THE GUARDIAN LOCAL NEWS

Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

THE Polno of the Dobell Line is due from Montreal today.

David Schurman returned Saturday evening from a trip to Windsor, N. S.

THE Princess arrived Saturday night at nine o'clock and the express at half past ten.

Work will be stopped on the Murray Harbor Railway for this season early this week. The road is now practically completed.

Miss Lena B. Simpson, of Kensington, returned home Saturday after spending a few days in the city, the guest of Miss Mattie Chappell.

Mrs. L. E. Prowse with her daughter Miss George Prowse arrived by the Princess Saturday evening and will reside here in future.

Mrs. Alexander Ramsay, Newton Highlands, Mass., is expected to accompany the remains of her brother, Harold Adams, to this City, to-morrow night.

St. PAUL'S CHURCH pulpit was occupied yesterday by Rev. Albert Gale, Sydney Mines. The reverend gentleman will also be here next Sunday after which it is expected that the new rector Rev. S. J. Woodroffe, Sydney will begin his rectorship.

LOU MCINTYRE leaves tomorrow, Tuesday, for Hall ax. Mr. McIntyre is one of Charlottetown's most enthusiastic athletes and has done much towards the success of the Island boys. He will have the best wishes of many friends including The Guardian in his new sphere.

THE schooner Wentworth from Hillsboro, N. S., bound for Newark, N. J., was caught in a gale and wrecked off Chatham Mass., bar about a week ago. Twelve persons on board perished including the first mate, George Campbell, who belongs to this province, aged 30. The only body recovered was the captain's wife, Mrs. Priddle.

THE Abegweit football team are endeavoring to arrange a football match to be played here with one of the Nova Scotia teams on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 17th. It is probable that a game may be arranged with the Abegweits' old time rivals, the Waners, for that date. Should such an arrangement be made a large crowd would doubtless result.

ON SATURDAY last while walking along the street, a prominent citizen remarked that if the tickets were $5 each instead of 35 and 25 cents to hear the "Great Bengough," he would gladly pay that amount, rather than miss the treat this evening in Market Hall. All those having reserved seats will see plan at Ellis' drug store. If you have not secured tickets do so at once. The treat of the season. Meet us all there.

At St. James' Manse, by Rev. T. F. Fullerton, on July 24th, James Currie and Maggie McLean, both of Charlottetown.

REV. W. B. THOMAS, FOWNS, preached in the First Methodist Church yesterday morning and Rev. Mr. Pease in the evening. Rev. Mr. Do'son was absent in Hall ax.

THE roads are very havy between Victoria and the R. R. Station and if the City of London had not gone to Craupad yesterday the slaughtered pork there would have spoiled.

Owing to the heavy gale from the south and the double storm drum being up the City of London did not leave for Craupad till yesterday morning. She returned in the afternoon with six passengers and the following cargo: 128 boxes butter, 43 hogs, 8 sheep, 4 beef cattle, 13 cases eggs and 20 bags produce.

To John A. MacFadyen, Riverdale.

Dear Brother,—Whereas it has pleased the Almighty God in his infinite mercy and wisdom to call from this life your beloved brother, we the officers and members of Hamilton, L. O. L. No. 1263 desire to extend to you our heart felt sympathy in the great loss you have sustained. The loss of a brother in the promising days of youth certainly leaves a heavy shadow to which human sympathy cannot bring any relief. But you must look to Jesus for the removal of that dark cloud. The blow was not only heavy but sudden. Oh sympathy, teach us to sympathize with those our friends. We pray you not to think of your brother as dead, but alive with his Bleed Lord and Saviour, who is now in raptures of glory and delight, where his Saviour has prepared a bright and beautiful home for him. Only a short time awaits us here when we also shall be summoned to meet him—father, mother, sisters and brothers to meet to part no more. May it be the happy lot of us all to meet at last to hear Jesus say, "Come Ye Blessed of My Father." May God sustain you in your heavy loss.

Signed in behalf of Hamilton Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 1366.

AS A CONVALESCENT FOOD.

MR. WYMAN N. THOMAS, Omph. Ad. writes: "My wife had a connection of the lungs along with other troubles, and became very weak and run down. By the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food she was made as strong and well as ever. Of course I had a doctor, but she was weak, and it was Dr. Chase's Nerve Food which built her up."

Dressed pork has dropped one half cent per lb.

A DARING robbery was committed last night about 9:30 at A. Horne & Co's music store, Kent St. Two young lads named Alfred Downing, aged 9 and John Woods, aged 13, who have frequently been in court for horse stealing, etc., broke the plate glass window adjoining the front door of the store with a stone. They did not get inside but managed to secure two mouth organs through the hole. They were captured shortly after by the Marshall, near Dawson's Corner and taken to the station. The youthful culprits had also contemplated a raid on Webster & McKay's store later in the evening. Another young lad, son of Geo. Carver, who had been given a mouth organ, will be summoned as a witness.

St. Matthew's Church, Marble Mountain, C. B. was the scene at ten o'clock Friday morning of the marriage of T. A. McLean, Jr. Charlottetown, and Miss Margaret MacLachlan, daughter of Mr. D. MacLachlan, of that place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. McMillan, of West Bay. Miss Laura McNeill, of New Glasgow, played the wedding March. The bride, who presented a very handsome appearance, was beautifully attired in a superb gown of white messaline satin over taffeta, with a long bridal veil, and carried a large bouquet of white roses. She was attended, as bridesmaid, by her sister Miss Bessie MacLachlan, who also looked charming in a dress of cream silk voile over Nile green taffeta, and black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Andrew Douglas, of New Glasgow, supported the groom. The floral decorations of the church, although not elaborate, were very tastefully arranged. After the marriage the bride and groom received the good wishes and congratulations of a large circle of friends. At Mr. MacLachlan's residence, lunch was served and a very pleasant time was spent. Among the guests present were Miss H. M. Hills of Halifax; Miss Ethel McLean, Charlottetown, sister of the groom; Mr. Nelson en route to connect with the J. L. Nelson express at Grand Narrows. A large number of friends accompanied them on board the steamer, and a very pleasant trip was the result. The day was delightfully fine. At Grand Narrows, the happy couple was escorted to the train, amid showers of rice and the good wishes of the entire party. Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will make a tour through the Maritime Provinces.

Later, if Mr. MacLean's business engagements will permit, they will visit the World's Fair at St. Louis. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts, in cut glass and silverware. The groom's present was a handsome fitted travelling bag. A striking coincidence in connection with the affair was that the day was the 29th anniversary of the wedding of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. MacLachlan. It was also the birthday of the groom.

OUR GENERAL PRICES ARE NOT SO HIGH

that we have to use a bait to induce customers to enter our store. It does not take much of a reasoner to see that it would not pay them to deal at that sort of store. Our prices all round are so low that we could not, unless we had stolen the goods, cut say 25 per cent off an already cut price. It is against sound business principles, and if we did it we would have to take it out of our customers in some other way, should we get the opportunity. It is up to you to avoid us, if you think we are quacks in the furniture business, as you would a quack doctor.
