Rev. John Murray of Clifton preached a very eloquent and impressive sermon to a large congregation of people in the Geddie Memorial church on Sunday evening last. It is regrettable that there are not more preachers of Mr. Murray's calibre, who does not seem to have the impression that his hearers will be satisfied with a little Sunday School talk in place of a thoughtful and earnest sermon.—Com.

Never before in their history have the Mount Allison Institutions, Sacred Circle, opened under such favorable circumstances. The Ladies' College is filled to overflowing. Every available nook and corner is being occupied and the need for increased accommodation is forced upon the institution this year as never before. About eighty new students have joined the ranks this fall and these with the old students, who have returned, make one hundred and seventy-five in residence. Charlottetown has sent this year ten young ladies and of these five are there for the first time, the Misses Beattie Beer, Helen Hughes, Helen Wakeford, Charlottetown, Ruth Toombs, Mt. Stewart, and Ruby McDonald, Summerside. Several changes have been made in the Faculty. Miss Beatrice Fraser, Truro, has been appointed to the position of teacher of piano, held last year by Miss Alice McElderry. Miss Mary L. Smith, B. A. succeeds Miss Hemming in vocal culture. Miss Sarah Stewart, of Ottawa, has been appointed to the position on the staff of the Owens' Museum of Fine Arts made vacant by the resignation of Miss Harris, while Miss Hazel Hughes of Charlottetown, succeeds Miss Gertrude Evans on the literary staff. The annual reception given by the Young Men and Young Women's Christian Association was held recently at the Ladies' College. Welcome addresses were given by Miss Mary Porter, Windsor, and E. E. Graham, the presidents of these societies. During the evening the following program was carried out: Piano Solo, Scherzo, Miss Jessie Allen; Address of Welcome, Miss Mary Porter, E. E. Graham; Vocal Solo, Mignonette d'Harde; I know a lovely Garden, Miss Edna Baker; Violin Solo, There let me rest, Greene, W. Roy Smith, B. A.
