THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

The Kindergarten re-opens tomorrow morning.

J. F. Ross, Kinross, was in the city yesterday.

There were no cases before the Police court in this city yesterday.

E. McFarlane, Annapolis, was among those registered at the Victoria Hotel yesterday.

The Guardian is in receipt of a very pretty and practical calendar from the Union Pacific Railway.

A prohibition summons, returnable Thursday, has been served upon P. P. Gillis, City, for fourth offence.

During the Christmas season Principal and Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Mt Allison, entertained the boys of the Academy to a turkey supper.

John McQuillan, City, recently underwent an operation in the City Hospital. He had an eye removed and will be around again in a few days.

The many friends of Mrs. Henry Webster, Dunstaffnage, will be pleased to learn that she is doing nicely after her operation last Friday morning at the P. E. I. Hospital.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscriptions," "Editorial," or "News," according to contents.

The ladies of the W. M. S. in connection with the Carleton Methodist Church St. John, gave their president Miss J. Henry, a very pleasant surprise last week by calling at the parsonage and presenting to her a certificate of life membership. Wesleyan Mrs. Henry is well known in this Province.

John Cullen of Alexandria, Lot 49 has received by telegram the pleasing intelligence that his son, Frederick has passed his examinations at St. John's, Newfoundland, and secured a Ship Captain's certificate. Young Cullen is to be congratulated having worked his way up from "before the mast" to the position of Captain, in a comparatively short time.

There will be two new pictures at New Wonderland tonight. "The Launching of the Voltaire" showing complete in all its detail, a most interesting and instructive sight. "The Launching of a Battleship, an "Omnibus" the story of a dog and his little mistress, sure to please old and young alike. Young Deer's Bravery. The Indian picture, of last night will again be shown for the last time.

Miss Roberta Drake has arrived from Western Canada to visit her parents Robt and Mrs. Drake, Corn wall. Miss Drake has spent the last two years and a half teaching school in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Before leaving her school in Arceles, Saskatchewan, a very enjoyable concert and Christmas tree was held at which Miss Drake was presented with a valuable chain and locket showing the eastern in which she was held.

The holiday aftermath at New Wonderland seems to be of the desirable sort, the pictures of last night being well up to the holiday standard. The Indian picture "Young Deer's Bravery" was one of the best of its kind ever shown, full of sensational situations, details strongly worked out and the photography splendidly clear. The other pictures, comedy and drama, gave good variety to the program, there being something to please all tastes. Mr. Rathbone's new song, "The Kingdom of Love, beautifully illustrated and well sung, made a decided hit. It is in part his own composition and to a lover of a good ballad is alone worth the price of admission.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK FELT.
 LONDON, Jan 3.—Prolonged earthquake shocks, extending over two hours, were recorded on the Isle of Wight and at the Observatory at Leitch. They were estimated at five or six hundred miles distant.

The Theatrical Star—Miss Adele Ritchie, admired for her beauty, says: "I am thoroughly pleased with Milkweed Cream, its delicious odor, and satisfying results on the face" and hands and recommends it as a peerless toilet article." Sold at 50c a crock by A. W. Reid.

A. J. Biffin, City, was a passenger to Halifax yesterday morning on the Minto.

A. J. Balderston, Melville, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

August Walker, Lunenburg, leaves his morning for Truro to attend the Agricultural College Short Course.

The Rev. D. MacLean will preach in the Presbyterian Church, Caledonia, on Sabbath first, 9th inst, at the usual hours.

James A. E. McDonald, Little Pond, leaves this morning to attend the Short Course in the Agricultural College at Truro.

The W. S. Harkins Co will open a week's engagement at the Opera House in this city, beginning Jan 11. For particulars see ad in this issue.

The Wesleyan contains a notice on the death of Thomas Wallace, Buctouche, N. B., formerly of this Province, written by Rev. Richard Opie.

Andrew Lavers, Assistant Purser on the C. G. S. Earl Grey, has resumed duty again after spending the New Year holidays at his home in Georgetown.

The postponed Christmas concert at Frackley will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 5th, at 7.30 o'clock. If not fine will be held Saturday evening, same hour.

The annual business meeting of the Presbyterian Church of Hampton, Devon and Bonshaw, will be held in Hampton Church on Jan. 4th at 7 p. m.

Miss Bertie Reagh and sister Mrs. V. Percival Selby of Regina, Saskatchewan, arrived home on the 23rd inst. in a visit to their parents Archdeacon and Mrs. Reagh, Milton.

It is pleasing to be able to state that despite reports of the death of G. L. Lacey, City, that gentleman is enjoying his usual health, and can daily be seen attending to his customary duties. The Guardian regrets the share it took in a recent issue in the publicity to his supposed death.

Rev. W. Phillips, the pastor, Charlottetown, writes the Wesleyan: "On the 19th of Dec. we reopened our church at Nictaux Falls, which has been undergoing much needed repairs. The congregations were good and the services very helpful. The chairman, Mr. J. F. Johnson, presented a fine sermon in the morning, on "Almost persuaded me to be a Christian." In the afternoon, Bro. J. Lacey preached with his old time fervour and eloquence, on "We reach Christ and Him crucified." The above gentlemen are well known here.

The annual meeting of the Northern Institute was held in the Mayfield hall on the 22nd inst. The President gave a brief summary of the subjects discussed during the year. The Treasurer reported a balance on hand and an increase in business over any previous year. Not only did the Institute deal in binder wire, seeds and improved stock, but in addition procured for its members a schooner load of coal and a car of flour. The following were elected: William Moffatt, President; James A. E. McDonald, Vice President; Adam Brown, Sec. Treas. A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring Pres and Sec.
