—AUCTION SALE of household effects at the former residence of Miss Hattie Ross, Carleton, Wednesday, June 11, at 1:30 p.m. If not fine, first fine day following. E. C. Bell, auctioneer.

—FREIGHT CARS ENTERED—Freight cars in the Summerside railway yards have been broken into on two occasions recently it has been learned. The last break was on last Sunday, both times the objective of the thieves seems to have been candy as this was the only merchandise taken. The last time it is understood a carton containing a quantity of chocolate bars was stolen.—S.

—MALPEQUE UNITED CHURCH—Morning worship at Malpeque United Church was conducted by the minister, Rev. C. J. Crowds. The subject of Mr. Crowds' message was "The Soul's search for God" or "The Mystery of God's works, was both inspiring and interesting. The regular choir sang the anthem "Up Calvary's Hill" with Messrs Lockerby and Ramsay taking the duet parts. The communion of the Lord's Supper was also dispensed at this service to a large congregation. The evening service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Sullivan of Summerside who preached an inspirational sermon on "The Prodigal Son." A large audience was present to hear Mr. Sullivan for the first time in Malpeque. The music was directed by the organist Mrs. Simpson. Mr. Roland Phillips and Mr. Jas. Phillips were heard in two pleasing duets. Whispering, and Lord I'm Coming Home; also supporting the regular choir in the anthem, Awake Awake. The beautiful spring flowers which adorned the front of auditorium made a very artistic setting for the services.

Well-known S'ide Resident Passes

The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital yesterday of Miss Sarah Jane Strong, a lifetime resident of the town of Summerside. She was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Strong and is the last of a family of five. Her brother Alban died five years ago. She had been in failing health for the past three years and had been a patient in the hospital for a week.

The late Miss Strong was a lady of bright and cheerful disposition and will be sadly missed by her friends. She was an accomplished musician and for a number of years was organist of St. Paul's Church, Summerside.

Her nephew Basil, MacKinnon who made his home with her, and three nephews and one niece in New Jersey survive her.

The funeral will be on Friday morning at nine o'clock from her late residence on Harvard Street to St. Paul's Church.

"THE WAY TO THE STARS" AT THE CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

The theme of "The Way to the Stars" Anatole de Grunwald's latest film offering, is that of love and war, at the Capitol Theatre, through United Artists release, it is a vivid and beautiful pictorial chronicle of the lives of a group of English and American flyers during those crucial years before the tide of battle turned against the Germans.

It is the story of their "missions," although there is not a single battle sequence. It is the story of their loves, of the impact of their private lives on war—and of the war on their private lives.

British now have an ally. The Yanks, flying their big B17's, come over to lend a hand at mopping up the Germans. Among them is Johnny Hollis, played by Douglas Montgomery. He and Toddy have a beautiful and—wastful romance which again ends in tragedy.

Before the final fadeout Toddy, who understands Peter's unspoken reasons for leaving Iris, brings them together again.
