Answer This Question

When thousands of women say that they have been cured of their ailments by a certain remedy, does this not prove the merit of that remedy?

Thousands of women have written the story of their suffering, and have told how they were freed from it by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—for thirty years these reports have been published all over America.

Without great merit this medicine could never have gained the largest sale of any remedy for woman's ills—never could have become known and prized in nearly every country in the world.

Can any woman let prejudice stand between her and that which will restore her health? If you believe those who have tried it you know this medicine does cure.

Read this letter from a grateful woman, then make up your mind to give Mrs. Pinkham's medicine a chance to cure you.

Canifon, Ont.—"I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was ulcers of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life."—Mrs. Letitia Blair, Canifon, Ontario.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

The Conversion of Saul.—Acts ix; 1-30.

Golden Text—He fell to the earth and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul why persecutest thou me? Acts ix:4.

Verses 1-2—From experience, philosophically, theologically, psychologically, or any other way, how do you account for the bitter hatred of Saul for Christians?

After this conversion, did he show the same hatred toward those who opposed Christianity?

Does history justify the statement that, zealous religionists, who have not known, nor experienced the love of God, have been exceedingly cruel and bitter men?

Verses 3-4—What was the nature of the light that shined around Saul? (See Acts xxii:6, xxvii:13, I Cor. xv:8.) Whose voice was it that Saul heard?

What reason is there to believe that this was a real voice with outward sound?

Is there any sinner so bad that Jesus does not call him to repent? Had Saul actually been persecuting Jesus? (See Matt. 23:40.)

If we hurt or help a Christian, is that actually done to Jesus?

Is there a sense in which a Christian is the actual Christ?

Verse 5—Did Saul know from the first who it was that spoke to him?

Does it always consciously hurt to fight against God?

Does wrong doing always hurt whether done in ignorance or not?

Verse 6—What makes sinners always tremble when God reproves them of their sins?

At what stage does God forgive a convicted sinner?

When was Saul actually converted?

Why did not Jesus tell Saul there and then, what he wanted him to do?

Verse 7—Why does the supernatural always frighten people?

Verses 8-9—What had blinded Saul? How did Saul spend the days that he was without sight?

Did he fast because he had no desire for food, or was it a religious fast?

Is fasting of any use in these days as a help to spiritual life?

Verses 10-12—May the ability to hear God speak, be acquired by all true Christians?

Have you any experience of God telling you more than one person the same thing, so that when they came to compare experiences, God's message was confirmed?

Will God always prepare us for our work, and prepare the work for us?

Verses 13-16—Is God pleased or displeased, if we do not accept what he says, when it is not clear to us?

Verses 17-18—Did Saul at this time receive the Holy Ghost, or at the time of his conversion, and when do Christians generally receive him? (This question must be answered by members of the club.)

Verses 19-22—Do all genuine converts like Saul, commence immediately, to get others converted?

What was the power in Saul which gave him his great zeal, and in the same power available for every Christian?

Verses 23-25—If a person feels, or acts, in a bitter spirit, toward one of a different faith, is that proof that he is not in touch with the true God?

Verses 26-30—Are Christians justified in being cautious in receiving strangers?

What is the best way for a young convert to show he really is a Christian?

Is a true earnest aggressive Christian, as liable to give offense in these days as was Saul?

Lesson for Sunday April 25th, 1909 The Gospel in Antioch. Acts xi:19-30; 12:25.

Says the Miller: "Sometimes when I come home for lunch my wife is baking biscuits with Queen City Flour."

"Then at night she's finishing a batch of bread. She's always baking something or other, and it's always Queen City flour she uses. She says she can't use anything else, but I guess she knows that's the surest way of pleasing me—saying nice things about Queen City flour."
