David Watson, Mrs. Watson and Master Morris, St John, who have been spending a week, guests at the Manse, Marshfield, leave this morning on return. They greatly enjoyed their visit especially Mrs. Watson who is making her first visit to this Province.

There was picked up on Annandale Shore on Monday, the 26th of Sept by R. R. Howlett, Annandale Mills, a flask bottle with note inside with the following written on it with lead pencil: "All expect to meet a watery grave. Howard Poole." Mr. Poole was one of the crew of the ill fated schooner Helychon that was lost on Brown's Cape with all on board in the fall of 1908. Any one who calls to see the note should do so by calling at R. R. Howlett's, Annandale Mills, Lot 56.

The hospitable home of John A. MacQueen, Orwell, was the scene of a happy event, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 27th, when his daughter, Matilda Brown was united in marriage to Walter D. Ross, one of the popular and progressive young men of Kinross. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. B. McLeod, in the presence of a few immediate friends. The bride, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in a handsome gown of grey silk. After a dainty supper had been served the happy couple drove to Brush Wharf and took the steamer Harland for Charlottetown. They crossed to Pictou Wednesday, and on returning from a trip to Halifax and other places of interest Mr and Mrs Ross will reside in their handsome dwelling on the old homestead near Kinross.

The Guardian's representative visited Keith's and Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, for the week of Sept. 12th and thoroughly enjoyed the very exceptional bill offered. Variety and change was the order of the day and not a dull moment passed from beginning to end. A stirring overture brought on the Wood Brothers the famous Irish Athletes on their double flying rings and they were followed by a trio of merry makers, Brown, Harris, Brown in a witty act entitled "Just to Laugh." A satire on Bernard Shaw's Caesar and Cleopatra, "When Caesar C's her" was immensely amusing and produced rounds of laughter such as only a pleased audience gives. The program ran smoothly on with such favorites as Della Fox, presenting a nifty little character singing number, and Ed P. Reynard, and company in a charming rural comedy entitled "A Morning in Hicksville." Vandeville was ably presented and a bright and happy time was spent during its production. Rose Pitonof, the famous female swimmer mystified all with her diving and swimming and her act was followed by Keith & Proctor's famous pictures and a splendid orchestral selection brought a fine entertainment to a close.

Tomorrow will be rally day for the Central Christian Church, for the church and Sunday School, and all the members and friends are invited to attend all the services. In the evening Rev. J. F. Floyd will preach for the young people on the subject, "The Model Young Man."

On Sunday last a high cross was erected on a high hill commanding a full view of the harbor at House Harbor, Magdalen Islands. The occasion was one of great solemnity and devotion by the entire population, fully five hundred people forming in procession and marching to the high promontory, where an eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. J. S. Turbid, who took for his text, "Behold the Cross, on which was made the salvation of the world." Before the sermon the multitude gathered on the Round Hill which gradually slopes upwards from the Valley of Low Point until it attained a height of over five hundred feet. Here several hymns were sung in which all the people took part, when the Rev. Father Turbid personally placed in position the immense cross which will in future be as a beacon to the Holy Mariner, and which can be seen for many miles distant as the ships approach the little harbor. The Round Hill will hereafter be known as the Mount of Calvary of the Magdalenes, and will be the future spot for gatherings and a meeting place for religious events by the people of the place.—Bx.
