DEATH YESTERDAY
pension in 1895.
In 1892 he apprenticed with the late Mr. George E. Hughes at the Apothecaries Hall where he became a very proficient druggist, receiving a diploma from the Ohio School of Pharmacy.

While with Mr. Hughes, he distinguished himself as an athlete, playing regularly at half-back with the Abegweit football team. He was a member of that team when it defeated the Wanderers of Halifax in October, 1899 for the Maritime championship. On the football field he excelled in tackling and kicking. For years he materialized help in winning victories.

He also excelled as a hockey player, in the famous battles between the Abegweits and Crystals of Summerside, also against the Wanderers and other teams for the Maritime championship.

In 1898 he joined No. 2 Battery Canadian Garrison Artillery, and was an efficient member. Later in 1904 he qualified as an officer and took part in all the activities of that Battery and its successor, No. 2 Heavy Battery Artillery, which was a frequent winner of the General Efficiency of Canada.

When war broke out in 1914, Lieut. Bethune went to Sydney with the Heavy Battery Detachment under the command of the late Maj. J. R. D. Clark.

When the 2nd Heavies were organizing for overseas early in 1915 he volunteered and was taken on strength with officer's rank, later to take part in the operations overseas with them. He served all through the campaigns of 1916, 1917, 1918.

He was mentioned in dispatches and was highly popular with his commanding officers and very popular with the members of the Battalion.

Returning home he re-entered the drug business as a member of the MacKinnon Drug Company, which he had been connected with since 1910. Later, when that company was sold to the Ross Drug Company in 1932, Mr. Bethune became its manager. He resigned a couple of years later to take the position of chief dispenser with the Hughes Drug Company, where he remained until his death.

Mr. Bethune resumed his military career in 1921. When the P. E. I. Heavy Brigade was organized under the command of Lt. Col. D. A. MacKinnon, Maj. Bethune took over the organization and training of No. 8 Battery, and records show his outstanding success with it.

Shortly after he returned home from overseas he married Miss Bessie Boyver of Charlottetown, who survives him with their only daughter, Miss Catherine Bethune, a teacher at Prince of Wales College.

He is also survived by his sister Lou, Mrs. Gordon Worth, and by two brothers, David and Ross, both residents of the City. Maj. Bethune took a great interest in everything that pertained to the welfare of the city. He was a staunch member of the Baptist Church.

He was very popular with young and old and every year many former Islanders dropped in to chat with "Sam", particularly what teammates and opponents from former football and hockey encounters liked to talk of other days, as did returned men from World War I, by whom he was held in very high esteem.

A former friend who knew him intimately said his great characteristic was conscientiousness and respect for his given word. No one lived a finer life or set a better example.

District Governor Guest Speaker At Y's Men's Club

Mr. Ralph MacLean, Charlottetown, district governor, was the guest speaker on Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the Summerside Y's Men's Club. Mr. MacLean delivered a most impressive and timely address on the ideals of Y's Men, dwelling on the principles of fellowship, loyalty and service.

He said that the Y.M.C.A. was an oasis of peace in this war-torn world where men could and did meet in peaceful fellowship. As an example of this he cited the case of the Y.M.C.A. in the Holy Land where Arabs and Jews met together in the same swimming pool while on the highways and byways these two nationalities were bitter enemies.

Clarence Mercer was chairman of the meeting and there was a ninety-nine per cent attendance of the members.

It was unanimously agreed that various articles of equipment which had been loaned to the Knights of Columbus, such as lawn mowers and toboggan slides be donated free to the Council as their own to use for future purposes.

The meeting extended a sincere welcome home to one of its most valued members, Rev. Charles Carnegie, who has been absent from home for some time.

Mr. J. L. Jerry Dibble was a welcome guest at the meeting and the District Governor announced that the Y's Men's convention will be held at New Glasgow, N.S., on October 29th and 30th.—S.

Credit Union Official Begins Tour Of Province

Mr. Gordon Smith of Hamilton, Ont., managing director of the Credit Union Association of Canada, commenced a three-week stay in this Province with a visit to St. Paul's Credit Union of Summerside Thursday evening.

During the period of his stay he will visit various credit unions in the Province in an endeavour to help them with their problems. In his opening remarks Thursday night he said that the purpose of the people organizing themselves into credit unions was "to create a better standard of living for the people of Canada."

Referring to the local situation, he suggested that another credit union be started in Summerside to serve those not eligible to join St. Paul's.

As an illustration of what can be done in this movement Mr. Smith told of a credit union in a small farming community in Manitoba. It now has 1,085 members with assets of over $300,000, with its own office located on the main street which is open all day every day and gives such services to its members as safety deposit boxes.

When the credit union was opened, he said, there were four chartered banks in the town and there is only one now.

He gave eight reasons why this credit union has been so successful, which are:

1. A need for credit existed in the community.
2. The officers talked to any and everyone about credit unions.
3. The treasurer was always easy to find.
4. The credit committee was prepared to act quickly when a request for a loan came in.
5. It carries loan protection and life savings insurance with Cuna Mutual Society.
6. It uses regular publicity.
7. The members are well informed on credit union matters.
8. Directors and committee men of the credit union adopted the policies of the national association and adhered to them.

Mr. Smith said that the credit union is for 85 percent of the people who do not have the facilities of a bank at their disposal.

Mr. Leo Corcoran of the audit committee of the Credit Union Association spoke briefly on the need of expansion in Summerside and suggested that St. Paul's Credit Union should open its ranks to people not now eligible to join.

Mr. Fred Gallant, treasurer of the credit union, citing the advantage of credit union insurance, told of a recent case in the Summerside credit union where a child died that had savings of $180.00 in its name in the credit union. With the hundred per cent insurance that applies, the parents were given double that amount, or $360.00.

Mr. Cyrus Poirier, president of St. Paul's Credit Union presided and spoke of the wonderful strides that the credit union has made during the past year. Rev. A. J. MacLeod also spoke briefly. At the end of the meeting a question and answer period was held. S

The many friends of Mr. James Henderson will regret to learn that he was obliged to enter the Prince County Hospital for treatment. All hope he may have a speedy recovery.

Federal Surplus 279 Million In First Six Months

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—(CP)—The Federal Government built up a budgetary surplus of $279,000,000 in the first six months of the current fiscal year, but in September—for the first time in many months—expenditures ran ahead of revenues.

In the monthly treasury report, issued today, Finance Minister Abbott disclosed that in the first half of the year, which ends next March 31, revenues were $1,240,606,376 and expenditures $961,395,964.

In the corresponding period of the 1948 fiscal year, revenues were $1,314,765,783 and expenditures $845,364,396 for a surplus of $469,401,387.

In September revenues were $173,908,229 and expenditures $183,415,590, making a deficit of $10,507,361. In the corresponding month of 1948, revenues totalled $199,569,744 and expenditures $174,857,737 for a surplus of $24,712,007.

Mr. Abbott blamed the reduction in September revenues on tax cuts announced in the budget presented to the Commons March 22. Besides the provincial presidents, the chairman of the Canadian University Liberal Federation is also a vice-president.

The drop of September revenues below expenditures broke a post-war trend. Since the end of the war, revenues have generally run far ahead of expenditures until the latter months of the year when tax collections were inclined to drop and year-end bills to increase.

Mr. Abbott forecast a surplus of $87,500,000 for this year compared with a surplus of $375,000,000 in the previous fiscal year.

Young Liberals Elect Officers

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 14.—(CP)—William Trebilcock of Winnipeg tonight was elected president of the Young Liberal Federation of Canada on the second ballot at the group's third biennial convention here.

The national vice-president succeeds Charles Duranenco of Montreal, immediate past president. Mr. Trebilcock defeated Vernon Singer of Toronto, president of the Ontario Young Liberal Association, and Miss Mary Scullion, national councillor from Edmonton.

The defeated candidates asked that the election be made unanimous.

A fourth candidate, Ed Farloy of Saint John, N.B., withdrew his name after the first ballot.

Miss Scullion and Ernest Moran of Quebec were elected by acclamation as English secretary and French secretary respectively.

Royce Frith of Toronto was acclaimed treasurer after the second ballot when three other candidates withdrew their names.

The provincial young Liberals presidents automatically became national vice-presidents by virtue of an amendment earlier today to the Federation's constitution. The amendment raised the number of vice-presidents from three to 11. Besides the provincial presidents, the chairman of the Canadian University Liberal Federation is also a vice-president.

Those included: Allan Hicks, Bridgetown, N.S.; Eric Martin, St. John's, Newfoundland; and George T. Urquhart, Saint John, N.B., who was appointed vice-president by T. D. Duffin Grand Falls, N.B., provincial Young Liberal president.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 14.—(CP)—The Young Liberal Federation of Canada late today rushed through 13 resolutions covering various topics from agriculture to crown corporations before electing its 1949-51 slate of officers.

The Federation three-day biennial convention which progressed slowly until today's final session speedily went to complete the business on hand.

None of the motions considered at the late afternoon session—12 were endorsed or rejected—were of a contentious nature.

The 500 delegates from nine Provinces—Prince Edward Island is not represented—voted a Sackville, N.S., chawan-sponsored resolution urging Federal Government to continue its policy of price support where necessary and to continue to make late long term food contracts with our purchasers abroad.

The Newfoundland delegation submitted a resolution that the necessary steps be taken by Federal authorities to supply a suitable vessel with competent crew to attend to the fisheries in the Grand Banks of Newfoundland.

The resolution pointed out that nearly 6,000 fishermen in that area have no medical facilities or other assistance in case of accident or danger.

Delegates also favored appointing a Canadian citizen as the next governor-general.

The relative and friends of Mr. Leigh Lowther, in this community, were shocked and saddened to hear of his sudden death, which occurred at Carleton Place, Ont., Monday afternoon. The sincere sympathy of this area is extended to the bereaved widow and family also his brothers and sisters and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saul, Winnipeg, were guests of Mrs. Saul's sister, Mrs. M. J. Lowther, and Mrs. Arthur Toombs, Mt. Allison. Mr. William Callbeck, Mr. William Wright, Miss Elizabeth Wright, Miss Marion Schurman, Miss Ruth MacParlane, Miss George Johnson, P. W. C. Mr. Austen, Gerald and James Johnson, St. Dunstan's.
