—MIMINIGASH RUN.—The port of Miminigash famous as a shipping depot in early days has kept pace with the "march of progress" in late years. The piers have been rebuilt and extended into deeper water. The channel has been deepened by dredging. Forty gasolene boats ply back and forth quickly from port to trawls and nets. Mackeral and cod are sent off at the present time. Four lobster packing establishments have been in operation during the season just finished. Among them the large plant of the Portland Packing Co., run by Angus Shea of Waterford. About 7,000 lobster traps were fished during the lobster season. Many residences and fishing plants are connected by telephone with all other lines on P.E.
Island. Five schooners are trading between this port and other gulf ports.
The schooners are captained respectively by Alex. Tremblay, John Romain Perry, Leon Pitre, Henry Perry and James Thibedeau.—K.

—RUNAWAY IN ALBERTON.—What might have been a serious accident occurred in Alberton on Thursday. A lady was driving up the street with a horse and carriage when an automobile appeared suddenly around a corner. The lady was so badly frightened that she jumped out of the waggon and ran away as fast as she could, leaving the team to the tender mercies of the occupants of the auto, one of whom alighted and patted the intelligent animal on the nose while another assisted in getting the unnerved lady to resume charge of her lovely steed.

WESTERN PERSONALS

—BAYSIDE SCHOOL.—The closing exercises of Bayside School took place on July 29th, 1917. There was an exceptionally large attendance. Among those present were Rev. F. L. Connolly, Mr. Alex. MacIntyre, B. A. Laval, and Mr. Urban Gillis, S.D.C.
Evergreen and "June's" happy blossoms" intermingled with the colors, so dear to every loyal British heart, showed the patriotic taste and tact of both teacher and pupils in making their last school day spent together a happy and lasting memory, in short all present realized that Art and Nature go hand in hand to make life a dream of beauty. The teacher, Miss Pauline Gillis, was assisted in the examination, by Mr. Alex. MacIntyre, B.
A. Miss Georgina Gillis, teacher of Northern School and Mr. Urban Gillis. To all enigmatic and practical questions in both technical work and current events, the pupils answered promptly and intelligently. A pleasing feature of the examination was an exhibition of the composition work, map and freehand drawing by the pupils. The singing of "Vacation Days" completed the unique programme. The "bona fide" concord, love and respect were clearly shown when little Miss Irene Morrison read to the teacher, in behalf of the pupils, an address, expressive of grate-tude and esteem, mingled with regret at her departure from Bayside School, in which she was ever faithful to the duties of her profession.
The address was accompanied by a fitting remembrance presented by Miss Gertrude McKinnon. Miss Gillis replied in feeling terms, thanking the pupils for their kind and generous gift, assuring both pupils and par-enters, that she would always treasure the most tender memories of two happy years, spent among the hospitable and prosperous residents of Bayside. Rev. F. L. Connolly gave an inspiring address followed by speeches given by Messrs. John Trainor, Frank Gillis and Alex. MacIntyre. All who spoke heartily congratulated the teacher and pupils on the fine quality of the work that has been done in this school for the past two years. The CHARITY AT HOME.

Young Ronald had been very mischievous, and his mother's patience was worn to the limit. She had spoken very nicely to him several times without effect. Finally she said, "You are a perfect little heathen!"
"Do you mean it?" asked Ronald.
"Indeed I do!" said the mother.
"Then, mother," said he, "why can't I keep that sixpence a week you give me for the Sunday school collection?
I'm as hard up as any of the other little heathens!"

M. NICHOLSON, M. P. SPEAKS ON MILITARY SERVICE BILL

years old and ran a campaign in St. John against his present leader, when he would not support Sir Charles Tupper, the leader of the Conservative party, in the elections of 1896. Now would he support the right hon. leader if the Opposition (Sir Wilfrid Laurier)—he wanted to become the leader of a party of his own. I wish that at some time he would explain to this House his reasons for that course. He now appears to have a great admiration for the right hon. gentleman. Judging from the speech of the hon. member for St. John, everything in connection with the war is being done wrong. You would imagine that the hon. member knew considerably more than General Haig or General Joffre, judging by the way he lectured the Government on their conduct of the war.

Much has been said about conscription of wealth and the imposition of an income tax. That is a serious problem that at an early date will have to be faced. Let me remind you that Canada today is practically on its own resources as to borrowing. We have large debts maturing, and these we shall be obliged to finance ourselves. Last year the revenue taken from the people was $230,000,000, almost $1,000,000 more than the usual amount. In addition to that during the last two years there has been a very large contribution of money by the people of Canada; about $500,000,000 has been invested in war bonds by Canadians. I fear that before long there will be a stringency in the money market. It is not wise to withdraw too much money from the people of Canada today. That is why it is not desirable at this time to devote too much money to the retirement of maturing debts.

When this war is over we will have increased taxes, and it will tax the ingenuity of the Finance Minister and Parliament to provide ways and means. I would suggest that an increase duty be placed on cigars, cigarettes and imported raw leaf tobacco, so as to encourage the growth of that style of leaf in this country. Twenty years ago the United States placed a duty of $1.85 on cigar wrappers. Now the best wrappers in the world are raised in Connecticut, owing to protection provided. The climate of some parts of Canada is well adapted to raising that kind of leaf. In fact, it has been demonstrated. There is another suggestion made by Mr. W. F. MacLean, of York, and, if the facts are as he alleges with regard to nickel product, a large revenue could be obtained by imposing an export duty on that commodity, which is indispensable for the manufacture of certain articles.

In conclusion, I would appeal to my friends from Quebec to hold another caucus and place their great leader in his proper place amongst the statesmen of the Empire, by withdrawing the amendment and supporting the Bill. Let us all go to our constituents as serious men facing a great emergency. If you do not do so you place your leader and yourself in a position of antagonism to the rest of Canada, yes, further, to the statesmen of the Empire, by withdrawing the amendment and supporting the Bill.
