comb silk panels, was supplied by her son C. H. Wadman, undertaker, Summerside. Besides him the deceased leaves to mourn two other sons, Wesley T., of Newton Centre, Mass., and Welton of Petit Roches, New Brunswick; also four daughters, Mrs. T. Cann North Williams, Mrs. Wm. Graves, Remyvale, Mrs. D. Clark, Hiron, and Mrs. H. Robinson, Augustine Cove. The pall bearers were: P. McDonald, Geo. Newsome, B. H. Cameron, H. Lowther, D. McKinnon, Mark Best.

THE City Schools will re-open tomorrow (Wednesday) at 9 a. m.

THE Charlottetown Business College re-opens tomorrow morning.

THE quarantine restrictions will be removed Tuesday night. Hillsboro High will be opened for the children on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5.30 at the usual price to children of 5 cents. Band on Thursday next. Popular price 15 cents.

CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get anything in, as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

THE following telegram was received, last evening by Peter McCourt, President Irish Society Halifax N.S. March 17. To President Irish Benevolent Society, Charlottetown Irish Society of Halifax sends fraternal greetings to the Irish Sister Society of Ch. Town hoping that a brighter day is in store for old Ireland. Sgd John C. O'Mullin, President; Jas. J. O'Brien Secretary.

THE Charlottetown Dramatic Club under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society will present in the Opera House tomorrow night their beautiful melodrama entitled "The Daughter of Erin." This is certainly an excellent play and the public should take advantage of this most favorable opportunity and enjoy a pleasant evening in the Opera on Wednesday March 20th inst. Tickets can be got at the usual places.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application, less postage if sent by mail, if they do not get what they want.

ANOTHER of those very pleasant events which go far towards making life worth living, took place on Friday evening last at the residence of J. S. Bryenton, Brackley Point Road. A number of friends from the city were in attendance and a most enjoyable time was spent by all. Mrs. Bryenton proved an ideal hostess, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth. During the evening an enjoyable impromptu program was carried out. James Calder, Sr. gave several of his inimitable Scotch songs, and delighted every body with a capital performance of the "Highland Fling." George Moore delighted the company with artistically rendered tenor solos and instrumental selections. Mrs. Bruce McMillan also added to their enjoyment by playing several selections on the violin, one in particular "The Soldiers Joy" as only Mrs. McMillan can play it. The evening passed away very pleasantly and after enjoying a sumptuous repast and a few more songs, the health of the host and hostess was proposed after which "Auld Lang Syne" and three cheers and a tiger brought the evening to a close early in the morning.

Trim Sateen Petticoats $1.49

ANOTHER INSTANCE of the advantage of large buying, is demonstrated in this lot of attractive goods. These garments were carefully made up, by one of the best makers in the country, made of good, bright, black sateen. The fabric is firm, and at the same time soft and silk like, the cut of the petticoat is modern, and on generous lines, the deep outside line, has two rows of insertion, of black thread lace. Under the outside flounce there is one of contrasting colour or black. Both flounces are finished with dust ruffle.

If we had bought this line, in the regular way, and for the regular price we would have been compelled to sell it for $2.00 each. Spot cash terms, and a special price cut on account of quantity make it possible for us to offer this fine line of petticoats at the special bargain price of—
