The Halifax Mail contains the following paragraph of interest to many here. The young man referred to is a son of Alexander Affleck of Searletown and a popular graduate of the Charlottetown Business College:—"An engagement announcement of special interest has just been made—that of Miss Dorilda Gastonguay and William A. Affleck, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. Miss Gastonguay is one of our most charming girls, and in musical circles, especially, is a great favorite. A graduate of the Academy of Mt. St. Vincent, and since her graduation, in charge of its department of music, her gifts and accomplishments have reflected honor upon her Alma Mater. Among our young amateurs, indeed, we have no player of that most subtle instrument, the violin, whose mastery of it is more absolute. Moreover, Miss Gastonguay's invariable willingness to lend her musical gifts to the aid of worthy causes has been greatly appreciated. As stated the announcement of her engagement is of unusual interest here. Mr. Affleck is the I.C.R. employ in this city, and is popular with his many acquaintances."
