Millions of Canadian Workers UNITED In One Great Co-operative Enterprise

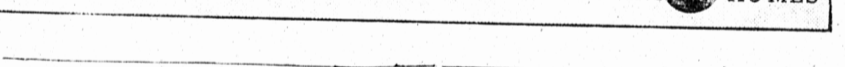

To guarantee financial security for themselves and their families—more than three million workers throughout Canada are today banded together through their ownership of Life Insurance.

Nine out of ten Canadian policyholders are insured for small amounts—proof that Life Insurance extends its greatest benefits to the humble homes of Canada.

Only through Life Insurance could these thrifty men and women obtain such priceless protection for their homes and loved ones.

In thousands of Canadian homes, Life Insurance means food, clothing and shelter—all made possible through Canada's greatest co-operative enterprise.
