THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, John Dickieson, Agent, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.
-The latest news, first of all.
-The Baptist picnic at O'Leary on Wednesday was very largely attended and all had a very pleasant afternoon.
-The three masted schooner Minerva arrived in Summerside yesterday with a cargo of hard coal for Jos Read & Co.
-William and Mrs. Forest and daughter, Pictou, are in Summerside on a two week's visit with Capt and Mrs. Ryburn.
-Divine service at St. Mary's, Summerside, morning at eleven, evening at seven p. m. St. John's Church, St. Eleanors, afternoon at three. Sunday school at two.
-The people of Summerside and vicinity need have no fear of the coal strike affecting them. No less than six cargoes have arrived in Summerside in the past two days.
-The following are the Alberton market prices—Oats per bush fifty five cents, butter per lb seventeen cents, potatoes per dozen twenty seven cents, eggs per dozen sixteen cents, and wool per lb twenty cents.
-Rev Mr Hanna, Toronto, will be in Summerside tomorrow and will speak in the Presbyterian church in the evening, on the Lord's Day Alliance. All the different congregations are invited to attend as this will be a union meeting. A collection will be in order.
-Cape Church, representing the house of John, Dais & Son of Fulton Fish Market, New York, has arrived in Summerside. The Capt. has been south for sometime and contracted Malaria fever. Just as soon as he was able to travel he decided to come to the Garden of the Gulf, where he has spent much of his time, the past few years. The Captain says "P. E. I. is the best place on earth."
-Two young Summerside sports interested in the live poultry business ordered from a well known dealer in that line, a male bird of the sparring variety. The dealer agreed to ship it at a price C. O. D. Summerside. In due time the foster arrived. The owners gladly paid the cost and carried their bird home and let him loose to have a strut around. They were surprised to see a half starved tailless creature with only one spur evidently having fought too many battles. It is supposed that some mischievous person exchanged the birds. Later The Guardian is informed that the old rooster flew the coop and the owners are minus both birds.
-The writer had the pleasure of hearing two promising young men preach last Sabbath afternoon and morning. In the afternoon student C. Saunders Young, Lic, preached to a fairly large congregation in the Baptist Church at Alberton. His text was taken from Acts 2-17—Subject—The Worth of Vision. In the evening in the Methodist Church student Leard, Lic, gave a masterly discourse on the life of Job. Mr Leard is pastor of the Methodist Church at St. Martins N. B. Both addresses were highly appreciated and those who heard them were greatly helped. These young men show signs of much promise. Mr Leard's home was formerly in Alberton, but at present his home is in the west. He expects to remain a few weeks in Alberton before he returns to his pastoral duties in St. Martins. Mr. Young comes from New Brunswick and is the son of the late Evangelist J. W. S. Young who was widely known throughout the Maritime Provinces.—Com.
