WITH deep regret many friends learned of the death early yesterday morning at St. Charles, King's County, of Miss Mary Doyle, daughter of Sergeant Doyle of this city. The deceased who has been for the past eight years on The Guardian composing staff was in her twenty-fifth year. For some time she has been in failing health and about six weeks ago went to the country in the hope that a rest would bring an improvement. The desired change did not come however; but the news of her sudden demise is a great shock to those who had anxiously hoped for the best. The deceased had greatly endeared herself to the whole staff of The Guardian by her many good qualities which ever manifested themselves. It is safe to say that never has there been in the employ of The Guardian a woman who showed greater faithfulness and proficiency in her work, combined with the thoroughness and the excellent deportment which won the esteem of all her associates. Her place in the home as well as in the office where she had labored well indeed be hard to fill. The remains were brought to the city yesterday by the afternoon train and taken to her father's residence, Upper Pownall street, followed by a number of friends and relatives. To the bereaved family The Guardian tenders its heartfelt sympathy.
