HOLLYWOOD HILARITY IN LATEST ABBOTT AND COSTELLO COMEDY HIT

Chase your blues and troubles away with "Bud Abbott and Lou Costello in Hollywood," current attraction at the Capitol Theatre and the funniest picture ever to co-star the two Aces of laughmaking.

Bud and Lou are barbers this time but their extra-curricular activities in an attempt to become actors' agents get into the "big money" lead them into a fabulous maze of intrigue, match-making, kidnapping and a thousand-and-one incidents both off and on the movie sets which spell laughter with a capital "L."

Abbott, as usual, has his hands full with the sumperting and unfortunately impulsive Costello, who gets them both into all sorts of hilarious scrapes, climaxed by a fight and chase atop a roller coaster, the like of which you have never seen before. 4-13-21

Mr. Gregory Kinch returned home on Saturday from the City Hospital, Charlottetown, where he recently underwent an appendix operation.

Miss Loula B. Bowness, Montrose, is spending some time visiting friends and relatives in Summerside.

Mrs. Ralph Fraser, Alberton South, was a visitor on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon.

The many friends of little Shirley Gordon are sorry to hear of her continued illness and all hope she will soon be able to return to school.

Mr. Gordon Barbour was a recent visitor to Kennington, where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James MacKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oliver, and Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Oliver motored to Summerside on Sunday to attend the opening of the new Nazarine Church.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Dunbar, on the birth of a son at the Western Hospital on April 9th.

Mr. Thomas Henderson was a recent visitor to Summerside.

Mrs. Arthur Galpin, Summerside, who recently returned from a visit to Newfoundland, spent the week end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nelson Currie, Alma.

A unit of the Blue Cross has been organized in Alma and a roodly number have joined.

The collectors for the Prince County Hospital Drive, Mr. Brenton Ramsay and Mr. Wallace Donald have made the rounds of this vicinity and report that all have responded generously to this worthy cause.

Mr. J. H. Dunbar has returned from an enjoyable visit to Hamilton, Ont., and Montreal. While in Hamilton he was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. John Work, and his cousin, Mrs. Chris Imman.

Mr. W. E. Darby for his assistance and to the press.

Mr. Davis Lidstone, principal of the Summerside High School then addressed the meeting and congratulated the members of the group on the initiative shown in the forming an organization in Summerside, which, he thought, was long past due. He said he felt he expressed the general attitude of the teachers which is one of commendation. Relations between the teachers and the people of Summerside have always been excellent, he said but there are great possibilities for the organization to bring about a closer understanding between the teachers and parents.—S.

Pretty Wedding At Summerside

A very pretty wedding took place Friday, April 12 at 7 p.m. in Trinity United Church, Summerside, when Marjorie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mollison was united in marriage to Morley Leslie Wylie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wylie, Winnipeg, Man. Rev. K. G. Sullivan, B.A., M.A., officiated.

The church was decorated with baskets of roses and pussy willows. Mrs. Eric Sheen presided at the organ. Before the bride entered the church the choir sang "O Perfect Love". During the signing of the register Mr. Allison McLean sang "Because".

The groom was attended by Keith Mollison, brother of the bride.

The ushers were Harold Rodd and Grant Mollison.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue dress with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Neil Duran, who poured tea and Ann Phillips, Marion Sharp and Margery LeTury assisted in the service.

The happy couple left for a short wedding trip and will leave by plane on Monday for Winnipeg.

Out of town guests included Mr. W. J. Wylie of Winnipeg, father of the groom.

Mr. Brenton Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Ramsay were visitors to Summerside last week.

Corporal E.J. Kinch has gone to Halifax re his discharge.

Mr. Gordon Barbour was a business visitor to Summerside on Saturday.

The many friends of Pte. Ben Gavin are pleased to welcome him home from the Bahamas Islands, where he has been serving in His Majesty's Forces.

Mr. Reuben Bowness, Montrose, recently visited his brother, Mr. John Bowness, Summerside.

Mr. James Dunbar and Mr. Ellis Smallman were visitors to O'Leary last week.

On Wednesday afternoon a number of ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Joseph Dunbar for a book sale. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, and although, during the war years, the women of Alma have been knitting for the armed forces in their spare moments, the fine work done on these make show they have not forgotten the art of bookkeeping.

The Alma Mission Band met at the home of the leader, Mrs. J. O. Gordon on Sunday the 8th, for their Easter Thankoffering meeting. A special Easter program was carried out by the children and a means offering was received.
