Inquest Into Seaman's Death Is Re-opened

MONTREAL Sept. 7.—(CP)—Inquest into the death of 29-year-old Victor Thurman, re-opened at the request of police, was adjourned today by joint coroner Pierre Hebert until Sept. 14, after testimony was heard from two friends of Thurman.

Uncovering new evidence, police requested the inquest be re-opened several days ago after a verdict of accidental death had been returned. Thurman, a British seaman, was drowned in a fall into Montreal harbor.

First witness today was Angus Mackenzie, of Glasgow, who testified that he and a companion, Andrew Dwyer, of Sydney, N.S., saw Thurman mount the gangplank of a vessel and attempt to strike an officer. Mackenzie said the officer shoved Thurman, who lost his balance and fell overboard.

Mackenzie's testimony was corroborated by Dwyer.

Three Old French Leaders Are Arrested

RIOM, France Sept. 8.—(AP) — Three deposed leaders of old France, former Premiers Edouard Daladier and Paul Reynaud, and the former commander of the Allied forces Gen. Marie-Gustave Gamelin, have been taken into custody, under a decree, it was disclosed today, promulgated by Daladier when he was in power.

The three former leaders are being held in strict "administrative internment" at Chateau Chazeron, a feudal stronghold near Chateleuyon, five miles from this seat of the war guilt trials.

Their detention was ordered under authority of a decree law drawn up by Daladier after war broke out Sept. 3, 1939, providing for internment of persons considered dangerous to the national defence and public security.

The Supreme Court is conducting an investigation of those responsible for France's unpreparedness and entry into the war and on the results of its findings will depend the charges and eventual trials.

The only persons against whom definite charges have been placed are former air ministers Pierre Cot and Guy La Chambre who are in the United States.

The former Interior Minister, Georges Mandel, accused of plotting against the security of the State, faces charges before a military tribunal and it is believed he might also be brought before the Riom court which is investigating the "war guilt" of France's former leaders. He is in custody at Mekins.

Jean Zay former Minister of the Interior, is being tried on a purely military charge of desertion.

Canadian Naval Men Are Praised

HALIFAX, Sept. 8—(CP)—Personnel of the four Canadian destroyers working with the Royal Navy in European waters has been commended for "gallantry and efficiency," Canada's Naval Minister, Hon. Angus L. Macdonald, said upon his arrival here tonight for an inspection of the Atlantic command of the Royal Canadian Navy.

"High British authorities" have told the Canadian Government they were more than pleased with the conduct of the Canadian officers and men.

Referring to the transfer of the American destroyers to the British allies, he said it was a "wonderful thing" that these ships would be available to the Royal Navy to assist in the fight against Hitler. "They will be going to England soon, of course," he added.

Canada's senior naval officer, Rear-Admiral Nelles, was also in the Atlantic area to inspect the navy's facilities. Mr. Macdonald said. His visit here will last "perhaps two days."

NEWFOUNDLANDERS MISSING

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Sept. 8—(CP)—Nine Newfoundlanders who volunteered for service with the Royal Navy early in the war have been listed as missing. Six are from this capital.

Squadron Leader Pleased With U.S. Destroyers

By JOHN LeBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

AN EAST COAST CANADIAN PORT, Sept. 8.—(CP)— The Stars and Stripes still flew today from a group of United States destroyers awaiting transfer here to the British Navy, but the change in ownership was expected to be made officially early this week.

British and United States seamen worked feverishly over the week-end to get the "over-age" craft ready for war service, and navy men said they would be prepared in just a few days to swell the ranks of the Royal Navy in hunting submarines and convoy duty, just as though some of them had not been out of commission for years.

Canadian and British navy officers expressed amazement and pleasure at the fine condition in which the ships were delivered, despite the fact they sailed for this port just a few hours after President Roosevelt announced the United States was trading them for naval and air base sites in the West Indies.

"They are magnificent," Rear Admiral Stuart Bonnam-Carter, officer commanding the 3rd battle squadren of the Royal Navy, told newspapermen Saturday. The admiral declared they would fit into the British Navy with very few alterations, and those only of a minor nature.

"They are almost identical with some of our own ships," he declared, terming them "very useful" vessels. He visited one of the destroyers after their arrival here on Friday and said he found it in first-rate condition. Machinery and armament had been kept in running condition during the ship's layup, all protected against deterination under heavy layers of grease.

"Even the decks were so clean you could sit down and eat off them," the Admiral said.

He declared the ships likely would be put to work mainly in submarine hunting, to help keep open the trade routes to and from Britain. Their arrival would release other more powerful craft for actual combat work.

Admiral Bonham-Carter was asked if he believed Britain would make any of the ships available for the Royal Canadian Navy. He replied he believed the British government would do this if Canada wanted one or more of the vessels, but pointed out the British and Canadian navies were so closely integrated now that such a transfer would make no difference one way or another in the actual usefulness of the vessels.

"We work so closely that we're just like one navy," he said

In Memoriam

MRS. LESLIE J. WILLIAMS

It was with deep regret that home friends learned of the death of Mrs. Leslie J. Williams, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen T. Doyle, 24 Highland Avenue, Everett, Mass., on Aug. 31st.

Mrs. Williams, who spent almost her entire life in Charlottetown, was formerly Catherine E. Eckstadt, a daughter of J. G. Eckstadt and Elizabeth Eckstadt of Cologne, Germany in which country Mrs. Williams was born on October 24, 1852 and came to Canada when four years of age. Mrs Williams was a highly educated lady, a graduate of Notre Dame Academy and the first border at the Convent in Charlottetown. She was also a brilliant musician and will be remembered by older citizens as a valued member of the late Prof. H. W. Vinnicombe's orchestra for many years. The deceased resided on Douglas Street, Charlottetown until 1920 when she went to Everett, Mass. to make her home with her daughter, Katherine and enjoyed excellent health for many years, dying suddenly after only three days of illness.

Mrs. Williams visited her old home here quite often and only a year ago motored to Charlottetown to renew many friendships and had a delightful visit. She leaves to mourn a devoted and loving daughter, Mrs. Stephen T. Doyle and two grandchildren, Lorne E. Doyle and Mrs. H. P. Ward.

The funeral from her home was largely attended and many exquisite floral tributes and Spiritual bouquets spoken silently of the love and esteem in which she was held.

A High Mass of Requiem was sung at the Immaculate Conception Church of Everett, and interment was at Holy Cross cemetery, Malden, Mass.

The sympathy of many friends will go out to Mrs. Doyle in the death of her mother with whom she was such a close companion during her lifetime.

Heavy Rainfall During Week End

This province was swept with a heavy rain storm over the week-end bringing a total precipitation of more than three inches. It was accompanied by a stiff breeze.

Other parts of the province reported about the same conditions. Heaviest rain was Saturday night and early yesterday. Yesterday afternoon it petered out to a heavy mist, which was continuing last night.

The rainfall in a 24-hour period since Saturday afternoon was more than twice the amount which fell for the month of August, it was learned from Warren A. Burns, weather observer at the Charlottetown Experimental Station.

Prince Edward Islanders were warned to prepare for a wet fall several weeks ago when weather observers checking the rainfall for the year found it below average. At the end of August it was barely 24 inches, slightly below that for the same date in 1939, which in turn was another below average year at that time. The province has approximately 42 inches of precipitation annually, records indicate.

Uncut grain fields would be battered yesterday and heavy grain broken down to some extent making it difficult to harvest, farmers said. More than 50 per cent. of the grain in the province has been cut, but the bulk is still in the fields.

Potato crops might benefit by the rain as growth was slowed greatly by the lack of moisture in August and the first week of this month.

Turnips were expected to make a rapid growth with the added moisture.

Funeral Services For Rev. Dr. Thomas Curran

The body of the late Rev. Dr. Thomas Curran was conveyed from Frank Hennessey's undertaking rooms Saturday forenoon to St Dunstan's Basilica where High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. Gavin Monaghan (nephew of the deceased) with Rev. R. Ellsworth as Deacon and Rev. W. McCardle, Sub Deacon and Rev. Eric Robin, Master of Ceremonies.

Seated in the Sanctuary was His Excellency, the Bishop of Charlottetown assisted by Rev. Dr. Callaghan and Rev. J. B. Croken. There were also in the Sanctuary Right Rev. Mons. Macdonald, Rev. P. MacMahon, D. D., Rev. G. Macdonald, Rev. G. McCormack, Rev. J. Sullivan, Rev. C. Pitre, Rev. M. Herrill, Rev. F. MacQuaid, Rev. M Rooney, Rev. F. Mullaly, Rev. W.E Macdonald, Rev. J. Gaudet, Rev. W. McCabe, Rev. F. Connolly, Rev. R Baote, Rev. J. P. Hogan, Rev. R MacKenzie, Rev. D. MacNeill, Rev. R. Malone, Rev. Louis Dougan, Rev Earl Dalton, Reverend Fathers McKenna and Loftus, C. SS. R.

Rev. B. Gillis, D. D., assisted in the choir.

After the service Saturday the body was removed to the Sacred Heart Home where it remained until 3 p. m. yesterday when it was taken to St. Cuthbert's Church, St Theresa's, Dr. Curran's native parish.

The pallbearers Saturday were His Honor Judge C. G. Duffy, Dr. J. D. McGuigan, Professor J. H. Blanchard; John F. Leichtizer, Anthony Haughey and John A. Griffith. Members of the Knight's of Columbus were present in a body.

The same pallbearers were in attendance yesterday at the funeral to St. Theresa's.

This morning at 10 a. m. Pontifical High Mass will be sung in St. Cuthbert's Church after which Dr. Curran will be laid to rest beside his brother, Rev. Father Peter Curran in the St. Theresa's Cemetery.

United Church Presbytery

The Prince Edward Island Presbytery of the United Church of Canada held its August meeting in Trinity United Church, Summerside. There was a large number of ministers and laymen present.

The new chairman is Rev. W. A. Patterson. He was welcomed and installed by a former chairman Rev. E. R. Woodside. Welcomes were extended to several visitors: Rev. Austin Jardine, Rev. Thomas Mitchel, Rev. A. D. Stirling and Mr. Carl Colsholm. Rev. A. D. Stirling is supplying at Kensington, and Mr. Chisholm is assisting Rev. D. J. Morrison on the Hampton charge.

Considerable business was transacted by the presbytery. Perhaps the most interesting item was that concerning the School of Theology. It was reported that this School would be held in Heartz Memorial Hall, Charlottetown during the week commencing Sept. 29. The lecturers will be the members of the faculty of Pine Hill Divinity Hall, Halifax. Presbytery was informed that ministers and interested friends of other denominations would be welcomed at the sessions. The visiting professors will preach at different points throughout the Island on Sunday, September 29.

Rev. E. R. Woodside presented the report of the Young People's Camp held at Marshfield and sponsored by the Baptist and United Churches. The report made it quite clear that this type of camp was a fine success.

Three young men appeared before the Committee on Education and Students. Presbytery was thankful and proud to have these able young men present themselves for training for the ministry. The three are Henry Clark and Earl Leard of Alberton and Howard Christie of Lot 16.

Rev. Ernest Miller presented the report of the Committee on Religious Education. He announced that institutes for Sunday School workers would be held in Charlottetown on Sept. 18, and in Summerside on Sept. 19.

Special Services In City Churches

Special prayers of intercession were offered at all the churches in the city yesterday in connection with the National day of prayer. Yesterday being the first Sunday following the date that war was declared one year ago it was set aside by King George VI as a special day of prayer for peace.

ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA

At St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning prayers for the peace of the world were said at all Masses. At the 11 o'clock High Mass Rev. R. Ellsworth, D. D., was the celebrant. The sermon was preached by Rev. Louis A. Dougan. The Men's Choir under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown was in attendance. Mrs. Joseph Dougan was the organist. Special services in connection with the national day of prayer and intercession were held in the evening. The Way of the Cross was followed by Benediction which was celebrated by Rev. Dr. McMahon. The Corpus Christi choir and the Boy's Chancel Choir assisted the Men's Choir at these special services.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B.D., returning from his vacation, occupied his pulpit yesterday morning and evening. Mr. Denton's morning sermon was "God and A Day of Prayer." Basing his thought on the first three verses of the Old Testament, Mr. Denton made reference to the call of our King to a day of prayer, an evidence of the high spiritual outlook of the head of the realm and his advisors. It is an evidence of faith in God, it is an opportunity to place our cause before God, it is a time to align ourselves with God's purposes. The three convictions regarding God that are so finely set forth in the passage referred to bring before us the thoughts that God is, that God Moves, that God Saves. And even as in the day of creation God looks upon the waste and darness of the world and says, "Let There Be Light".

Mrs. T. Roy Cudmore sang with sweet expression O My Soul, Bless Thou Jehovah.

At the evening service Mr. Denton took as the theme of his sermon The Christian Vocation. Miss Delys Owen sang understandingly Brown's O Lord Attend Unto My Cry. The Church School resumed afternoon sessions opening at 2:30 p. m.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

At the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer a Solemn High Mass was held yesterday morning. The celebrant was Rev. A. Loftus, C. S.S R. assisted by Rev. Archibald MacDonald, C. SS. R. as Deacon and Rev. Richard Baines, C.SS.R. as Sub-Deacon. Prayers for peace were offered as well as at the service in the evening which closed the Forty Hours Devotion. At the evening service Benediction was celebrated by Rev. Archibald MacDonald, C.SS.R. assisted by Rev. A. Loftus, C.SS.R., as Deacon and Rev. Richard Baines, C.SS.R., as Sub-Deacon. The procession of the Blassed Sacrament brought the Forty Hours Devotion, which opened Friday, to a close. The Holy Redeemer Choir under the direction of Mr. Alfred Doucette was in attendance. Mr. Alex MacLean was the organist.

TIP FOR WAR SHARPS

PRATT, Kas. — (CP) — Talking of camouflage, a gardener here wanting to conceal his backyard melon patch, simply let the weeds and grass grow tall around it.

ST. JAMES CHURCH

The services at St. James Church yesterday were conducted by Mr. J. O. Denny. In the morning, the preacher interpreted the text, "Be ye perfect even as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect," pointing out the terrific pull and the subsequent tension caused by the tug of perfection against imperfection, a tension which could only be resolved through Grace. In the evening, the subject was, "Carrying Through." Mrs. Frances Holl-Trainor sang a solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord," at the morning service of worship. Mrs. J. A. Lawson completed the evening music with a solo, "The Song of the Netherlands."

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Hugh Miller, who has been on vacation for the past few weeks was back in his pulpit on Sunday and delivered the sermon at both morning and evening services. In the morning the text was, Hebrews 2; 8-9—"But now we see not yet all things put under him, but we see Jesus." In this address the minister showed how Jesus was the great authority upon all of the world's moral and spiritual problems.

The evening worship centred in the theme, the Balm in Gilead. In this address the speaker pointed to some of the "sicknesses" of the church and of civilization in the world and to their certain remedy in the truth of Jesus Christ.

The musical part of the worship was led by the choir under the capable direction of Mr. A. Roy Kendall. Miss Berna Huestis sang French's splendid composition "O Lord, Most Holy" with exceptionally fine effect. In the evening the choir gave a splendid rendition of the well-known anthem "O God Who Hast Prepared."

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The morning service at St. Paul's Church was held yesterday at 11 o'clock by Rev. Canon E. M. Malone and was one that was prescribed by the Diocesan Church Society as a carry on movement of the centenary celebration. The subject of the sermon was, "The Church and the Church of England in Canada." At the service special intercessions were offered for the cause for which the Empire is at war.

The choir was under the direction of Mr. Albert Dinnis with Miss Lillian Earle at the organ. A special anthem was sung to an old French tune by Mr. Dinnis.

In the evening the service was taken by Rev. J. T. Payne, Rector of Georgetown. This also was a service of intercession and a sermon suitable to the occasion was preached.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL

At St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday a service was held at 8 a. m. by Rev. Canon E. M. Malone. At 11 o'clock the special preacher was Rev. J. T. Payne of Georgetown who preached on the subject, "The Church as the Body of Christ." The service was fully choral and special intercessions were offered for our country and the Empire in this time of war.

The Choral Eucharistic was rendered to the music of Marbecke

The evening service was conducted by Canon Malone who preached a sermon on prayer and a special litany of intercession was used in which prayers were made for God's protection of us at this time and for a blessing on our country and Empire.

The evening service was also fully choral, psalms and canticles being sung to plain song tunes. Mrs. John Reay was at the organ.
