THE contract for plumbing at St. Dunstan's College has been awarded to Messrs. Shaw & Baird, whose tender (the lowest) was $900.

RECEIVED at Falconwood papers, magazines and books from Miss Coles, Miss Cummings and Mr. J. A. Lawson of Charlottetown. Many thanks.

COMPANY inspection of the 82nd Bat. took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 Co's. were inspected by the D. O. C. Companies Nos. 5, 6, 7, and 8 were inspected in the afternoon.

CHARLOTTETOWN Engineers will meet for drill this evening at 7.30 sharp in uniform. As this will be the last drill at which the Sergeant Instructors will be present, every man is especially requested to be present.

AT Village Green Wednesday morning, a son of Mr. Thomas Curley was sitting in the horse stable door during the prevalence of the thunder storm. He was struck by lightning and rendered insensible for more than an hour.

AT Lake Verle Wednesday a barn belonging to Mr. James McAdams was destroyed by fire, the building having been struck by lightning. A threshing mill, a new cleaner and a self binder were also burned. Mr. McAdams' loss is a very heavy one.

REV. W. E. HALL of Halifax is in the city for a few days in the interest of Acadia College, forward movement fund. He will address the Baptist Young People's union this evening in the Baptist Church and will preach on Sunday morning next in the Baptist Church.

MISS ACORN, Miss Gay, Miss Smith, Miss Carver, and Mr. Balum of Pownal passed through Montague village yesterday coming from the Grand Lodge session, also Mr. Clay and Miss Matthews of Dundas. They report the Lodge had a splendid session.—Mr. Holbrook of Charlottetown representing the Ontario Mutual Insurance Co. is in the village.—Mr. Jas. T. McLeod representing North American Life Assurance Company is in the village.

REV. J. M. FISHER made farewell remarks to his congregations at Falmouth, and Mt. Denson on Sunday, June 25th, and at Lockhartville and Hantsport on Sunday last. There was a crowded church at Hantsport Sunday evening to hear the Rev. gentleman's last discourse. Mr. Fisher is a popular preacher and lecturer, and many friends wish him abundant success in his new field of labour, at Ritchey's Cove, Lun. Co., where he will next Sabbath enter upon an important charge. We understand he leaves today, 5th. Mrs. and Miss Fisher will leave later on. The Rev. E. England is the new pastor at Hantsport.—Hant's Journal.
