SELDOM has a larger crowd been seen at York station than that which assembled on Wednesday afternoon, at 4 p.m. Every man loves to be strong and the men of our city should bear General Secretary Hobbs upon the development of Physical Stamina. This will be the eighth address in The Making of Manhood Course, which has been so acceptable to so many citizens during this winter.

At the Police Court yesterday the cases against Henry Josey and Patrick Doherty were adjourned for a week and the cases against John Collins and George Oller were dismissed. The case against Collins was at the prosecution of Campbell and the others at the prosecution of Jenkins.

PATTEN and Perry performed again last night to a fair audience at the Opera House. The Company throughout sustained the high opinion they won the first evening and are deserving of good patronage. An entire change of program will be given this evening.

EDGAR P. STRANG arrived in the City last night from Sydney with the remains of Mrs. Strang whose death took place on Wednesday last. He was accompanied by his two children and Mrs. Strang's aunt Miss McNeill. The body will be taken to the home of Mrs. Malcolm McNeill, West River, where the funeral takes place on Sunday.

ZION church Y. P. S. C. E. held a social last evening in the schoolroom of the church. A short program was rendered by the young people of the society and was fully equal to any program in which older and more experienced persons take part. An enjoyable evening with conversation was interspersed with cake and coffee.

A LARGE sized audience greeted The Patten & Perry Co. at the Opera House last evening to witness their production of the Irish comedy Jerry From Kerry. Those who went there expecting to have a good laugh were not disappointed for it was full of rousing good humor and excellent specialties. The Company carry a nice band—Frederickton & Gleason. At the Opera House, Charlottetown, for one week commencing Thursday, March 26. Reserved seat tickets on sale at usual places.

The grand jury at Halifax (Thursday morning) resumed consideration of the Health Nuisance matter and reported a true bill against Frank Heath for unlawfully keeping a disorderly house—a common gaming house. The judge then charged the jury in the case of the King against F. B. Scott, of keeping a gaming house. After an absence of 10 minutes the jury returned and reported finding a true bill against F. B. Scott. Bench warrants were then applied for against Frank Heath and F. B. Scott and issued both having been called on indictments and failed to appear.

MORRIS & SMITH,

PROF. A. W. ROBB, Physical Instructor of our Y.M.C.A., addresses the men of Charlottetown in Association Hall tomorrow Sunday afternoon, at 4 p.m. Every man loves to be strong and the men of our city should bear General Secretary Hobbs upon the development of Physical Stamina. This will be the eighth address in The Making of Manhood Course, which has been so acceptable to so many citizens during this winter. We fully expect the hall to be crowded, as Prof. Robb has made a great many warm friends in Charlottetown by his hard work and manly happy Christian character. Frank Stanley will sing a solo, the service of song begins at 3.45 sharp. All men and strangers to the city make welcome.

A VERY interesting meeting of Home Department workers was held last night at the home of the Field Secretary. Twenty three of the visitors and officers were present and the advantages and difficulties of successfully carrying on the work were discussed. The present membership of the Home Department is as follows—Zion, 112; Grace, 91; Baptist, 47; Kensington Hall, 25; W. T. Huggan reported a steady increase in the attendance and enthusiasm of the Zion school. Wm. Coffin reported the Zion Home Department, J. M. Duncan that of Grace church, and A. W. Sterns that of the Baptist church. Helpful suggestions were given and the meeting will probably result in increased interest in this new and growing branch of Sunday-school work.

A WELL filled hall greeted the performers in the closing concert of the Y.M.C.A. series in St. James Hall last evening. The program was opened by a pretty piano duet by Misses McLeure and Cairns which was well received and was followed by a yachting glee chorus by the choir. The readings by Miss Nan Poole and Miss Flo McKennie, were very pleasingly given, while the duets, male quartette and solo by Miss Hettie Collings, received well-merited praise. The two illustrated solos, Caller Herrin, by Mrs. Roome and The Holy City by Frank Stanley were heartily enjoyed by the audience and received much applause, as did also the piano solo by Miss Waterman, E. Weeks and Reginald Stewart's climatic solos given in their usual good style. A good night chorus, entitled Calm Be Thy Sighs, by the choir brought a very pleasing evening's entertainment to a close. Colonel Stewart on behalf of the Y.M.C.A. in a few well chosen words thanked the audience for their hearty support during the past very successful season's work.
