Evangelist E. W. Brenneisen of New York City, will deliver two religious addresses of unusual character in Kindergarten Hall, Charlottetown, Sunday Oct. 11th, afternoon subject "The Three Worlds" evening subject "Damnation and Salvation." It can safely be said that these all-absorbing topics have never been treated in such a clear, forcible and scriptural manner as by this renowned Bible student and lecturer. His systematic examination and logical presentation of God's plan, furnishes the solution of many hitherto perplexing questions. These addresses are entirely free not even a collection taken. Thinking Christians and honest skeptics especially urged to be present. 10-9d2i.

ARTIST AUTUMN MILLINERY

We beg to announce that we have now placed in our show room, a large variety of the newest models in Fall Millinery. That they are beautiful and artistic goes without saying, as our milliner Miss Walpert—after a most successful spring season—is well known to the ladies as an exceptionally clever artist in the millinery line.

Cwing to an unusually large stock of Furs, and ladies' Mantles, which necessarily take up a great deal of space, we will hold no formal millinery Opening this season, as it would result in an uncomfortable crush. However a large display of unusually attractive models are now ready, and the ladies are cordially invited to come at their convenience and view the latest authentic styles as prepared by Miss Walpert and her clever assistants.

The change in the season's styles, not only includes new shapes but new materials as well, and introduces new colors and combinations. The fashionable hat is large—very large—with high crown, and brim which droops slightly, or flares high to right side. Hats with sailor brims are also good, with wide high crowns which display to advantage the new fancy bandeaux, large wings Ostrich plumes and tips now so much in vogue. A great number of the smaller shapes are on the turban order, and these are expected to be very much worn.

Satin plays an important part in the new millinery, as also Ottoman silk and lustrous velvets, with which the striking large Directoire shapes are plainly covered.

The most fashionable colors are Peacock blue, Smoke grey, Empire green tans and Brown. All black hats are excellent style, and jet effects, tinsel bandings and soutache braiding much used. Fancy hairpins are still modish on the plainer models, while on the more elaborate hats buckles—some extremely large—are much used.

We have an unusually splendid assortment of shapes in Felt, Satin, Velvet and Fur, and Miss Walpert, after her recent trip to the millinery centres is better prepared than ever to cater to the millinery wants of our customers.

We guarantee your artistic work—up-to-date materials—fair prices—and correct styles; you can ask no more, and we give you no less. Leave your order today.

Warning to Electors.

Unqualified Voters.

And person who votes at an election while knowing that he is not entitled to vote commits an unlawful act.

Any other person who with a knowledge of such disqualification induces such person to vote is also guilty: each being liable to forfeit $100 with costs to any one who sues therefor.

Disqualification for Corrupt Practices.

Every person other than the Candidate found guilty of any corrupt practice under the Dominion Elections Act shall be disqualified for 8 years from voting at a Dominion Election or from holding office under the Crown.

Non-residents Canvassing.

Persons residing outside Canada who are not entitled to vote, are prohibited from canvassing at an election.

Contributions From Companies.

No Company or association, (except such as are incorporated for political purposes alone) is permitted to contribute or offer either directly or indirectly any money or its equivalent in aid of any Candidate or political party, committee or association at an election.

Every person who asks or knowingly receives any money from such Company for such purposes and every officer, agent or shareholder of such Company who takes part in such violation of the law by the Company is liable to be fined and imprisoned.

Giving or Selling Liquors on Polling Day.

Every person who sells or gives away any intoxicating liquor at any place within the limits of any polling division, during the whole of the polling day at an election, shall be liable, on summary conviction, for each offence, to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months in default of payment of such penalty.

Contributions for Election Purposes.

All contributions on behalf of any candidate made for election purposes (except for the personal expenses of the Candidate) otherwise than to the Candidate's official agent, are unlawful—and the person offending is guilty of an indictable offence.
