

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

These are Short Greetings! But they are Cordial Greetings!

In the limited space devoted to each of these subscribers, no lengthy message of good will could be printed—but each is most sincere in his message to you!
Every one of us has good reason to be cheerful and radiate happy thoughts, for during the past twelve months we've been torn loose from depressing business conditions—and the compass of the day points to a greater prosperity.
So go about your business today—the business of making every one happy—with the firm conviction and sure faith that there is peace on earth—and have good will to men!
