—SAD NEWS RECEIVED — Mr. Lloyd Spears of Summerside has received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Walter Swaine which occurred recently at Canso, N. S.—S

DIES SUDDENLY AT MURRAY HARBOR—Mr. David P. Murdock died suddenly at his home at Murray Harbor early yesterday morning. He was stricken suddenly ill at his home Saturday evening after he had driven by motor from Charlottetown. The late Mr. Murdock was well known in business circles in the Province. He was employed with the Charlottetown firm, Fennell and Chandler. The funeral will be held today.

At a meeting held on Saturday evening in Mr. Hemming's office, 88 Great George Street, Charlottetown, a number of strawberry growers formed themselves into a syndicate, each member pledging himself to supply from the forthcoming crop a given quantity of strawberries, which after processing will be shipped to Great Britain in sulphur dioxide packed in oak barrels, to be sold to the jam manufacturers of the Mother Country.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Music Club, which was held Saturday afternoon at the Canadian National Hotel, the following slate of officers was elected. Honorary President, Mrs. George D. DeBlois; President, Mrs. A. B. Cosh; Past President, Mrs. H. S. Henderson; Vice President, Mrs. James MacMillan; Secretary, Mrs. Keith S. Rogers; Treasurer, Mrs. Leigh Dingwell.

Miss Margaret Sterns, Miss Vera M. Campbell and Miss Gwynneth Fry were named as the Program Committee and Miss Jacqueline Macdonald and Mrs. Arthur Roper as the Membership Committee.

Fire believed to have started from a defective flue completely destroyed the home of Elmer Jordan at Murray River. Loss was estimated at $500 with some insurance.

Mr. Jordan was operating a fishing boat at Pictou Island at the time of the fire. Mrs. Jordan and a little daughter, who were visiting friends, arrived home to find the entire second floor in flames.

An alarm was sounded and neighbors quickly gathered but the flames spread rapidly and nothing could be saved from the burning building.

Mrs. Jordan, accompanied by her daughter, is at present residing with her parents in an adjoining village.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police last night were investigating the theft of 15 silver fox pups valued at $550, from the ranch of Mr. A. H. Roper on the Mt. Edward Road, a short distance from the city limits sometime Saturday night.

The foxes were fed early Saturday evening. Early yesterday Mr. Roper discovered the theft when he went to the ranch to feed them again. The 15 pups were from four to six weeks old.

Police said they were hampered by the lack of clues. Mr. and Mrs. Roper were absent from the ranch from 8 p. m. until 11 p. m. Saturday night while neighbors said they heard no disturbance from two wolf hounds on the premises.

The ranch guard fence door, which had been locked, was apparently not opened by the thieves, police said. Marks at one end of the ranch would indicate they had climbed over the guard fence.

Mrs. D. O'M. Reddin, 77, formerly of Charlottetown died in Montreal Saturday after a short illness. She came to Montreal about a month ago from Texas where for the past two years she had been residing with her son, Edwin Reddin.

Mrs. Reddin was before her marriage Miss Eliza Lilly Younghusband. She was born in Chatham, Ontario. Her husband was the late Dennis O'Meara Reddin, for many years partner in the firm of Reddin Bros., Charlottetown. Mrs. Reddin resided here until the death of her husband in 1927. Since then she had been residing in the United States. She visited here last four years ago.

Surviving are two sons: Edwin Reddin of Port Isobel, Texas; and Ivan Y. Reddin of Charlottetown.

The body is being sent to Charlottetown for burial and will arrive Tuesday night by the Borden train. Funeral services will be held from her former residence 92 Brighton Road, at 9.10 a. m. Wednesday.

Rev. Quinck A. McDowell, M. A., pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Sydney Mines, Nova Scotia, was special speaker during the 77th anniversary services of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, yesterday.

Last night in a powerful and inspiring sermon, based on the 21st chapter of the Gospel of St. John the 15th verse, the speaker made an appeal for the congregation to re-consecrate themselves to the King of Kings. Christ had called all to become His servants yet many lived for self alone. That did not mean that men and women should give up their present occupation to become ministers and missionaries but they should work at the task of soul winning while going about their usual daily tasks, the speaker stressed.

Special music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Prof. L. D. Thompson, choir-master and organist. Mrs. A. H. Roper was heard in a soprano solo during the morning service and Mr. Harry Craswell in a tenor solo at the evening service.

Rev. Mr. McDowell was formerly the pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Caledonia, P. E. I.

—DIED SATURDAY — There passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Saturday nigh , Miss Veronica Peters at the early age of 18 years. She was the daughter of Mr. Leo Peters of Rustico. The funeral will be held this morning from Compton's Funeral Home to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery.

Mrs. W. H. Johnson was elected president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the annual meeting held in Heartz Hall, Monday, May 10th.

Other officers are 1st Vice President Mrs. D. McAusland, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. G. Godkin, Secretary, Mrs. L. Wright, Treasurer, Mrs. (Rev.) Thompson.

Miss Ray Gillespie was re-elected director of Sunday School Temperance work assisted by a committee representing the different Sunday Schools in the city.

The death occurred last evening at Summerside of Mr. Aretas C. Muttart at the advanced age of 87 years after a short illness. Mr. Muttart had resided in Cascumpec up to about 30 years ago when he came to live in Summerside. He was well known in west Prince and Summerside and friends will regret to learn of his passing.

There are left to mourn two sons Mr. H. G. Muttart, and Mr. Geo. M. Muttart of the firm of Sinclair and Stewarts and three daughters, Mrs. Frank Gamble, Linkletter and Mrs. Warren Lord, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Mattie Gordon with whom he lived also one sister Miss Lavinia Muttart who lived with him to whom sympathy is extended.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon. There will be a short service at the house at 11.30 and then the body will be taken to Cascumpec where the service will be held in the United Church.—S —SAD BEREAVEMENT — Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Philibert Arsenault of Miscouche in the death of their daughter, Julia, who passed away in the City Hospital, Charlottetown, on Tuesday after an illness of about two months. Julia would have been 16 years had she lived until Saturday. She was an affectionate lovable daughter and a bright student. She was in the eighth grade at Miscouche Convent and was working hard so that she could enter the senior class next year. She was a general favorite and will be missed in the home and at school. She was a member of the Children of Mary and received the last Sacrament before she died. Besides her parents several brothers and sisters are left to mourn. The funeral was held on Saturday morning from St. John the Baptist Church. Rev. Martin Monaghan celebrated the Requiem Mass. The pall bearers were Messrs. Joseph Arsenault, Hilary DesRoches, Perley MacNeill, Theodore Gallant and Telmon Cormier.—S

GILLAN — CRONIN — A pretty May wedding took place at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer Wednesday, May 12th, when Mary Catherine Gillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gillan became the bride of W. Reginald Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cronin of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Baines, C.SS.R. who also had the Nuptial Mass. The bride, who looked very charming, wore plain navy blue dress and coat with accessories to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sadie Gillan, who also wore plain navy blue and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses. Mr. Frank Cronin, brother of the groom, was best man. During the ceremony Miss Florence Mallett sang very sweetly Oh Heart of Mary Pure and Fair. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father to forty relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The presents, which were numerous and costly, show the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Cronin left by motor on a short honeymoon trip. On their return they will reside at their pretty new home on Water Street.

"In the midst of life we are in death", was very vividly brought to our minds when word was received on April 26th that William Foley had passed away very suddenly in Prince County Hospital where four weeks before he had been taken for treatment. Born in Kildare P. E. I. May 26th 1917 he was the only child of William Foley and the late Lavina Foley, Edmonton Alta. Bill as he was familiarly known won the hearts of old and young by his thoughtful and friendly manner and will be sadly missed in the community in which he lived. As a duty towards his lonely father he journeyed West in 1934, planning to remain, but the following year returned home to his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. James O'Rourke who had carefully and lovingly cared for him from infancy. While returning home after spending six weeks in New Brunswick, he was stricken with "Flu" from which he never recovered. During his sickness he was frequently visited by Rev. Father Murray who was also at his bedside when he passed away. The funeral was held from his home Wednesday morning to Sacred Heart Church, Alberton where Requium High Mass was sung by his Pastor Rev. Father Campbell who also performed the service at the grave, where all that was mortal of a young life was laid to rest, beside his mother who predeceased him twenty years ago.

Pall bearers were Messrs Joseph and Raymond Foley, Everett and Lorne Cahill, Carl Wade and Peter Whelan.

Rev. Sister Anna Marie, Superior of St. Vincent's Orphanage, Charlottetown was an aunt; and Rev. Father John Foley, St. Paul Minn. U. S. was an uncle of deceased.

Many Mass offerings and expressions of sympathy were received.

The funeral services for the late Mrs. J. E. Wyatt were held on Saturday afternoon when many relatives and friends came to pay a last tribute of love and respect to a dear friend and neighbor.

There was a short service at the home of her nephew, Mr. A. R. Brennan, followed by a service at St. Mary's Church, Ven. Archdeacon C. DeW. White officiating at both services. Among those attending the services were Mr. Charles Read of Coleman, an uncle of Mrs. Wyatt and Mr. S. MacLeod of Charlottetown.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Heath Strong, K. C., John C. Jack, Wilfred J. Lecky, Austin Scales, John Lefurgey and G. M. Muttart. Burial was in the family plot in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—PRETTY WEDDING—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity Parsonage at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning when Miss L. Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bentley of Summerside was united in marriage to Mr. James A. MacArthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacArthur of Ives Point, Miscouche. Rev. L. E. G. Davies was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Lloyd MacArthur, brother of the groom, and Miss Lottie MacCallum attended the young couple. The bride was very lovely in a wedding dress of blue with yellow accessories. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur left on a short honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Summerside where their many friends wish them every happiness.

Many friends will learn with sincere regret of the passing of Miss Jessie W. Strong, whose death occurred at the Prince County Hospital on Sunday morning.

Miss Strong was born at Summerside and was the daughter of the late Charles W. Strong and Martha Wright. She was a graduate of Mount Allison Ladies' College and was organist of the Methodist Church and afterward of the United Church for over forty years, always in her place at the organ until her last illness a few weeks ago. Miss Strong had a beautiful Christian character and had devoted her whole life to her church and her music. She was active too in other branches of church work and was a life member of the W. M. S. of Trinity Church. Her work in the church will be an example and inspiration to those who will take her place.

Only near relatives to cherish her memory are her nephew, Allan B. Strong of Montreal, who came to see her only last week and her sister-in-law Mrs. A. W. Strong, whose husband died about 12 years ago also of Montreal, besides a number of cousins in Summerside and the United States.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday from her late home on Belmont Street to Trinity United Church leaving the house at 2 p. m.—S.

TUESDAY

Friends in this city will regret to learn of the passing in Newton Centre, on May 11th of John McPherson, an old and highly respected retired C. N. R. employee, who for many years was a valued employee in the Charlottetown shops.

The deceased who had almost reached the four score and ten year mark, was a son of a former C. N. R. trackmaster. He came to this city from Moncton in 1867 and after serving for a number of years here, retired in February, 1916.

A short time after he, with his wife, left this province to reside with a daughter in Newton Centre.

A very beautiful wedding was quietly solemnized at 7:30 Wednesday evening, May 12th., at the home of Mr and Mrs. Robert A. Yeo, Birch Hill, when Daisy Ethelwyn Yeo became the bride of Robert Thomas Dobie.

The Reverend A. H. Hart-Davies as the officiating clergyman stood with the bridal couple under a dainty decorated arch in a background of flowering plants.

The service took the form of a double-ring ceremony, and the brideal music was rendered by Mrs. A. H. Hart-Davies.

The bride was exceptionally lovely in a floor-length silk organdie dress with puffed sleeves, tiny waist buttons and large appliqued daisies. She wore a coronet of michaelmas daisies around her dark hair, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty and white roses.

The numerous gifts to the bride and groom were tokens of their many friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yeo were host and hostess to their guests at a delightful supper following the marriage of their daughter. Mrs. Yeo entertained in a flowered chiffon dress with grey accessories.

Prince Edward Island bids adieu today to two highly esteemed pioneer citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Angus N. MacLeod, formerly of Brookfield, who leave, accompanied by their daughter Mrs. Neil Simpson, for Vancouver, B. C., where Mrs. Simpson resides. They plan making their home there, where they are aready well acquainted, Mr. MacLeod having made three previous trips, and Mrs. MacLeod four, to the Pacific Coast.

Eighty-eight years of age last April, Mr. MacLeod is hale and hearty, with a mind as keen and retentive as in earlier years. Mrs. MacLeod, who has passed her eightieth birthday last January, is in more delicate health, which it is hoped the change of climate will do much to improve.

Born at Springfield, Mr. MacLeod recalls the early days when even carts were regarded as a luxury and people walked to and from Charlottetown, carrying produce and purchases on their backs. He recalls the first carriage on the road in his community, which ran on two wheels and attracted as much admiration and attention as the first stream-lined motor cars did a few years ago. Of all the changes which tave taken place during his long life, transportation improvements have impressed Mr. MacLeod most vividly.

The many friends throughout the the Province, of William Francis Stevenson, a well known and highly respected resident of Pleasant Valley P. E. Island, will regret to hear of his recent passing away at his home, on Tuesday afternoon May 4th, 1937 at the age of 75 years.

Deceased was a prosperous farmer, and continued to take an active interest in farm affairs up to his last illness.

Her many friends were deeply saddened on the morning of April 26th, to learn of the death at her home 4 Brighton Road Charlottetown of Mrs. Velma Cox widow of the late Bannerman C. Cox. In delicate health for several years past she contracted influenza about a week before her death and despite the most tender nursing and expert medical care, her strength proved inadequate to withstand such an acute illness and she passed peacefully away about 9 A. M. on the morning of the date previously mentioned.

CARRAGHER — MARTIN — A quiet wedding took place at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer on Monday, May 3rd, when Margaret R. Carragher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carragher, was united in marriage to Mr. James L. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin of this city. The Nuptial Mass and marriage ceremony were performed by Rev. James A. Murphy, D. D., who is a cousin of the bride. The bride, who looked young and charming, wore a light grey suit with blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Florence Carragher, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing navy blue with grey accessories and a corsage bouquet of carnations, Mr. Ivan Martin, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Alfred Doucette presided at the organ, while two appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Moran. Later a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to a number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. A toast was proposed to the young couple by Rev. James A. Murphy, who also spoke briefly, giving the bride and groom some sound advice. Mr. and Mrs. Martin then left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York, the bride travelling in a brown swagger suit with accessories to match. The numerous and valuable presents which they received testify to the esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

WEDNESDAY

Regret mingled with the festivities held in Dalton High School, Tignish, on Friday evening, May 14th, on the occasion of a farewell tendered Miss Kathleen Brennan, on her retirement as president of the Children of Mary Society. All members were present, showing by the large number attending the popularity of their leader. Miss Brennan during her two years of office, proved, by the success of each undertaking, and by her ready co-operation with co-workers, her ability as leader, one whose clearness of vision, initiative and intelligent tolerance helped carry the society to the high standard of efficiency it produly boasts of at present. Miss Brennan is one of the popular young ladies of Tignish, and is active in all undertakings that go towards the betterment of church and civic affairs. The society regrets her retirement.

At the annual meeting of the P. E. I. Harness Racing Club held in Summerside last night, Mr. Geo. A. Callbeck, Summerside, was re-elected President, and Willard Kelly, Charlottetown, Vice President.

There was a large attendance of horsemen from all parts of the province. The President's report was read and adopted. Matters in general were discussed. Dr. Dougan of Charlottetown informed the meeting that he would present a cup for the two year old class in the Futurity races, W. B. MacArthur presented one for the four year class. A motion was made and passed to have the 2, 3 and 4 year old classes run off as last year and for races to be held in August.

MacWILLIAMS-MUIRHEAD—An interesting wedding took place at the home of Mr. Robert Muirhead, Coniston, on Monday afternoon, April 26, when his eldest daughter Miss Jeane Margaret Muirhead was united in marriage to Mr. Norman Victor MacWilliams of Sudbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor MacWilliams of East Royalty, Prince Edward Island. Rev. A.P.S Addison, of the United Church officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a smart navy and white chiffon dress, and carried a bouquet of talisman roses. Miss Joyce Muller of Sudbury, wearing a gown of flowered chiffon, was bridesmaid. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. Morley R. MacWilliams. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was held at the home of the bride's father, and in the evening a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs J. Flesher, 470 Howey Crescent, Sudbury. The popular young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs MacWilliams left later for a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and southern points, accompanied by the good wishes of a host of friends, and on their return will reside in Sudbury

LAID TO REST—The funeral of the late Mrs. William Gregory was held Tuesday afternoon from her late residence, St. Avards to the People's Cemetery. Pall bearers were: Charles Snow, Henry Callbeck, Victor Hudson, Herbert Love, John Younker, Peter Craig. Services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. Ewen MacDougall.

—DEATH OF MISS NORA HOLMAN—Miss Nora Holman, daughter of Mrs. R. T. Holman, Summerside, passed away on Tuesday in Boston. Miss Holman had been ill for some weeks. Her sister, Miss Gladys left Summerside on Monday to arrange for her sister to leave the hospital, but death came before her arrival. Miss Holman had been associated with the Boston Dispensary for many years in Social Service work. The funeral will be held at the Boston Crematorium. Professor Will Holman of Toronto will attend the funeral.—S.

The body of 20-year-old Lester Rafuse, Georgetown lobster fisherman, who was believed to have drowned in Cardigan Bay last Thursday after his motor boat was found on Burnt Point beach unoccupied, had not been recovered, Royal Canadian Mounted Police said last night, although dragging operations have been in progress ever since his disappearance.

Rafuse, in the midst of his first season as a fisherman, had left Georgetown to attend his traps and bring in the catch. Later his motor boat was found on Burnt Point beach with ignition still turned on and the gasoline supply exhausted.

The young fisherman was the only support of his widowed mother. He has six brothers and four sisters. A group of residents were conducting the grappling under the supervision of Constable Edwards.

The annual meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Kelly's Cross Parish was held in the church on Sunday afternoon, May 16th.

The chief business of the meeting were the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer and the election of officers. The Champlain, Rev. C. J. Pitre was present and spoke in glowing terms of the success achieved, and in a very gracious manner thanked the out-going executive for the splendid work accomplished during the past year.

The officers for the coming year are:

President: Mrs. John W. Bradley.

1st Vice President: Mrs. J. D. Flood.

2nd Vice President: Mrs. Elizabeth Monaghan.

Thirteen silver fox pups from the ranch of Mr. Herbert W. Platts, Admiral St., Charlottetown near Inkerman, were objects of a search by Royal Canadian Mounted and City Police last night.

The pups, about six weeks old, were discovered missing yesterday but the owner believed they were stolen during Monday night. Residents of the dwelling recalled hearing strange noises around the ranch that night.

The theft was similar to that of 15 pups from the ranch of A. H. Roper, Mt. Edward Road, about a mile from the city, last Saturday night. In both cases police were hampered by lack of clues.

At the Platts' ranch police found no broken locks nor signs of wire fencing being cut.

Mrs. J. A. Clark was re-elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Prince Edward Island Hospital at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Held at the Nurses Residence at the Cundall Home the session was very largely attended.

An enjoyable autograph social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mobbs on the evening of May 5 when a large crowd gathered to swell the funds of Greenvale, W. I. The evening was spent by community sing-song and reading and encore by Mr. Goodfrey Wiltshire, a solo by Miss Dorothy MacRae, instrumental music by Robert and Austin Smith on the mandolin was much enjoyed by all. Two ver interesting contests were put on by Miss Beatrice Matheson. A drawing for a box of delicious home made candy was won by Mrs. James Brown. At a very late hour refreshments were served by members of W. I. and the singing of the National Anthem brought the social to a close. The sum of over eighteen dollars was realized.

LINEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE —A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Emily McLeod on Tuesday, May 11th, when the staff of S. A. McDonalds gathered to tender a linen shower to Miss Ina Waller, one of Charlottetowns popular brides-to-be. The many gifts were opened by Miss Emily McLeod while Miss Elaine Ramsay read the accompanying verses. During the evening a presentation was made to Miss Waller from her co-workers. A special feature of the evening was vocal and instrumental music furnished by Mr. Tex Cochrane. A mock wedding was another special attraction and caused much merriment, especially the presentation to the bride and groom of a beautiful hand painting, mounted in a gold frame and tied with coronation streamers. Lunch was then served by the hostess in her own hospitable manner. After extending thanks to Miss McLeod, they all departed to their homes, wishing Miss Waller every success in her new venture.

Dr. H. D. Johnson was elected chairman of the Trustee Board of the Prince Edward Island Hospital last night. He replaces Mr. W. K. Rogers who has served on the board for 31 years and for 20 years as chairman. Appointment of Dr. Johnson was proposed by Mr. Rogers. Mr. S. A. MacLeod was elected vice-chairman, at the meeting of the board of trustees which followed the 54th general annual meeting of the Hospital.

Mr. W. K. Rogers, retiring chairman of the Trustee Board, presided at the general session. Reports were heard from Mrs. R. Meikle, treasurer of the Ladies Auxiliary; Mrs. J. A. Clark president of the Auxiliary; Mr. R. L. Cotton, chairman of the finance committee; Dr. J. A. Clark, chairman of the property committee; and Mr. Alfred Pickard, chairman of the committee in charge of Cundall Home. The general report of the board of trustees was read by Mr. W. K. Rogers.

Retiring trustees, Messrs. S. A. MacLeod, J. A. Clark, Alfred Pickard and F. M. Stewart, were re-elected.

The funeral of the late Hugh McPhee of Coleman who passed away on April 25th, was held from his old home on April 27 and was one of the largest ever witnessed. Being one of P. E. Island's highly respected citizens. Mr. MacPhee was active up until about nine weeks previous to his death which was caused from a fractured hip. He was cared for by his son Byron during his illness while other relatives and neighbours willingly gave a night to a good natured friend and this kindness will ever be remembered. It was a sad affair for his near and dear ones to watch him slowing ebb away. He had reached the milestone of life eaching the age of 86 years. He was born at Charlottetown, P. E. I., in the year 1851, the son of the late Allen McPhee, Ship Builder and came to this settlement at the age of 10 years his mother, passing away a few years after. They were among the early settlers, the community then being a dense forest and were of Scottish decent. The deceased worked at Carslanding when Ships were built, and elped raft deal and other material round Grand Dig point. There were many hardships in hose days. He also worked at Providence R. I. Ship-yard during the war. Mr. McPhee was living in Charlottetown during King Edward's then "Prince of Wales" visit.
