

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Rev. D. J. G. MacDonald went to Cardigan yesterday afternoon.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.52 and tomorrow morning at 10.22.

Mrs. George W. Drew, City, has returned from undergoing treatment in the P. E. I. Hospital.

The Guardian has received from Bert Hales formerly of this city copies of late Seattle, Wash. papers.

The Guardian's classified advertisements pilot the ship of business to the safe harbor of commercial prosperity, as told in that column.

Rev. P. B. MacDonald was a passenger to Souris yesterday afternoon.

J. W. Marchbank, Howland Station, has installed a carding mill and will begin work soon.

Rev. Lemuel Ackland has returned to Amherst from a week's visit to his home in Prince Edward Island.—Sackville Tribune.

James McIsaac, of Charlottetown, who has been on a trip to Boston, returned home by the noon train Monday.—St. John Telegraph.

Samuel McMorris, jr., of Great Shemogue and W. Dujay made a business trip to Prince Edward Island last week.—Sackville Tribune.

G. S. Inman of Montague visited in the City yesterday.

The fourth reg't. band will play at Victoria Park tonight from eight to nine o'clock.

Leon Melanson returned to Shediac this week from spending a few days on Prince Edward Island.—Sackville Tribune.

Any persons in this Province, who fish salmon or claim for shipment abroad, should write Manager Guardian at once.

A thoroughly competent cook, who desires a situation at once in a home in this City, with highest wages, should apply at this office immediately.

Miss S. McNeill, Wood Islands, who is attending business college in Charlottetown, spent Sunday in New Haven the guest of her friend Miss A. M. MacKaty.

Any country girl desiring housework in this city should send in her name and address and age with all particulars as well as references to the Guardian Office at once. No expense attached to same.

Harold Jenkins of this city has not left on a trip to Winnipeg, nor has he any intention whatever of doing so, and the little morning and evening papers should be careful not to give incorrect and possibly damaging information in future.

Owing to the big Saturday Guardian and the large number of advertisements therefor it is necessary that all "changes" of matter reach this office not later than ten a. m. Friday to insure insertion in first following issue.

The many friends of D. A. Nelson, Cornwall, will be pleased to learn that he is steadily regaining his health. Mr. Nelson left Cornwall about a year ago for Saranac Lake, and is now visiting in Regina on his way to the Pacific coast.

Rev. J. A. Winfield, St. Stephen, N. B., the new ministerial agent in this Province is anxious to hear from farmers in this Province whose fathers or forefathers came from Great Britain, as to the outlook for any intending settlers on vacant farms and other work.

The many friends of Miss Gertrude Barr will be pleased to hear of her marriage which took place in Boston on June 17th, 1909, to Stephen McDonald of Sydney, now of Boston. Miss Barr is the second daughter of Mrs. Henry Barr of Elm Avenue. Mr. McDonald was at one time reporter and correspondent on one of the Sydney papers.

A wedding in which much interest centres will take place on Tuesday, June 8th, when the Rev. George Orman, formerly pastor of St. John's Reformed Episcopal church, Sussex Corner, will be united in marriage to Miss Annie, daughter of Chas. Alexander, Hammond Vale. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Mr. Howard, B. D., President of the New Brunswick and P. E. Island Conference. Mr. Orman is now stationed at Prince Edward Island.

John I. Inman of Canoe Cove, recently launched his new gasoline launch, the "Bonshaw." This boat, the first of its kind built for service on the West and East rivers. She is now plying between Bonshaw and Charlottetown, carrying freight for the merchants of the former place. His many friends wish Mr. Inman every success in his undertaking and without doubt his enterprising enterprise will be rewarded with a liberal patronage by the business men of East and West rivers.

A wave of sadness passed over the congregation of Cove Head on the morning of Sabbath May 23rd when it was learned that D. H. Auld had decided to remove with his family to another part of the Province. Immediately on the close of the service the pastor called Mr. Auld to the front, and in the name and on behalf of the session of which Mr. Auld has been a valued member for many years and of the congregation in which his presence and labors will be much missed—spoke to him words of esteem and Christian farewell. At the same time the pastor placed in his hand a P. S. Bartlett Waltham Watch as a token of esteem, and a souvenir of past associations in the Presbyterian church at Cove Head. J. G. McCallum also in feeling terms referred to the loss sustained in the departure of Mr. Auld and his model family from the church and community, and congratulated the church and people of Freetown on this accession to the numbers. Mr. Auld although taken completely by surprise replied briefly in suitable terms of gratitude and pleasure. The whole congregation then united in singing "Blest be the tie that binds," after which the pastor offered prayer especially remembering Mr. Auld and his family who now go to seek a church home amongst another people.

The Pianosorte Recital, Kindergarten Hall on Tuesday next. A request having been made that some seats should be reserved, one hundred and fifty will be reserved. There will be no plan. Tickets will be on sale at the drugstores of Messrs Jamieson, Rankin and Johnson.

It was no fault of The Guardian that the Poultry Association did not meet Tuesday evening and the fact, of course as proved recently they rely to a great extent upon the local columns of The Guardian, and consequently there is thus some ground for complaint.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents.

Reginald Chandler son of Henry M. and Mrs. Chandler, Elm Ave., left yesterday morning for Port Arthur where he will resume his work after spending the winter visiting at his home in Charlottetown. He was formerly employed at Weeks & Co., but went to the West seven years ago. He is a popular young man, and his many friends wish him every success.

The name of Heber Bambrick, of Glen Roy, P. E. I., now of Vancouver, B. C., is included in the publisher's list of Provincial students at McGill, he passed in all subjects, in third year science (civil engineering). He is under a disadvantage in starting, too, being seven weeks late for college last fall, finishing up a contract for the Fraser River Mills, Vancouver.

Lady Davies, Ottawa, entertained at a delightful tea in honor of her guests Miss Palmer, of Montreal. The hostess wore a gown of pale grey, Miss Palmer, who received with her, wearing black, eolienne. The tea table, was prettily decorated with marguerites. Miss Palmer, who has been the guest of Lady Davies in Ottawa for a week is returning to Montreal Tuesday.—Star.

The following kind expressions signed on behalf of Pleasant Grove Division by James S. Duck, Lottie A. Crockett and A. R. B. Duck have been forwarded to H. C. Watts, Pleasant Grove. "We the members of Pleasant Grove Division S. O. T., No 264, desire to tender you and your family our sincere sympathy in your sad bereavement. Although it has filled your hearts with grief to part with your dear wife and mother, yet it is a joy to know that you can meet her again where sorrow and partings are unknown. We would gladly help you to bear your burden of grief but can only direct you to him who comforteth all who sorrow. We shall miss our dear sister from the division room but rejoice to know that our loss has been her eternal gain."

More Vitropane ready in the house furnishings dept forty five cents per yard

If you have a window—or windows of plain glass that for any reason you want to turn into stained glass—come in and see Vitropane. This is a material coming in rolls like wall paper—Cathedral glass designs—very handsome colorings—easily applied and permanent when on. It will make a plain glass window into stained glass—and the cost is but FORTY FIVE CENTS PER YARD.

A fresh lot in by express from New York a day or two ago.

Is economy an object in selecting wall paper?

If you are like most of the rest of us—and want to buy a hundred cents worth of value every time you spend a dollar—you can not afford to buy your wall paper without a careful study of our showing. Two or three cases within the last few days have interested us—bits of comparison. Ladies have brought in samples from mail order houses—found that we have precisely the same patterns in stock—and our prices as low and in one of the cases much lower than the mail order house.

Now this is all we want—just compare our values—if we cannot do better for you—we do not expect your order.

Is that fair? $5.00 orders sent prepaid anywhere.

It will perhaps surprise you to see that we carry a wider range than most houses—nearly five hundred different wall paper designs ready for your choosing.

Remember when we quote a price it is for "double rolls." Most outside quotations are for "single rolls" as you will note.
