"Oh sure! That was silly, wasn't it?" She had apparently abandoned any idea of disappearing. The Vaughn estate seemed to be an absorbing topic of conversation. She perched on a stool, behind the fountain and regarded Jim attentively, her eyes glinting with secret amusement. "You're a friend of Cecily's, I suppose."

Jim was unable to make an intelligent reply. Who the devil was Cecily? He had let himself in for explanations. Why had he asked the question?

The girl, however expected no reply. That he and "Cecily" were friends was an established fact, Jim decided, so far as she was concerned.

"I know somebody who won't set off fire-works because you've come," she added with an air of lively enjoyment.

"Do you?" Jim asked, slightly startled. "That's not a pleasant prospect."

"You needn't worry," she said encouragingly. "You can handle him." Jim felt that she was measuring the ample breadth of his shoulders, appraising, with admiration which she made no attempt to conceal, his six feet and an odd inch or so of flexible muscles and lean hard flesh. What is blazes? Who was "him"? A potential rival, perhaps. Jim was intrigued.

"Are you sure?" he asked smiling.

"Dollars to doughnuts. That's a fact, guy!" Her expression was scornful. "What Cecily sees in him..." She broke off, her denouncement of the unknown rival apparently checked by an idea. "When you get there," she said, "you can do something for me."

"Out there" meant "Meadowbrook" of course. Now for explanations.

"Can I?" Jim asked, stalling for time, curious to discover her real interest in the Vaughn estate.

"You can tell Tommy..." She paused to find fitting words in which to phrase her message. The scornful expression was gone. Again Jim observed her former air of secret amusement, the mischief glinting like dancing imps in her eyes. "Tell Tommy not to come in tonight. Privately, if you know what I mean. You look like a pretty good egg."

Tommy! Complications were increasing. Jim realized the advisability of clearing himself at once. "I'd be glad to take your message," he said, "and you could rely on my discretion. But I'm not going to Meadowbrook."

The blue eyes widened. Jim thought he detected about her mouth a return of the scornful expression.

*MOTORED FROM HALIFAX. Kenneth Beer, Montague, with his friend Eric Howell of Newfoundland, both Medical Students at Dalhousie, motored from Halifax to spend Thanksgiving with Kenneth's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beer.—L.

*PRESENTATION.—The members of the United Church Choir of Montague met at the home of Mr. McTaggart, M. L. A., on Thursday evening. After a pleasant hour of music and games Mr. Russell Finley, President of the Choir, called the party to order and explained the purpose of the meeting. He then asked Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anwar to rise and called on Rev. Arthur Long to read the address of the evening and Miss Alva Brehaut, Secretary of the Choir presented a gift of money. Although taken by surprise Jack thanked the members very warmly for their thoughtfulness and hoped they would all feel free to visit them in their home at any time and could be assured of a welcome. Refreshments were then served and after singing "They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne" the party broke up with many good wishes for the happiness of the young couple.—V.

*VISITOR SHOWERED.—On Saturday night Mrs. Harold Maby, Gladys Burden, who came from Summerside to spend the week end with her mother Mrs. Ada Burden found a pleasant surprise was in store for her at the home of Mr. W. A. McLagan when a shower was tendered her. When the guests assembled a gaily decorated wagon was pulled in loaded with gifts. Mrs. Walter Beer read the humorous verses attached and Miss Louise Burden opened the parcels for her sister. Mrs. Maby thanked the guests very prettily for the many lovely and useful things and the kindness of her many friends in remembering her. Dainty refreshments were served and the guests departed with many kind wishes Mr. and Mrs. Maby.—

*THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—The W. M. S. of the United Church Montague, held their Autumn Thanksgiving service Sunday evening. The Cherry Valley Ladies' Quartette were to be present, but two of their members, Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Mutch were unable to come through illness. This was deeply regretted by their many friends in Montague. Mrs. McCrae and Mrs. Jenkins of the Quartette came and the selections given were very much appreciated. The following is the musical programme.—Duet—The Old Rugged Cross, Mrs. McCrae and Mrs. Jenkins. Solo by Rev. Arthur Long—The Trumpet Shall Sound, from The Messiah, by Handel. The depth of tone and beauty of the rendition of this number will not soon be forgotten by his listeners. Solo by Mrs. McCrae, Open the Gates of the Temple, was heard with deep enjoyment as Mrs. McCrae is a favorite with Montague music lovers. Duet by Mrs. McCrae and Mrs. Jenkins. Come Holy Spirit was much appreciated. Solo by Mr. Long—In Faith I Shall Arise, Eldie, brought the service to a close. After the service Mrs. Effie Bruce entertained the visitors.—L.

THE SILVER FOX WORLD'S GREATEST EVENT!

At Charlottetown, P. E. I. NOVEMBER 1st. to 5th.

This Classic of the Fox World Offers 24 Challenge Cups and Trophies

Many of them magnificent specimens of the silversmith's art, and VALUED AT $1500.

BEAUTIFUL ROSETTE RIBBONS and CASH PRIZES for 43 SECTIONS TOTALLING UPWARDS OF $2,000

Nowhere else in the world are such beautiful premiums and cash prizes awarded for Silver Foxes. The result is that the world's finest specimens of Silver Fox meet here and an opportunity is afforded to Silver Fox ranchers and the public generally to witness the progress that is being made in this great fur industry.

This Exhibition is the talk of the Silver Fox world and will be visited by prominent fur men and fox ranchers from other provinces. You cannot afford to miss this Show, either as an exhibitor or spectator.

There are classifications for darks up to 25 per cent., dark mediums, mediums, pale silvers and extra pale silvers, subdivided into adults, yearlings and pups, males and females. Classes for herds, senior yearling, junior sire and three of his get, dam and two of her progeny, best matched pair male and female, adults and pups, nine Championships and a Grand Championship for best fox in Show.

Prizes will be awarded on the basis of number of entries, one to six entries three prizes, seven to eight entries four prizes, nine to ten entries five prizes, eleven to twelve entries six prizes, thirteen to fourteen entries seven prizes, fifteen to sixteen entries eight prizes, seventeen to eighteen entries nine prizes, nineteen to twenty entries ten prizes, twenty-one to twenty-five entries eleven prizes, over twenty-five entries twelve prizes. Money will be divided as follows:—1st $12; 2nd $9; 3rd $6, remaining creditable qualifying entries $4 each.

Grand Championship Trophy

A magnificent silver trophy will be awarded to the exhibitor winning the greatest number of points in the Show. Other trophies offered at this Silver Fox Show provide a great measure of attraction, interest and stimulation. The array of silverware which will be on display during the period of the Show is a magnificent one and merits the attention of our people.

Grand Banquet Canadian National Hotel

The annual Foxmen's Banquet will be held on Tuesday, November 2nd, at the Canadian National Hotel and will be the highlight of the season. Only 140 tickets will be sold so as to avoid crowding and assure every guest of a pleasant and highly entertaining evening. Music, mirth and an unexcelled repast; short snappy speeches will be given by leading men and prominent authorities on Silver Fox ranching.

The time is short, the days will slip by quickly and it will be no time until the big Fox Show is on. Monday, November 1st will be receiving and classifying day. Tuesday morning sharp at nine o'clock judging will commence and will be continued until Friday afternoon when it should be completed, and the trophies awarded. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the first week in November will be days crowded with interest and enthusiasm. People from all over the Province, yes, in fact all over the fox world, will be watching and waiting for the results of this Fox Show. Breeders who desire to make a name for themselves in the fox world should send in entries. Accommodation has been set up for 600 foxes but many more can be looked after. Write to the Secretary for Prize List.
