Mr. Murphy was a baker at Alberton. Witnesses said he complained of pains in his stomach. Several of the witnesses said they saw no signs of liquor of any kind when they called to see him.

Dr. Lefurgey said in his opnion "death was due to alcoholic poisoning". It was only his opinion, he made clear. He treated the man before death.

Double Wedding at New Glasgow

The New Glasgow United Church was the scene of a very pretty double wedding on Wednesday, July 8th at 7 p.m., when Rev. John Sterling united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Margaret Stevenson, daughter of Mrs. and the late R.W. Stevenson, to Charles Foster Sellar, son of Mrs. John Bell Florida, U.S.A., and the late Milton Sellar. And Miss Inez Clara Stevenson, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late R.W. Stevenson to John Daniel MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. MacLeod, Glasgow Road.

The church was very beautifully decorated by friends of the brides with a profusion of potted plants roses and other flowers.

The wedding music throughout the service was rendered by Miss Cora Tcombs, Mayfield. During the signing of the register, Mr. Olaf Stevenson, North Rustico, sang very touchingly, "I Love You Truly."

Miss Margaret, given in marriage by he brother Eric, looked very lovely in a redingote ensemble of rose crepe, with matching hat and white accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Inez, given in marriage by her brother Roy, looked lovely in a redingote ensemble of heaven blue crepe, with matching hat and white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The two little flower girls, Misses Shirley and Betty Lou Stevenson, neices of the brides, looked winsome in pink silk dresses and hats trimmed with baby blue ribbons and carried little nosegays.

The ushers were Mr. Lorne Stevenson, New Glasgow, and Mr. Robert MacKenzie, Milton.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the brides' mother, who wore a gown of navy blue sheer with white accessories and corsage of old fashioned roses

The living room was very tastefully decorated with white crepe paper streamers and bells forming an arch banked with ferns and orange blossoms where the brides and grooms received the congratulations from approximately 75 guests.

The dinner room was decorated in pink and white and the table was adorned with four beautiful wedding cakes.

Later in the evening a jolly crowd of serenaders assembled to wish the happy couples many years of wedded bliss.

The happy couples left on a short honeymoon through the Maritime Provinces. The brides wore Navy pin stripe tailored suits with navy accessories.

Out of town guests included Miss Jennie Stevenson, Brockton, Mass., and Mrs. Elmore Stevenson, Kingston, Ontario.

Previous to their marriage the brides were tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elsie Laird, New Glasgow.

The brides were escorted to a beautifully decorated seat by Miss Joyce Norman and Miss Shirley Ferguson, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. P.L. Campbell. Miss Betty Lou Stevenson and Miss Sheila Dickieson presented the brides to be with white bouquets with yellow streamers.

Master Bairy Stevenson and Miss Jean MacLeod, carried in the heavily ladened baskets.

Misses Lynetta Brown and Margaret Moore opened the gifts and Vivian Howatt read the accompanying verses and Joyce Norman and Shirley Ferguson arranged them on the table.

The brides very fittingly replied thanking one and all for their beautiful gifts which consisted of pyrex, silver, china, linens and money. After a very dainty lunch served by the ladies the remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing.

Quoits Tourney To Open Here Tomorrow

Rochford Square will be the centre of attraction for quoit players of the Rochford Quoit Club. Their quoit tournament will get under way Tuesday evening and all members are asked to be on hand early.

The play will be of the elimination variety and will continue until a winner is declared for the Crockett Trophy. Mr. Howard McInnis was the winner last season, going through the tournament without a defeat.

This season he will have keen competition. Many new faces are to be seen in this club and judging from the way they are placing them around the old hob they are going to be plenty hard to eliminate.

All in all a real good series is in the offing.

Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

The baseball world was shocked two years ago today by the suicide death of Willard Hershberger, 29-year-old catcher of Cincinnati Reds of the National League. Hershberger, in his third season with the Reds, was apparently despondent over his recent play and was found dead in a downtown Boston Hotel.

Giants And Cardinals Break Even In Twin Bill

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—(AP)—For the second time in two days, New York Giants divided a doubleheader with St. Louis Cardinals today, dampening the pennant hopes of the Red Birds and leaving them nine full games behind the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League.

Carl Hubbell, who had beaten the Cards on two previous occasions, scattered nine hits as he pitched the Giants to a 7-1 triumph in the opener, with the help of some lusty stick work by his boss, Mel Ott, but Mort Cooper shaded Hal Schumacher in a hurling duel to give the Cards the afterpiece 3-2.

Ott smashed his 15th and 16th home runs in the first game, the latter with the bases loaded, to help Hubbell hang up his fifth straight victory and his sixth of the year. The Giants collected only eight hits off three Card pitchers but they were enough. The only run off Hubbell was unearned.

Braves Split With Reds

At Boston, home-run wallops provided the decisive factors in both games of a doubleheader divided by Boston and Cincinnati, the Reds winnings the nightcap 4-2 after the Braves blanked them in the opener 7-0.

Max West's 11th homer, a first-inning clout with the bases loaded gave Boston more than eough runs to win the first game.

Boston seemed headed for a double victory, too, by leading Cincy 2-0 for six innings in the after piece. But Reds broke loose with home runs in the seventh. With one out, Eric Tipton hit a four-bagger and Eddie Joost's fifth homer of the season won the game.

Dodgers and Cubs Divide

At Brooklyn, the Dodgers and Chicago Cubs divided a doubleheader, the Dodgers opening the bargain bill with a 5-4 decision in 10 innings and the Cubs salvaging the final contest of their four-game set 7-6. The split kept the Dodgers nine games in front of the second-place St. Louis Cardinals.

Bucs Sweep Bill From Phils

At Philadelphia, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from the Phils, 4-2 and 3-2, to advance to fifth place in the National League.

A crowd of 7,794 saw Vince DiMaggio virtually win the second game single-handed with his 12th and 13th home runs of the year.

Saturday New York Giants gained an even break in a twin clash with St. Louis Cardinals. New York dropped the first 3-1 but took the 11-inning nightcap 5-4.

At Brooklyn, the Dodgers halted a ninth-inning rally by Chicago Cubs to win their contest 9-6 and Boston bunched three of their seven hits off Ray Starr in the tenth inning to gain a 2-1 victory over Cincinnati Reds at home.

At Philadelphia, a single by Merrill May with one out in the 12th gave the Phils a 2-1 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates.

Whirlaway Beaten in Arlington run

CHICAGO, Aug. 2—(AP)—An Irish-bred colt named Rounders stunned a crowd of 30,000 by defeating Whirlaway, turfdom's leading money winner, by 3 1-2 lengths in winning the $25,000 added Arlington Handicap Saturday.

The sloppy condition of the track and the top-weighted impost of 130 pounds were contributing factors in the crushing defeat of Whirly who won the 1941 Kentucky Derby. Rounders carried only 103 pounds.

The imported Rounders, owned by Emerson F. Woodward, Texas oil operator, with jockey F. A. Smith piloting him, pulled in front immediately after the start and led all the way.

Braves Defeat Aces 15-11

In the first game of the third division of the Knights of Columbus Softball League played yesterday the Braves defeated the Aces 15-11. The Aces blew up in the ninth inning to lose the game after playing steady ball in the first eight.

Next scheduled game will be played tonight at 6.30 when Tigers meet K. of C.

Steals show at Inter-service meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 2—(CP)—Don Norton, former Mount Allison University track ace now an aircraftman soon to go overseas with the R.C.A.F., stole the show at the Maritime inter-services track and field meet here yesterday, winning three events, the only ones in which he was entered.

Hailing from St. Stephen, N. B., and latterly of Alliston, Ont., Norton won the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the running broad jump, leading his Air Force team to a clear-cut victory over the army and navy units competing in the meet held in conjunction with the opening of the Navy League's $60,000 recreation centre on the old Wanderers Gorunds.

Four United Statets track and field stars—Ed. Greenidge and Charles Shaw, New York sprinters Gilbert Dodds Boston miler, and Richard Morcom, University of New Hampshire high jumper and pole-vaulter—failed to approach Canadian records which Navy League officials had said they would attempt to exceed in exhibitions.

But most of the events saw new Maritime service records established, though the only non-service Maritime marks to be bettered were in the pole vault and high jump, in exhibitions by Morcom.

A crowd of 6,000 witnessed the combined athletic meet and opening ceremony. Among them was Babe Ruth, who delighted the gathering with a brief speech and spent the rest of the afternoon scribbling his autograph on small boy's programs.

Bears score Twin victory Over Buffalo

MONTREAL, Aug. 2—(AP)—Newark Bears tightened their grip on first place in the International League today with two victories over Buffalo Bisons 7-1 and 7-4, before 4,000 spectators.

Hank Majeski accounted for seven Newark runs as he belted two homers and two singles in the doubleheader. The victories gave Bears four out of five in their series with the Bisons and dropped the home team to seventh place under Syracuse.

Chiefs Defeat Leafs Tice

At Syracuse, behind magnificent pitching by Ewell Blackwell and Nate Andrews, Syracuse Chiefs swept a doubleheader from Toronto, 4-1 and 2-0.

Blackwell held the Leafs to five hits in the opener and their only run resulted from a two-base hit by Wyrostek. In the nightcap Andrews hurled three-hit ball and didn't issue a pass.

Wings Divide With Giants

At Rochester, the Red Wings and Jersey City divided a doubleheader, the Wings winning the first game 8-6, and the Little Giants the nightcap 4-1.

Harry Davis hit a home run to give the International League tail enders their margin of victory in the first game. Ken Jungels held the Wings to six scattered hits in the afterpiece, while the Jerseys nicked Max Surkont for seven blows

Royals and Orioles Split

Montreal Royals muffled Baltimore Orioles with a 4-0 shutout in the opening game of an International League doubleheader here, but the visitors gained a split when they took the nightcap 6-1.

Bob Chipman tossed a four-hitter in the curtain raiser for Royals while Jos Krakauskas did a great job of mastering the Royals in the nightcap and would have chalked up a shutout but for a teammate's error.

Saturday Jersey City won both ends of a doubleheader against Royals, 7-4 and 4-2.

At Buffalo, the Bisons won a free-hitting contest 8-4 from the first place Newark Bears.

At Toronto, Syracuse Chiefs split a twin bill with the Maple Leafs, dropping the seven-inning nightcap 2-1 after blanking the Canadians 1-0 in the opener, while at Rochester, the Red Wings eked out a 6-5 win over Baltimore Orioles.

Indians move Into 2nd place Ahead of Boston

NEW YORK, Aug. 2—(AP)—Cleveland Indians jumped into second place in the American League today, four points ahead of Boston, as they swept a doubleheader from Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 and 4-2 on their home layout.

Jim Bagby held the A's to eight hits in the second contest to win his 12th victory against five defeats. But Pete Suder clouted a home run off him, duplicating his circuit feat in the first game off Al Milnar.

Tigers Maul Red Sox

At Detroit, the Tigers captured both ends of a doubleheader from the second-place Boston Red Sox, winning the opener 8-4 and taking the second game 6-2.

Yanks Topple Browns Twice

At St. Louis hitting doesn't necessarily provide runs the Browns found today as they dropped a doubleheader to New York Yankees 10-0 and 4-2.

The Brownies, leading the Yankees two games to one in their five-game series at the beginning of the double bill, collected 19 hits for a total of just two runs while New York was producing 14 runs off 22 hits.

Saturday St. Louis Browns winged New York Yankees 7-3 with the help of capable hurling by Steve Sundra, a former Yankee jobbie.

At Detroit Boston Red Sox took a 9-8 decision from the Tigers behind Mace Brown.

Other teams were not scheduled
