SOCIAL INTEREST.—The Montreal Weekly Witness says:—Every effort is being made to have a largely attended meeting at the annual session of the Canadian Produce Association which meets in Guelph on January 11 and 12. It is hoped to have representatives from B. C. to P. E. I. and all between. The sessions will be held at the Ontario Agricultural College and many business matters of importance will be considered. The Association is greatly interested in the improvement of the egg and dressed poultry markets, and during the meetings information will be submitted by Government authorities, professional poultrymen and dealers. It is hoped that much good will result from the meeting.

EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of the South Melville school, was held on Wednesday, the 23rd inst. Although a very cold day a number of ratepayers and parents were present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Dawson assisted by Miss Janet Cameron and showed by their prompt and correct answers, that their prompt and correct answers, that their teacher spared neither time nor energy to bring about the good results. After the examination an interesting programme of choruses, exercises, and recitations was rendered, every item being well performed, showing careful training by the teacher. The trustees expressed themselves well pleased with the good work done in the school during the term. Pupils all present were then treated to candy by the teacher, and the examination brought to a close by singing "God Save the King."

BONSHAW SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of the Bonshaw School took place on Dec. 23rd, the schoolroom was nicely decorated for the occasion, a good crowd were in attendance. Miss Catherine Murchison, student at P. W. C., assisted the teacher, Miss Flora Cameron in the examination, and the prompt way in which all pupils answered the questions given them reflected much credit on the part of their teacher. After the examination a nicely prepared program was rendered by the scholars. Prizes were awarded the following for attendance: Annie McLeod, Jessa Murchison, Stephen McLeod. "Forward the clock" all were kindly treated to home made candy by the teacher, after which the pupils then visited upon their teacher and presented her with a beautiful gift and the following address: Dear Teacher,—During the last four months that you have been with us as our teacher, we have come to look upon you as a companion as well as a faithful teacher. We can truthfully say that we all have benefited by our way of instruction and influence. As the glad Christmas season draws near, we would wish to impress you with a feeling of our regard for you, and as a means towards that end we present you with this small gift hoping that it will be as much appreciated to you as it is to us. Signed on behalf of the pupils of Bonshaw School.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday morning a man named McKay was fined $5 or 30 days on a charge of drunkenness. He did not pay the fine.
