"Our Melotte earns us extra money Every day"

The Melotte Cream Separator saves you money that would ordinarily go into the skim milk. It gets every ounce of cream. Not a cent of the money your cows earn for you is lost. The Melotte is easy to clean, easy to run, skims close and requires little or no upkeep. All these are important items to any farmer's wife when considering the purchase of a cream separator. Get your nearest dealer to demonstrate the Melotte right on your farm. He'll show you just why it is such a money saver. Then judge its performance for yourself.

EASTER EGGS (GELATINE)

Save, for some time before Easter, as many shells of raw eggs as you wish for, by removing the contents through a hole, about the size of a ten cent piece, in the small end. Wash out the interior of each shell with cold water, so that no trace of albumen will adhere to the inside.

To make the Easter eggs prepare a pint and one-half of milk-gelatine (this will fill a dozen shells), by following any recipe for gelatine jelly, and substituting milk for the liquid or mixture of liquids used. The gelatine should not be acidulated, and if it should seem to curdle on the addition of milk this appearance will disappear on solidifying. Divide the milk-gelatine while still liquid into three parts; add a couple of spoonfuls of strawberry or other red-colored preserve to one; to another, the grated rind of one large orange; to the third, one teaspoonful of almond extract. Fill the empty-shells with the different colored gelatine, using a small paper funnel, and stand each shell upright on its large end on a bit of paste.

When the jelly filling is solid, dip each egg for a moment in very hot water to dissolve a little coating of gelatine all over the inside and break away the shell by chipping it off with the fingers.

Arrange the eggs, in contrasting colors, in a china basket or other fancy dish.
