MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunions-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ". It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait, ask how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

CLEMENCEAU AT WORK
 Puts in a Good Day's Labor Before Breakfast

If there is one man who has more to do with the policy of the Entente today than any other—even than Lloyd George—it is the Prime Minister of France. France more nearly is under a single dictator than any other country in the war; French Governmental policy is clearly defined; and it is difficult for England or the United States effectively to depart from it.

It is not without good reason that Clemenceau is called the "Tiger." As he sits in his office one is reminded easily of the big cat tribe, so intense he is, so quiet, so lithic. As he crouches there his 75 years look like 60. As he jumps from his seat and hurries across the room his movements are those of a vigorous man of 50. He by no means suggests a man with a grandson in the war.

One picturesque habit of his, as far as I know, has not been made public. Like many great workers he makes an early start. Lloyd George has many of his most important meetings at breakfast. Lord Reading, before he came over here as ambassador, used to do an administrator himself before he started his chief justice functions. Clemenceau also puts in a good day's labor before regular business hours begin. He has an old housekeeper who knows how to make a soup of which the Prime Minister is fond. Every night this soup is made hot, put in a stone jug, and the jug placed between the sheets at the foot of the bed, where it serves for a hot water bag until about 2 a.m., when the husky Tiger awakes, drinks the soup and goes to work.—Norman Haggood in Leslie's.

Hard and soft corns both yield to Holloway's Corn Cure, which is entirely safe to use, and certain and satisfactory in its action.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN SAILORS SOCIETY
 THE LADIES' GUID

The following correspondence should interest every patriotic citizen in this province and is self-explanatory:
 Wakefield House, Cheapside, London, E. C. 2, April 20th, 1918.

Dear Madam,—

As you are probably aware, this year is the Centenary of the British & Foreign Sailors' Society, and as President of our Ladies' Guild, I feel it is a very fitting occasion for the Women of the Empire, who owe so much to the protection afforded by our splendid sailors, to help us to make the year 1918 one that will leave its mark on the annals of our country, as one specially devoted to our Seamen.

It is proposed (at the request of the authorities) to build a Sailors' Rest and Boys' Hostel for the Port of London, as a "Memorial from the Women of the Empire to those splendid men of both sea services who have lost their lives in the service of their country." There will be in the building Scotch, Irish, Welsh, and Overseas Sections, as well as the English, so that it will be definitely recorded that the "Rest" is provided by subscribers from all parts of the Empire. We, the Women of Great Britain and her Overseas Dominion, owe them a debt greater than we can ever realize, and this "Rest", erected in the very centre of the "Sailors' Town" in the heart of the greatest city of the Empire, will meet a need which is great now, but will be infinitely greater in the days to come. Our sailors come from all parts of the world, at all hours of the night and day, often finding the only places available for their accommodation very undesirable ones; where temptations assail them at every point, and yet they are the men who have stood between us and the fate of Belgium and France, and other nations.
