PRESENTATION TO DR. AND MRS. SEAMAN

Retiring Medical Superintendent of Falconwood Gratefully Remembered by Hospital Staff.

An interesting event took place at Falconwood Hospital last Thursday evening the 22nd inst., when Dr. Seaman the retiring Medical Superintendent and Mrs. Seaman were presented by the staff with suitable gifts and a complimentary address.

Lieut. D. A. Macdonald, manager of the farm, on behalf of the staff, presented the doctor with a leather club bag and Mrs. Seaman with a purse.

The doctor, though taken by surprise, made a fitting reply, thanking the staff for their gifts and address. He said that he would always remember the kindness shown them during their stay at Falconwood.

The following was the address: To Dr. Seaman,

Medical Superintendent Falconwood Hospital.

Dear Dr. Seaman—With the greatest regret we, the employees of Falconwood Hospital and Provincial Infirmary, have learned of your resignation from the position of Medical Superintendent of these institutions. Before you leave us we wish in some measure to express our sincere appreciation of the services you have so ably rendered.

Since coming to these institutions you have not only filled the position of Medical Superintendent in the most efficient manner, but also by your unfailing kindness and gentlemanly qualities you have won our highest respect and confidence.

Now that you are leaving us, we seek to express to you not a matter

PREMIER ARSENAULT BACK IN HIS OFFICE

Accepts the Situation Cheerfully. Satisfied That He and His Colleagues Had Put Up an Honourable Fight.

Premier Arsenault came to the city Friday evening and was in his office Saturday morning. He wore his usual smile, accepting the situation cheerfully. His whole forenoon was taken up receiving friends, both Liberal and Conservative. His defeat has, if anything, made him more friends than ever. Pending the resignation of the Government his time will be taken up in attending to matters necessarily neglected during the campaign and arranging for the transfer of the office to his successor.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS RETURNING TO ENGLAND

300 Arriving Weekly but Unable to Obtain Employment. Englishmen in Canada Advised to Stay There.

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, July 26.—Fully three hundred ex-Canadian soldiers are arriving in the United Kingdom weekly from Canada in the opinion of Ernest H. Hammel, representing the Canadian Department of Soldier Civil Re-establishment. This is exceedingly unwise and strongly to be deprecated. It is estimated there are 10,000 discharged Canadians at present in this country, yet the comparative chance of obtaining congenial employment here and in Canada is probably twenty to one in favor of Canada. What happens is this: A Canadian soldier has perhaps spent his leave here, has been well provided for, had plenty money and not a care in the world. Naturally he likes the country. In due time he goes back to Canada, but after five years absence finds everything changed, does not like it, he thinks fondly of the happy

U.S. Ambassadorship Is Too Expensive

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, July 27.—Most British statesmen who have been asked by Premier Lloyd George to accept the post of Ambassador to the United States have refused, not because they do not want it, but because they cannot afford the cost, says the Daily Express. Washington is expensive. The Ambassador's wife, who hoped to get through on 8,000 or 10,000 pounds a year would soon find herself mistaken. The Express adds: "Even Lord Reading, who is a rich man, found it very expensive."

SAD DEATH OF GEORGE H. MORESIDE

Gored by Vicious Bull and Died Yesterday in P. E. I. Hospital.

A particularly sad death occurred yesterday morning in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, when Mr. Geo. H. Moreside, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moreside of Milton passed away as the result of injuries received on Friday night from being attacked by a bull. The young man went to the barn about ten o'clock to look after the stock. While in the act of stooping to pick up the chain by which the bull was tied the animal turned upon him, goring him viciously. One of the bull's horns entered his side, penetrating the right lung; another wound was received in the neck. The family knew nothing of the accident until one of them observed that the bull had left the stable. They went to the barn and found the young man lying and making help himself. He was taken to the house and Dr. Warburton immediately sent for. The injured man was taken in Wright's ambulance to the hospital, where everything possible was done for him, but his injuries were fatal and he passed away yesterday about 10 a.m. He was a young man of the big, cheerful character and his untimely death is mourned by many friends besides his grief-stricken parents, sisters and brother. He is survived by his parents, two sisters, the Misses Ruby and Lucy, the latter a trained nurse, and one brother, Richard, who have the sympathy of the community in their sudden bereavement. The funeral takes place tomorrow, Tuesday, at 2 p.m.
